

LOCAL MENTION

Miss Bessie Cudd of Paulina is in the city this week.

Sisters has organized a Commercial Club with a charter membership of 21.

I. W. Ward returned from Portland Wednesday, where he has been for several months.

J. A. Moore left on today's stage for Hood River for a stay of a couple of weeks.

The annual Firemen's Ball tomorrow night Friday Feb. 11, at Poindexter's rink. The big dance of the year.

F. E. Dayton and W. P. Thorp, prominent business men of Laddlaw spent several days in Prineville during the week.

County Judge H. C. Ellis passed through town Sunday on his way to The Dalles, where his father is confined in the hospital.

Mrs. Lillian Watts and Miss Myrthena E. Taylor are among the teachers from the Madras section attending the examinations being held this week.

A boxing exhibition is scheduled for tonight in the McCallister building between Stanley Morris and Dick Long, two preliminary bouts to precede the main event.

James Allen writes from the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland where he has been for treatment, that he is improving and hopes to return to Prineville by March 1.

C. D. Brown states that the Bend Band is making good progress at present under the leadership of F. F. Smith. Several new instruments are now on the way, and the businessmen of the town have subscribed about $50 per month for the support of the band.

Ex-Mayor Will Warzweller has been appointed receiver by the Merchants Protective Association of Portland to take charge of the general merchandise stock of L. M. Miller & Co., at Paulina, which firm has been declared bankrupt. Mr. Warzweller has gone to Paulina to take over the business.

The warrants have been attached to the tax-rolls and the sheriff's office is now ready to receive payment of taxes. Statements are being mailed to the taxpayers as fast as they can be made out and the task of collecting the money is well under way. William Johnson has completed his work of extending the rolls and placed the books in the hands of the sheriff.

George W. McFarland was over from Sisters Monday attending to business matters. While here Mr. McFarland had conferences with Messrs. Cooper and Lafollette, who expect to open a creamery business here soon and stated that the ranchers in the Sisters section would increase their production of cream in case the company here could arrange to handle it for them.

At the last regular meeting of the Ladies Annex it was decided to completely renovate the club rooms at F. A. A. C. hall and the work is being done this week. In consequence of which the club is closed. All of the rooms will be repapered and repainted and otherwise made attractive, the expense of this improvement to be met with funds from the Annex treasury. Magazines for the reading room were also ordered for the year.

Bishop Robert L. Paddock of the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon is expected to arrive in Prineville on Wednesday 21 and will hold services in the Methodist Church that evening. On Thursday evening a public reception will be held at the club rooms in his honor, at which time he will speak on his travels in Turkey, Russia, Egypt and other foreign countries. On Friday evening the 26 he will again hold services at the Methodist church. Everyone cordially invited to all of these meetings.

Ben Gotter was over from Sisters Monday.

Earl Noble of Madras is in town this week.

Miss Nellie Farrell of Youngs is spending the week in Prineville.

T. M. Baldwin returned home Monday from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Vivian Allen of Grizzly is attending the teachers examination in town.

Andrew Larsen, Jr., of Madras is in the city this week attending the teachers examination.

Alonzo Gesner, of Salem, a brother of Dr. Van Gesner arrived in Prineville last Sunday, to attend to business matters.

Leo Lafollette returned home Sunday from North Yakima, Wash., where he went to close up his business affairs.

Forest Guard Walter Morris and family left Monday for their home at Post, after a stay of several weeks in Prineville.

J. H. Pfitzner, of The Dalles, buyer for the Union Meat Co., arrived Monday and is looking after the purchase of fat stock for his company.

Will Warzweller and son Arthur arrived from Portland the first of the week and may spend several months in Prineville looking after business affairs.

L. Zimmerman of Portland, who buys stock for the S. S. Packing Co., of Portland arrived in Prineville Monday and is looking after the purchase of livestock for that concern.

Tickets for the declamation contest to be held February 26, at the P. A. A. C. hall, will soon be on sale and may be purchased from any high school student or by applying to the principal.

John R. Luckey will hold a blue rock about next Sunday afternoon on the baseball grounds near Poindexter's rink. The plan is to choose sides, the losing side to provide for a banquet for all competing in the event. The occasion promises to be an interesting one for the gun men.

Teachers examination for state and county papers are now under way in the court room in charge of Supt. Ford, Mrs. C. W. Elkins and Miss Cora Ferguson. Seventeen applicants were present at the opening Wednesday morning and the work is progressing according to schedule.

At the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning Dr. Dunsmore will present a bible reading, especially prepared for the younger members of the church, whose attendance is earnestly desired. The subject in the evening will be "Lot, The Self-Seeker" a continuation of the series of sermons-lectures or character sketches. Full choir and orchestra at the evening service. The public are cordially invited to all of these services.

A. Thomson and Duncan Macleod have formed a partnership in the real estate business in Portland, where Mr. Macleod has had an office opened for the past month. Mr. Thomson expects to go to Portland next week and may later remove to that city to make his home. Besides real estate they will handle insurance. Their specialty will be wheat and alfalfa farms in Central Oregon and some good Crook county properties are already listed with them. Their office is at 610 Swetland Building.

Mrs. J. H. Delore, who last January, was committed to the state asylum, was brought back to Prineville last Saturday, but after reaching here she suffered another attack of mental aberration. In the absence of Judge Ellis an examination was held before Justice of the Peace Ralph Sharp and on Monday Sheriff Elkins took her to Willow Creek on the Shaniko stage, where she was taken in charge by her son. Attendants from the state institution were at Shaniko to take her under their care on the return to Salem.

LOCAL MENTION

Orrin Mills is in town from Suplee. Prince Statta came over from Bend Tuesday.

Miss Tillie Fisch of Copal Prairie was in the city Sunday.

Joe Killingbeck was in town from Madras last Sunday.

William Boegli was up from the Cove Orchard last Friday on business.

C. W. Colby returned Monday from a business trip to outside points.

A. W. Boyce, a prominent rancher from Haystack was in town on business Wednesday.

Harry Windom and Ralph Armstrong were visiting friends in town the last of the week from Culver.

C. W. Elkins spent several days of this week on a business trip into the southeastern part of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Guerin came in from the ranch east of Bend last Sunday to spend a few days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson were in town from Bend Sunday. Mrs. Ferguson was on her way to the railroad.

J. H. Gray has gone into the Culver and Madras section on a business trip and expects to be gone the greater part of the week.

Miss Cora Ferguson arrived from Bend Saturday and has been in the city all this week assisting Superintendent Ford on the teachers examining board.

Conrad Strasser and Henry Grob of Madras were in Prineville the last of the week. Mr. Grob was attending to the matter of taking out land citizenship papers.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold an Easter Fair in the church on April 9 and 10. Many articles of fancy work and good things to eat will be placed on sale.

The subject for the morning service next Sunday at the First Methodist church will be "Jesus as the Light of the World", the one for the evening will be "Blind Bartimeus." The Sunday school at 10 o'clock and Epworth League at 6:30.

A new Presbyterian manse is to be built in Prineville at an early date on the church property, just south of the church building. This was the decision reached during the last week, and the intention is to begin construction as soon as possible.

Ray Fairchilds, a cattle buyer from Heppner has been in Prineville during the past week and has bought about five carloads of beef cattle from local growers. Columbus Johnson, Sid Stearns and J. H. Gray have each sold him some cattle.

The regular meeting of the "G. W. Y." club was held at the home of T. M. Baldwin last Saturday evening. Mrs. Baldwin surprised the members of the club by unexpectedly ushering in a number of young gentlemen friends, after which a pleasant social evening was spent.

School District No. 72, known as the Reynolds district, located near Powell Buttes, at a recent meeting voted an issue of bonds in the sum of $1000 for the purpose of building a new school house. The directors of this district are G. W. Reynolds, James Turner and J. I. Jones.

Frank Bogue, of Rosland was in Prineville the first of the week attending to business matters. Mr. Bogue has sold out his interest in the mercantile business there and is again getting a start of cattle on his ranch. He reports the town of Rosland enjoying a healthy growth.

R. L. Greene came in from Ashwood Tuesday, where he has just closed a successful term of school. He expects to open a term school in the Dannybrook district in the Ax-handle neighborhood. While here Mr. Greene handed the Journal a well written article on the prevention of typhoid fever, which will be published later.

The Band Boys' Big Barn DANCE

Are you any different from the average person? Do you like to have a good time occasionally? Of course you do. Therefore don't be misled into believing you won't enjoy yourself to the fullest extent on this occasion, for if you miss it you're bound to regret it

Just stop and consider these facts for a moment

The largest hall in Crook county
The best floor, waxed to perfection
Music by a full brass band; music by a full orchestra of nine pieces; music by other well known local talent
Quadrilles galore; waltzes, two-steps, schottisches, or whatever you want—a plenty and then some
A delicious and appetizing luncheon
Assistant floor managers from each nearby country precinct, who will make it his business to see that YOU have a good time, and last of all SOME Big Surprises which we have in store for you. Come, see and believe

DON'T FORGET THAT—The band boys are giving this ball for a worthy purpose. That the community at large is indirectly benefited by the success of this event. That the band boys are deserving of your sympathy, your encouragement, your co-operation. That a little assistance from you will make this musical organization one of the best in Central Oregon.

COME ONE—COME ALL—BRING YOUR GIRLS; YOUR WIVES. Come knowing you will have a good time. We know you will leave more than satisfied

P. A. A. C. Hall -- Tickets $1.00 -- March 5

- Tickets on sale at
- C. W. ELKINS
 - FOSTER & HYDE
 - CLIFTON & CORNETT
 - DARLING'S BARBER SHOP
 - W. FRANK PETETT
 - J. E. STEWART & CO
 - W. F. KING
 - LIVELY-JORDAN-LANIUS CO
 - STORKMANN'S CIGAR STORE

LOCAL MENTION

Miss Lottie Montgomery the Paulina school teacher is in town taking teachers examination.

Assessor Lafollette has been summoned to Salem by the secretary of state to attend the meeting of the state board of equalization.

Dr. Harold Clark, who now makes his home on a homestead in the Haystack region, was in town this week shaking hands with his many friends.

Joe Smith of Paulina was in town Friday on his way to Portland where he was going to look after some matters in connection with his cattle business.

Mrs. John E. Ryan and Miss Marian Myers departed Tuesday for the railroad. Miss Myers is on her way to her home in San Francisco, and Mrs. Ryan will visit in Portland.

An interdenominational male quartette has been organized in Prineville composed of the following: 1st tenor, Prof. E. L. Ashby, 2nd tenor John R. Luckey, 1st bass L. C. Morgan, 2nd bass Harry Lanus.

The first grade of the Prineville public schools, Miss Cora Strottel, teacher, was awarded the Banner of Honor for good order during last week. This grade had only nine marks of offenses against it for the week.

Poindexter's rink now makes a circuit of Bend, Redmond and Prineville, Monday and Tuesday nights of each week at Bend, Wednesday night at Redmond and Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Windom came in from their home near Culver Tuesday. On arriving in town they found their daughter Mabel, who is a student in the high school, quite seriously ill with a case of tonsillitis.

In the last issue of the "Echo", the official organ of the Women of Woodcraft, appears account of the vacation of Mrs. Ada B. Millican when she was a "cow-woman" with her husband at the Bear Creek ranch. The article is cleverly written and is embellished with a portrait of Mrs. Millican.

Maher & Co. Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co
DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Magais
Lowney's Candies
Stationery
Cigars

The finest and most complete line of VALENTINES ever shown in Prineville.

D. P. Adamson & Co.
DRUGGISTS

Ammunition
Guns
Knives, Belts

All kinds of sportsmen's Supplies. Shotgun shells loaded to order. Powder shot, shells and reloading outfits

SOLD BY
W. F. King

LUMBER
Shingles, Mouldings, Windows, Doors, Glasses, Etc. Etc., Etc.
SHIPP & PERRY
PRINEVILLE, OREGON

Dissolution of Partnership.
The firm of Jones & Ritter has been dissolved by mutual consent. 2-4-11

Notice to Dog Owners.
Notice is given to dog owners living within the incorporated limits of the city of Prineville that you are hereby notified to procure a license for your dog at once for the ensuing year of 1909.
C. L. SHATTUCK, Recorder. 1-14-11

Watch this space next week

New Spring Dry Goods, Furnishings, Shoes, Etc

J. E. Stewart & Company