Buy "America" Alarm Clocks $1

Blessed be those that buy "America" Alarm Clocks for they will praise them. Every "America" I sell sells another, for every man I sell tells another. They make me lots of friends, that's why I can offer them for $1.00.

School Companion Free

With each tablet purchased we are giving a 5-cent School Companion free. These neat little wooden cases contain a penholder, a lead pencil, a slate pencil and a ruler. The children are delighted with them.

Some clockmakers don't like my "America" Alarms, for they work overtime.

Guaranteed for one year—good for ten.

WANT CROOK TO HELP RAISE FUNDS

To Improve the Cow Canyon Road

Meeting May Be Called Friday To Discuss Matter With Commissioner Rice

County Commissioner James Rice of Haycreek will be in Prineville Friday as a representative of Wasco county in the interests of securing subscriptions from the people of Crook county towards improving the Cow Canyon road. A meeting of the businessmen will probably be called to consider the matter and see what can be done. Madras, Bend, Redmond and other districts will also be visited for the same purpose. The Shaniko businessmen have taken up this matter of improving the road and are asking that Crook county residents help in the work. The following paragraphs from the Madras Pioneer explain the situation:

H. C. Rooper of Antelope and D. A. Howell of Shaniko have been appointed a committee to visit Crook county and ascertain what amount will be contributed by the citizens of this county towards improving Cow Canyon road.

The situation with reference to the proposed improvement is this: Wasco county has agreed to give the Shaniko district for use in Cow Canyon, the amount raised by road tax in that district, about $600. It will not, however, appropriate money raised in other districts for use on a road traveled chiefly by residents of another county. It is estimated that the road can be put in first-class condition for about $1200, and Wasco county is willing to take charge and put the road through, provided Crook county will raise by voluntary subscription about $600 as their proportion.

Post Items.

Post, Oregon, Feb. 8.

The Artisans report an interesting time at lodge last Saturday night.

The Newsome Creek Sunday school was in session last Sunday, for the first time since the severe cold weather.

Don Caldwell of the Basin spent several days last week transacting business in the city.

J. H. Gray of Prineville spent Thursday night at his Bonnyview Stock Farm. Mr. Gray was on his way to Beaver creek.

George Wiley lost a number of calves recently with what was supposed to be "black leg." Mr. Wiley vaccinated after losing about 12 head.

T. J. M. Riggs spent Wednesday evening visiting with friends on Newsome creek. He was on his way to the desert where he has charge of a band of sheep.

Miss Nellie Post returned home last Thursday from Hood River. Miss Nellie reports a pleasant time while gone.

Caleb Davis's new barn is progressing nicely. This makes the second new barn for Caleb in the last few years.

Prominent Stockman of Antelope Dies

Charles F. Levin, a wealthy rancher and stockman of Antelope, died suddenly of heart failure at Shaniko recently. The deceased, who was returning home from a trip to Portland, must have had a premonition of the end for before leaving the metropolis he made his will. His estate is valued at $40,000.

Mr. Levin was a native of Germany. He was 55 years old, unmarried, and had lived in Wasco county for the last 23 years.

Reorganization of the Club.

The meeting for the reorganization of the Prineville Amateur Athletic Club has been called for Monday, Feb. 22, a notice to that effect appearing elsewhere in this issue. The committee which had in charge securing subscriptions for the re-floating of the bonds has been entirely successful, and this meeting is called for the purpose of formally changing the name and putting the club on a new basis. The new club will partake more of the nature of a commercial organization, while the athletic features will all be retained.

Dates of the Cold Spells.

Mrs. W. H. Peck was over from Lamonta this week. In speaking of the different cold spells in Crook county Mrs. Peck said she wished to set at rest the exact dates at which they occurred. The double winter was in 1889-1890. It commenced Dec. 14 and stayed until the 1st of February. The coldest weather in the history of the county was in 1887-1888. The thermometer stood 45 below in Prineville and frozen up at outside points. There is no mistaking these dates, said Mrs. Peck because one of my sons was born at one of them and I had typhoid at the other date.

Flour Mill On Deschutes.

John L. Spoo of Lebanon was in town Sunday evening on his way to Laidlaw, where he recently bought timber land and will engage in the sawmill business. The machinery for the sawmill is now at Shaniko and will be hauled out to Laidlaw in a few days. On this trip in Mr. Spoo is accompanied by a party of four other prospective settlers in this county. It is understood that they have bought land near Cline Falls, and will soon build a flouring mill and a planing mill there, operating them by the water power near the falls on the Deschutes.—Madras Pioneer.

Notice to Creditors.

Notice is hereby given, by the undersigned, the administrator of the estate of David E. Templeton, deceased, to all persons having claims against said estate to present the same, with the proper vouchers, to the undersigned at his office in the First National Bank in Prineville, Oregon, within six months from the first publication of this notice. T. M. Baldwin, Administrator of the estate of David E. Templeton, deceased. 3-1

Redmond News.

Redmond, Or., Feb. 7.

We do a little butchering once in a while ourselves. Monday with some help we killed and dressed one of our Poland-Chinas that weighed dressed 488 pounds. The hams trimmed up and ready for the pickle went a little better than 50 pounds apiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley of O'Neil visited relatives here today.

Mrs. J. E. Lamb has returned from a visit of about five months in California where she has also been taking medical treatment. Late accounts report her as much improved in health.

Roller skating at the rink was much enjoyed Wednesday night by quite a goodly crowd. The floor is pretty good except that it is too slick from dancing which must be overcome by chalking. Mr. Poindexter says that we will have skating for the present every Wednesday evening.

We presume the Journal will be full this week of the railroad that is coming to Redmond. Advice from the Colonel from Portland state that word has been received to begin work at once, but as far as we could learn did not state on what road. We expect the Colonel in on Wednesday and then he will tell us all about it.

Frank McCaffery reports the sale of the Jake Ehret forty south of town yesterday. Some are inclined to believe that it has gone into the hands of railroad interests, as it was there that the "Y" and the terminus of the road was surveyed. The townsie company had a brisk sale of lots on Friday, disposing of 14 of them, and then withdrew them from sale the next day. This move is also connected with railroad development by some.

The chicken pie feed on Wednesday was well attended. Probably over 150 were served and made happy.

Kirk Whited is building a barn on the farm.

McLallin & Young have finished one job of clearing and have returned to Redmond where they are now at work for Carl Ehret.

Some of the ladies got up a Boston tea party which will be given on February 20. An important feature will be the supper served for 25 cents, the menu for which follows:

- Boston Baked Beans
- Bunker Hill Brown Bread
- Mt. Vernon White Bread and Butter Pickles
- Plantation Coffee, Spirit(s) of 76
- Martha Washington Cake
- Ice Cream

On invitation of Mrs. C. W. quite a number of Chris Ehret's friends gathered last night and very pleasantly informed him they were glad to see him so old and hoped he would live to see another milestone pass. The time was pleasantly passed with games and refreshments until Sunday was announced. E. C. PARK.
