

Wire Nails and Fencing

We have just bought at a great saving two carloads of wire nails and fencing and we propose to give our patrons the benefit. If you are in the market for nails or wire fencing get our prices before buying.

Clipped Horses

LOOK BETTER FEEL BETTER WORK BETTER
BETTER TRY IT THIS SPRING

We handle the Celebrated STEWART CLIPPER, most durable, simple and economical. All working parts enclosed. Call and see them.

Headquarters for All Kinds of Seeds

PRINEVILLE

W. F. KING

OREGON

Garden Seeds Package & Bulk

Our seeds are the best that money can buy. Besides a complete stock of garden seeds we also handle Alfalfa, Clover and Grass Seeds.

Our line of Garden Tools includes everything needed in preparing the ground, planting and cultivating.

LOCAL MENTION

F. H. Mingers of Lamonta was in town Monday.

George Rodman came in from Culver Monday.

Born, in Prineville, March 23, 1909, to the wife of Prof. J. F. Blanchard, a daughter.

Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is ill at Portland, and unable to attend her classes at St. Helens Hall.

Preparations are being made by Carleton Chapter No. 44 for their anniversary celebration next Saturday evening. All Masons invited.

M. A. Lehman who has been living at Milwaukie, Oregon, writes the Journal to change his address to O'Neil, where he has a homestead.

William Ledford, better known as "Kentuck," has returned to Shaniko from Portland where he has been attending business college during the past winter.

Ed. Kutcher, a pioneer resident of the county whose home is at Hay creek, has been brought to the city for medical attention. His condition is considered critical.

Charles Horton, the Klamath Marsh stockman, is in Prineville this week on his annual visit looking after the purchase of stock cattle for his Klamath county ranches.

D. A. Findley and wife, who live at Rosland, passed through town the first of the week on their way home from Portland, where they have been making an extended stay.

Frank Osborn of Madras was in town Monday for a short stay. He left Tuesday for points up the Deschutes, where he goes to look up a business proposition. Mr. Osborn recently resigned as U. S. Commissioner at Madras and is now looking about for something at which to engage himself.

The Alpha Literary Society entertained the members of the Ochocoan Society of the high school last Friday evening. The reception was held in the high school building. Members of the faculty and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Williamson were also present. A short program of recitations and music was rendered. Mr. Williamson took the company on a trip through the National Capitol, and introduced them to official life at Washington in an entertaining address. Refreshments of punch and cake were served.

Mrs. Adella French, aged about 68 years, died at the home of John French on Dry creek up McKay, last Friday night after a long illness. She had been bedfast for the past two months. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. D. Lewellen conducting the services at the grave. The interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Prineville. Deceased was the mother of John and William French, and made her home with her sons during the past year and a half. She formerly lived near Salem.

Uncle Jimmy Lawson is reported on the sick list.

Alex. Thomson returned home from Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wurweller arrived last Thursday to spend a couple of weeks in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard of Lower Bridge were visiting in the city several days this week.

S. S. Stearns has been called to Douglas county by the news that a sister there is dangerously ill.

J. H. Reams, manager of the Cornett Stage Company, came in from Shaniko Tuesday to spend a few days in Prineville.

H. L. Rhoades, lineman for the Pacific States Tel. Co., came in from Shaniko the first of the week to look after the lines in this vicinity.

Miss Ella Daw departed Tuesday for her old home at La Grande. Her parents accompanied her in from Redmond, this far, returning home that day.

Married, in Prineville, Thursday, March 18, 1909, Mr. Wm. H. Brummer and Miss Oka Welborn, Rev. C. P. Bailey officiating. The contracting parties reside at Post.

George Milligan and S. S. Stearns took a shipment of four carloads of beef cattle to Shaniko the last of the week. They sold at Shaniko receiving 4 1/2 and 4 3/4 cents.

Services at the Union Church next Sunday, March 28, are as follows: Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m.; topic, "The Strong Man and the Stronger." C. E. society at 7 p. m. Preaching at 8 p. m.; topic, "The Great Question." A cordial invitation to all. C. P. Bailey, pastor.

There is evidently something wrong with Mrs. J. H. Messenger's chickens. A few days ago that lady brought to this office a curious double-shelled egg. Now comes the news in a note that another curiosity has arrived in her yard in the shape of a four-footed chicken which is four days old and looks as fine as any of the other twelve of the brood.

Mr. Roy Chittwood and Miss Ethel J. Newbill, both of Grizzly, were united in marriage Sunday, March 14, 1909, in Madras. The wedding, which was a quiet affair with only the relatives of the bride present, occurred at the home of the pastor of the Christian church, Elder B. F. W. Pittman, who performed the ceremony.—Pioneer.

The "Shu-mi-a" Club met with Mrs. C. A. Lytle Saturday evening from 7 to 11 o'clock. Roll call was answered with quotations from favorite authors. A paper on current events was presented by Mrs. C. I. Winick. Three book reviews were given, "The Mill on the Floss" by Mrs. C. W. Elkins and "Daniel Doronda" by Mrs. M. E. Brink, both by George Elliott. Mrs. H. P. Belnap reviewed Oscar Wilde's "De Profundo," and general discussion of the three books followed. Pineapple, mousse and cake were served.

LOCAL MENTION

Attorney George Barnes went to Bend Monday.

J. H. Haer went to Portland Sunday on a business trip.

W. C. Ford and wife, formerly of this city, are in San Francisco.

Dr. C. A. Cline was in town from his home near Lower Bridge last Friday.

Mrs. D. N. Biggs of Sisters passed through Prineville Sunday on her way to the railroad.

John E. Ryan returned last Friday from a trip to Portland. Mrs. Ryan is still in that city.

Nick Lambert, the Black Butte rancher, was in town on business several days the last of the week.

Thron Taronson left the latter part of the week for a business trip to Portland, and will be absent for a week or longer.

E. N. Gilliam of Madras was in town Monday on business. Mr. Gilliam is interested in the training of trick horses and is agitating the subject of the County Fair Board offering some premium for the best trained horse.

Superintendent Ford spent several days last week visiting the schools at Methodist Hill, Round Butte, Juniper Butte and Trail Crossing. This week he is visiting the schools at Grizzly, Haycreek and other districts north of there.

The Misses Elva J. Smith and Hazel Caldwell entertained the teachers of the Prineville public schools last Friday evening. Games, music and refreshments were the order of the evening, and the occasion was a pleasant one.

C. L. Gist has sent in his resignation as postmaster at Gist and it looks very much like this office would be discontinued soon, which will make a great inconvenience for the many who get their mail there.—Tumalo Cor. Bend Bulletin.

Stroud Bros. and Wm. Davenport who recently made a shipment of hogs from Madras to Portland, taking the porkers from Madras to Shaniko in freight wagons, have bought 130 head more and will make another shipment this week. Besides the hogs they will also take in a carload of cattle at the same time.

A letter has been received from Madison Throckmorton of Albany, Ohio, making inquiries about the death of George Cline, which took place March 9, 1909. The letter is answered by a nephew. In part it reads: "I thought his home was in Prineville. The notification of death was sent from Ontario, Or. If you do not know him please hand this letter to someone that does." Mr. Cline was engaged in the meat business in Prineville nine or ten years. He has relatives living in Crook county and if this notice should fall under their attention they might take the matter up.

J. H. Quinn of O'Neil was in town on business Tuesday.

George Anton has moved to Howard for the summer.

Mrs. Anna Maling is now living at 20 Mars street, San Francisco.

T. J. Ferguson is in town from Bear Creek, looking after business matters.

Wm. Prine and daughters came in from Haycreek on yesterday's stage to visit in town.

W. F. King and daughter Edith are expected home from Portland the last of the week.

Miss Myrthena E. Taylor closed a successful term of school at Culver last week. She is now at home near Madras.

Rev. C. P. Bailey was called to The Dalles Wednesday evening, on account of the serious illness of his wife, therefore he will not hold services Sunday at the Union church.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will open their Easter fair in the sample room of the Prineville Hotel building on Friday, April 2, at 1 p. m. Supper will be served beginning at 5 p. m. Come and help us.

C. T. Allingham of Linn county has been in town several days this week. Mr. Allingham is a brother of L. E. and Guy Allingham, who reside in this county, and is on his way to the Matoles country—Madras Pioneer.

To relieve the minds of those who are worrying about the short flag pole on the tower of the new court house, it might as well be stated that there is no intention of floating a flag from this pole at all. Old Glory will wave from the pole in the yard as formerly, and those who have visions of the Star Spangled Banner being torn to shreds on the iron railing on the dome may quiet their fears in that respect.

The hearing in the justice court of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Erickson on complaint of Leonard Walters was in progress when the Journal went to press last week. Walters was put on the stand and repeated the statement made by him before Justice Sharp. The defendants offered no evidence. Justice Sharp bound the Ericksons over in the sum of $2500, which bonds were furnished with Watt Jones and Charles Daly as sureties.

At the last Rebekah meeting, held Thursday evening, March 18, four new members were admitted. The entertainment committee furnished recreation for the members by having a guessing contest, followed by light refreshments. 3338 grains of Madras wheat were placed in a bottle and each member allowed one guess. The winning number, 3947 was made by Miss Jessie V. Hartley, who received for a prize a beautiful panel of pyrographic art. This young lady was also fortunate at a similar guessing contest held at a previous meeting, when she made a guess of 576 on a bottle containing 537 kernels of Madras corn.

LOCAL MENTION

Fred M. Smith of Paulina is in the city.

Silas Hodges will be found at his old stand, the Feed Yard, after the first of the month.

Mrs. Marion Travis, who has been visiting at her home in Iola, Kansas, for several months came home Wednesday. Mr. Travis met her at Shaniko.

Mrs. Perry Iams, of Powell Buttes, who has been ill for several months was brought to town Wednesday for medical care, being unable to sit up. She is at the Prineville.

Ora Van Tassel of Madras is in town. He is looking after business in connection with buying timber claims in the Matoles country for an eastern firm which he represents.

The oratorical contest of the Crook County High School takes place at the club hall tomorrow, Friday evening. An excellent program is promised and the students of the school are showing much interest in the event.

At the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning, the regular quarterly communion service will be held, with sermon by the pastor followed by the administration of the sacraments of the Lord's Supper, and baptism of infants. In the evening, Dr. Dunsmore will preach his farewell sermon, as he will leave for Independence during the coming week.

H. K. Nissen of Madras is in town. Prince Stants is in town from Bend for a few days.

Joe A. Brown came in from Haystack Wednesday bringing in a load of potatoes.

The baseball club will give a benefit ball at Poindexter's rink on Friday evening April 2. Proceeds will be used in equipping the team with bats, balls, suits, etc., and in meeting the other expenses of the club.

Tom Sly of Rosland, had a hearing in the Bend Justice court the first of the week in connection with the troubles which arose over the Sly-Findley horse case, as was reported last week. He was discharged.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday morning the subject will be, "Flowers for the Living." There will be no service in the evening. The congregation will join in the farewell service of Dr. Dunsmore at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. George Rodman arrived in town last night from Culver with her ten year old son, who had the misfortune to cut off the middle toe of his right foot with an ax yesterday. The bone was completely severed. Dr. Belknap attended the foot, and stuck the toe back on. He says there is no doubt in his mind that the member will again take up connection with the rest of the body and that the toe will soon grow back almost as good as new.

Land for Sale.

640 acres of land for sale; 50 acres in cultivation; 25 miles east of Prineville; good stock location; plenty of water; good range. For further information inquire at this office. 3-18m

NEW MILLINERY EASTER OPENING

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY
MARCH 30th AND 31st :

Advance styles in spring and summer millinery. Beautiful pattern hats, noble street hats, for ladies, misses and children will be on display at

MRS. ESTES MILLINERY PARLORS

Corner Second and Main Streets, Prineville, Oregon

Maker & Grosh Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Maps
Lowrey's Candies
Stationery
Cigars

Call and get a free sample of

Hair Tonic and Dandruff Remedy

Removes and prevents Dandruff by applying thoroughly to the roots of the hair every two or three days. This is an excellent remedy for cleansing the scalp of dandruff and producing a healthy condition of the hair.

D. P. Adamson & Co. DRUGGISTS

J. E. STEWART & COMPANY

Warners Rust Proof Corsets

We are agents for Warners Rust Proof Corsets. Every pair guaranteed; they are made to fit and wear—not to rust, break or tear.

MANY NEW STYLES. COME AND SEE

Men's Custom Made Shoes

Many new styles in our shoe department, in Oxfords and High-Cuts.

ALMOST 2000 PAIRS TO SELECT FROM

SPECIALS

Men's Underwear

We are closing out this line of underwear, medium weight garment—mixed wool and cotton, a good garment, retail val 75c, while they last, garment 40c

Neckties

One lot of neckties retail value 15 to 35c, special, 10c

Men's Linen Collars

Regular 15 cent values, while they last .....05c

Raisins

A lot of nice Three Crown Raisins, special one week at per lb.....09c

Garden Tools and Supplies

Supply your wants in this line from us. We have everything needed such as shovels, hoes, rakes, etc; while in the line of seeds we have both bulk and package.

FIELD SEEDS: Red Clover, Alfalfa, Alsike Clover.

Home Cured Meats

You don't know what good meat is if you have not tried our home cured product; it is not killed with salt and saltpeter like so much that you buy. It is simply delicious.

SPECIAL PRICE ON HOME CURED SHOULDERS