

SAVE MONEY ON PLOWS AND SHARES

NO. 11 SULKY

HAVING LOST THE AGENCY OF THE Oliver Chilled & Steel Plows

We are prepared to close out our line of Sulky, Gang and Walking, steel and chilled Oliver Plows without regard to cost.

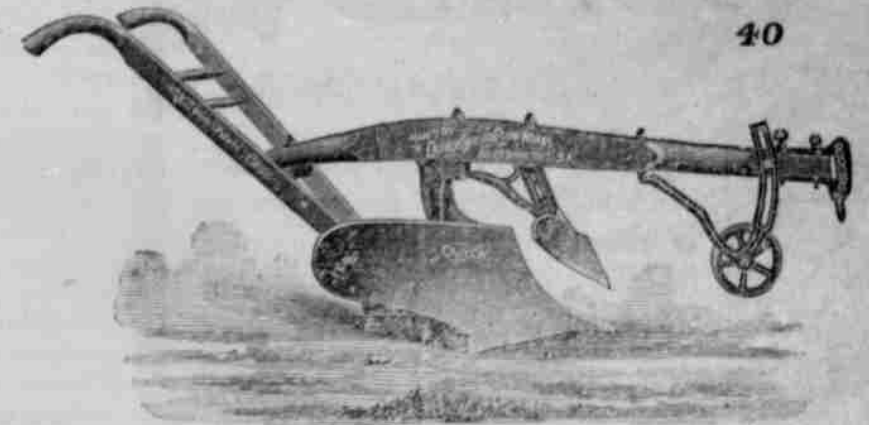

We have a full line of repairs and extra parts for all Oliver Plows, which will be closed out at a bargain price.

Sharples Cream Separators

- No. 2, for 300 Lbs
- No. 3, for 400 Lbs
- 5 Gallon Milk Cans

W. F. KING

PRINEVILLE, OREGON

NO. 40 CHILLED

Big Variety Bulk Garden Seeds

We have the cleanest Dry Land Utah Alfalfa Seed in town; also best Timothy Mammoth Red, Alsike and Red Top Clovers and Field Peas. Special orders taken for large quantities

LOCAL MENTION

E. B. Knox of Post spent the first of the week in the city.

J. E. Reed was over from Bend on business last Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Windom of Culver is in town the guest of her sister Mabel.

P. Chitwood, road supervisor for the Grizzly district, was in town Monday.

John Hoffman, sr., of Madras, came up to Prineville the last of the week.

W. P. Vandervert of Bend was in Prineville the last of the week on business.

Edwell F. Cooper, of Grizzly, spent Friday in Prineville, attending to business matters.

County Commissioners James Rice of Hayesreek and R. H. Bayley of Shaniko are in town attending the regular term of county court.

J. C. Robinson of Madras made a flying trip to Prineville Tuesday bringing Mrs. Gutendorf to the city where she will receive medical treatment.

J. L. Smith of Paulina passed through Prineville Wednesday with a fine bunch of cattle on the way to Shaniko. He has 171 head and gets $5.10 for Shaniko delivery.

W. F. King has gone to Portland for an absence of probably several weeks. Mr. King is afflicted with a growth forming on one of his knees and has gone to the city to have the limb treated. The case is not a serious one. Miss Edith King accompanied her father.

A delegation of residents from near Lower Beldge are in town this week on business before the county court in regard to the county taking over a portion of the old military wagon road west of the Deschutes and making it a county road, changing the route somewhat so as to avoid heavy grades and in order to keep the road in repair. Among them are Johnnie Howard, Sid West, Nick Lambert and Jerry Groeskruger.

Willie Gibson and Miss Rose Gibson, no relationship by the way, were married last Sunday afternoon February 28, 1909, at about 1 o'clock, at the home of Columbus Johnson in Prineville, Rev. C. A. Lewellen of the M. E. Church officiating. The groom is the son of Hiram Gibson, the well known rancher, and the bride is a popular young school teacher. The happy couple will reside at the Hiram Gibson ranch on the Shaniko road, where the groom has business interests with his father.

LOCAL MENTION

John B. Brown and Melvin Gillett drove in from Haystack Tuesday.

Cobble Stroud went to Bend Monday afternoon on a short business trip.

W. A. Booth is back at his work in the Crook County Bank, after a long illness.

Mrs. H. H. Winslow departed Monday for a visit with relatives at Corvallis.

A. H. Lippman returned home the first of the week from his trip through Washington and Oregon towns.

F. D. Mulholland of Crook was in town the first of the week attending to matters in connection with making final proof on his desert claim.

Will Wurzwiler returned to Portland Sunday. He was accompanied by John Combs, deputy sheriff, who goes to the city on a short business trip.

Jesse Windom of Culver the other day sold the yearling Belgian stallion, which was exhibited at the county fair as a suckling colt last fall, for $200.

Judge H. C. Ellis arrived Sunday from Bend to attend probate court cases, Monday and Tuesday the regular term of Commissioners court opening on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. West, who formerly resided at the Big Meadows above Bend, were passengers on Tuesdays stage for the railroad. They will make an extended visit in eastern states.

J. F. Morris last week sold his young team of horses, one two and one three years old, to a representative of Russell, the horsebuyer, for $400. They were taken to Shaniko for shipment.

Superintendent R. A. Ford returned last week from his trip in the Madras section where he visited the several schools and conducted the educational rally at Madras. He reports all the schools making progress.

Eugene Lussier and wife, left Tuesday on their way to Prince Rupert, B. C. Mr. Lussier has been in that section before and thinks that with the opening up of the new townsite there in May that that district will make some good opportunities for him.

J. S. Wilson, of Roseburg, was in Prineville this week looking for some stock sheep which he desires to purchase. He did not succeed in finding any here for sale at prices which he wanted to pay, and expected to go into the Mitchell country in further quest of sheep.

LOCAL MENTION

Nineteen new members have recently been voted into the United Artisan lodge in Prineville, making the membership 100.

Mrs. Ralph Jordan returned Saturday from a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Cline, at Lower Bridge. Mrs. Cline accompanied her daughter to Prineville and remained in the city until Tuesday.

Mrs. Thirza Belknap, who has been residing at San Jose, Calif., accompanied her son Dr. Belknap on his return from Salem last week and will make her home with the doctor's family in Prineville for some time.

J. E. Wilson, who has for the past six months conducted a shoe repairing shop in Prineville, will remove to his former home at Madras shortly where he has employment in the harness shop of Postmaster Fred Davis. Mr. Wilson has made proof on a homestead near Madras.

On Sunday, March 14th, Rev. J. Anthony Mitchell of Bend will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, exchanging pulpits with Dr. Dunsmore, who will preach at Bend on that date. Mr. Mitchell was formerly pastor of this church, and his many friends will be delighted at this opportunity of hearing him again.

C. Wawrinofsky, a rancher from the Madras section was in the city the last of the week. He reports that farming conditions are very favorable for a good grain crop this year, but does not believe that the acreage planted is much greater than that of last year. There is plenty of moisture in the ground at present and the young grain is growing nicely.

George Millican was in from Bear Creek the last of the week. He has not yet sold his beef cattle. Mr. Millican reports the killing of three cougars recently by a resident of that district. Last spring the cougars made considerable havoc among the colts and calves of the ranchers there, and it would appear that these animals are getting ready for operations again this spring.

A. W. Grater this week closed up his laundry business in Prineville and has removed the machinery used in the work from the McCallister building to his ranch down the Ochoco. Mr. Grater intends to devote his time to practice of his vital healing treatment and leaves Saturday for Bend to spend six weeks with patients there. On his return to Prineville he will open an office.

LOCAL MENTION

L. S. Logan returned from the railroad on today's stage.

L. A. Booth returned home today from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Olive and Hazel Blair of Youngs were in the city this week.

Warren Brown, county clerk returned Wednesday from a visit to Portland, Hillsboro, Walla Walla and The Dalles.

The new apportionment of state taxes requires Crook county to pay $15,682.50. Assessor Lafolette says this is an even thousand dollars less than the levy called for before the change was made, which means $1000 saved for the county to use at home.

At the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, Dr. Dunsmore will deliver the second of the series of sermons on "Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress". Evening service at the usual hour 7:30, following the meeting of Christian Endeavor which meets at 6:30. Everybody cordially invited.

Carnation Chapter No. 44, O. E. S., is planning for an observance of the anniversary of the organization of the local chapter on March 27. This will be the 13th anniversary. The function will probably be a joint one with the Masonic brethren and may include a banquet, but at any rate an elaborate program is being prepared.

E. C. Rooser, representing Glass & Prudhomme, of Portland, is in the city, conferring with the county court on the selection of office supplies and furniture and fixtures for the new court house. E. D. Payne of the Davis Safe & Lock Company, is also here on the same mission, but nothing definite has been done by the court toward granting a contract for the furniture and fixtures.

The Shu-mi-a Club met with Mrs. C. W. Elkins last Saturday afternoon. Roll call was responded to by quotations from George Washington. Mrs. Pearl Kaylor presented a paper dealing with current events, and each member contributed quotations from Longfellow. Miss Catharine Conway sang "The Bridge" as her contribution on this part of the program. Mrs. C. I. Winnek read a review of the current novel, "Peter". For entertainment a fruit guessing game was arranged in rebus form. Three of the ladies, Miss Parrott, Miss Conway and Mrs. Rosenberg tied for the first prize and Mrs. Rosenberg won by lot. Mrs. C. A. Lytle secured the consolation prize. Lemon sherbet was served.

LOCAL MENTION

Alex Macintosh of Suplee has returned home from a visit at Portland. Charley Darbin, the Antelope sheepman, was in Prineville on business the last of the week.

Reuben Booten came in last Thursday from his home at Post to spend a few days visiting with friends in town.

R. Perry Long, who has been spending some time at Portland and Shaniko, arrived from the latter place on Monday's stage.

Everything is in readiness for the Band Boys dance tomorrow night at P. A. A. C. hall. The committee having in hand the matter of securing donations for the luncheon met with such success that they only found it necessary to make a partial canvass of the town when more good things were donated than could be used. Many tickets have already been sold and the reports from outside neighborhoods indicate that the crowd of dancers in attendance will be a record breaker.

LOCAL MENTION

M. R. Biggs arrived home today from Portland where he went to dispose of his 1500 head of mutton sheep.

The Priscilla Workers will give their fair on April 17, 1909. They will have fancy and useful articles for sale, and serve refreshments from the booths. The assistance and patronage of all is earnestly requested.

The fire companies of the local department held their regular meeting this week. After all the expenses of the annual ball were paid there were net receipts amounting to $102, which will be divided between the companies.

At the First Methodist church next Sunday morning the subject will be, "Every Christian a personal worker for Christ." The subject for the evening will be, "The deeds of a man lives after him; or how much of the real Christ was killed on the cross?" Sunday school service at 10 o'clock, and Epworth League at 7:30 p. m. Every member of the church is requested to be present at the 11 o'clock service as important business will be explained at the close.

LOCAL MENTION

Wm. Brownhill of Youngs is in town today.

Born—At Saratoga, Calif., Feb. 16, to Mrs. Grace Belknap Smith, a son.

The annual Easter Fair of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church has been set for April 2d and 3d. They are planning to eclipse all former efforts and solicit a generous patronage. It will be held in the sample room of the Prineville Hotel.

John Alden Seabury, the famous walk artist, returned from a trip to Portland the first of the week and has gone with his family to Astoria, where it is understood he has employment on a newspaper. He stated that he had been granted a six-months leave of absence from his homestead.

L. Conini, of The Dalles Marble Works, is in Prineville today. He was in Lamonta section on business and came over to see the new court house, which he thinks is a beauty. Mr. Conini formerly resided here and says that he discovered the quarry from which the stone used in the construction of the local buildings is taken.

Maher & Grosh Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co

DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Magas
Lowney's Candles
Stationery
Cigars

Before buying a Violin, Mandolin, Banjo, Accordion or Harmonica call and inspect our stock

D. P. Adamson & Co.

DRUGGISTS

J. E. Stewart & Company's Store

The place to save money in all lines

Dry Goods, Furnishings, Shoes, Groceries, Shelf Hardware. Everything in Bulk and Package Garden Seeds. Agents for the U. S. Cream Separator