LOCAL MENTION

Howard F. Jones of Redmond was in town Monday.
Born—March 30th, to the wife of William O'Kelley, a son.
Prince Glaze has returned home from a short stay in Portland.
James McMeen of Lamonta was in town Saturday on business.
Henry Cadle and family returned home from Corvallis last Thursday.
Andrew Morrow, the Willow creek sheepman, spent Saturday in town.
Jack Coe, of Shaniko, was looking after business matters in town last Saturday.
Dr. J. F. Guerin and Mrs. R. F. Guerin were in the city Monday from near Bend.
Miss Daisy McCallister has returned to her home on Crooked river after several months residence in Salem.
George Noble has sold his cattle and leased his Bear creek ranch to Will Wurzweller. Wurzy took possession last Friday.
Martin Drake and family of Paulina passed through town Saturday on their way to Estancia, New Mexico, where they will make their home.
Marion Templeton has bought lots in the Fifth Addition to Prineville west of the skating rink and is completing a comfortable house on the property. He will make it his home.
Shamp Smith and Isom Cleek have dissolved partnership and the soft drink establishment recently opened at the old stand will be conducted by the former. Mr. Smith has purchased the lot owned by the John Prior estate and will build a home thereon in the near future.
W. C. Barber came in Monday from his ranch near Culver to look after some business matters in town. Mr. Barber's homestead is right in the path of the proposed Harriman railway and the right of way man was negotiating with him recently for a passway through the land.
H. A. Myers of Redmond was in town the last of the week, bringing in the big Belgian stallion owned by a farmers company at that place. Pussant d'Ironx is seven years old and when in prime condition weighs about 2000 pounds. The horse attracted much attention of stockmen here.
N. B. Longly, better known to old-timers of Crook county as "Old Yank," is in town this week. He came as a witness in a water-right suit that is having a hearing before Judge Bell. "Old Yank" came to Crook county nineteen years ago and is a well-known character in the Paulina country. He is an old hunter and trapper. This is his first visit to Prineville in eight years. So many old landmarks have been obliterated that it was with difficulty he could get his bearings. "Old Yank" will leave for his mountain home in a few days.

Chas. A. Wenver has made filing on a homestead in the Bear creek district.
Mrs. Esther Farnsworth, is visiting friends in town from her home at Paulina Valley.
Mrs. H. J. Healy and Edwin Healy were in the city Wednesday from their home at Haystack.

Omar Claypool returned home the last of the week from a tour of the county in the interests of C. W. Elkins' big department store.
Harry Lanus, of the Lively-Jordan-Lanus Company, has been out in the country during the past week looking after business matters.
Miss Katie Dunsmore who is stenographer in the D. I. & P. Co's office at Bend, came over the last of the week to visit with her father, prior to his departure for Independence.
Wm. Lytle came down from Paulina the first of the week for seed grain. He is running Hugh Lister's ranch. Mr. Lytle says that grass and grain in his part of the country looks much better than down here. They have had more moisture in that part of the county.
Dr. Chas. H. Dunsmore, retiring pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening. The crowd that came out to hear the doctor was so great the church could not seat them all, a splendid testimonial of the esteem in which Prineville people hold him. Dr. Dunsmore leaves this week for his new home at Independence.
James Douglas and family departed Monday for Portland where they will make their home. Mr. Douglas was one of the contractors who did the stone work on the new courthouse, and brought his family here to live while work was in progress. He is not leaving Prineville for good but expects to return some time in the future.
John McPherson of Bear Creek was arrested last Thursday on a warrant charging him with the larceny of a coat named "Dolly", the property of Lou Hodges, of Prineville. Charles Houston made the arrest. McPherson waived examination and gave bonds to appear before the grand jury in the sum of $1000. Miller McPherson and Joe Smith of Willow Creek are the sureties.
J. H. Gray and Art Wurzweller have sold all of the 24 head of horses which they recently bought and had in the yards near the Gray home in Prineville, where they were broken and spruced up for the market. George Russell, the Tacoma buyer, secured some of the animals and the balance were sold to a Portland company, good prices being received all around. "We made good money on this deal," said Mr. Gray, "and we may buy some more. There's no telling what a man will do when he gets started."

H. E. Derrick, of Portland, a forest ranger, has reported at Supervisor Ireland's office, and will probably be placed on duty in the Deschutes National Forest.
Miss Edyth Rideout, who taught during the winter in the Lamonta country, has commenced a spring term of school in the sagebrush flat district with 12 pupils.—Madras Pioneer.
I. B. Meyer, S. J. Clemens, J. O. Garner, Fred and Joe Smith and John Davin were all in from Paulina this week in connection with the water right case, testimony concerning which was taken before W. A. Bell this week.
The Easter Fair and supper by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will open in the sample room at Hotel Prineville Friday, April 2, at 1 o'clock p. m. Various things will be on sale, and beginning at 5 o'clock a delicious supper will be served all during the evening at 35 cent per plate.
Jacob Becker and family, formerly of the Willamette valley, is a recent arrival. He has purchased the homestead relinquishment of Clyde H. Hill on the southeast side of Powell Buttes, and has filed on the land. He will make his home there. This was formerly the R. B. Foster claim and is considered to be one of the best ranches on the buttes.
At the First Methodist church next Sunday "Palm Sunday" will be observed. The subject for the morning service will be, "The day of Triumph", the one for the evening will be, "Flowers for the Living". There will be special music by the newly organized orchestra and choir. Sunday school at 10 o'clock and Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. A most cordial invitation is extended to worship with us.
Champ Smith, Jas. Smith and Dr. C. A. Cline have organized a company known as the Steelhead Falls Improvement Company and have filed on the power site at Steelhead Falls, four miles below Lower Bridge on the Deschutes river. Their ultimate purpose is to develop the power there afforded by a straight drop of 20 feet in the Deschutes. Another filing has been made by the Harney County Development Company on the site of Lower Falls, the first fall below Lower Bridge, about two miles below the crossing. This company is composed of Wm. Hanley of Burns, and associates.

At a school meeting in Madras district recently the property owners voted down the proposal to bond the district for the purpose of building a new school house and also the proposal to build an addition to the present building. The school is said to be too large for the building and is steadily growing.
Howard F. Jones came over from Redmond Wednesday to get his horses which strayed away from their usual haunts and were picked up by parties who saw Mr. Jones' advertisement in the Journal and brought the horses in to Prineville. A little printer's ink in the Journal spreads out all over Crook county ranges and saves the advertiser a good deal of expense and worry sometimes.
Charles S. Congleton, forest ranger under Supervisor Ireland, returned from Seattle, Wednesday, where he has been taking a three-months' course in forestry at the University of Washington. This is a special short course given at that institution and is the only one of its kind in the United States, having been instituted at the solicitation of the forest service. There were forty-two enrolled for the course, the persons attending hailing from Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and all of the northwestern states.

City Recorder C. L. Shattuck announces that he expects to resign his office and will hand in his resignation to the council at the regular meeting next Tuesday evening. Mr. Shattuck is superintendent of the Prineville Light and Water Co., and the recordership makes too much inroad on his time, conflicting with his work at the plant.
Ferd McCallister returned the last of the week from Portland where he went with a shipment of 1600 head of young mutton sheep. Mr. McCallister was very well satisfied with his experiment of feeding sheep for market and received $5.50 at Portland. He intends to feed again next season. Mr. McCallister says that hogs and cattle were selling high in the Portland yards when he was there, and that he saw inferior cattle selling at $5.25, while hogs were in demand at 7c.

Club Rustling for Fifty New Members

The Board of Trustees of the Commercial Club during the past two days has been making a heart to heart canvass of the business men of the town in a campaign for 50 new members to the club, which are to go in as charter members, doing away with the formality of posting their applications, etc. Up to noon today about twenty-five new names had been added to the list and more have been promised.
The annual meeting of the club will be held Tuesday evening, April 13, a formal notice appearing elsewhere in this issue.
The 90th Anniversary of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah's lodge will be celebrated the 26th of April.
