Shu-mi-a Club Holds An Indian Session

There is an old saying, "Out-Herod Herod." And that is just what happened to Mrs. Ada B. Millican last Tuesday night when it was her turn to entertain the "Shumia" Club. Mrs. Millican is the most ardent lover of the Indians, and has one of the finest collections of Indian things in the whole country, and it only natural that her mind should run into Indian ideas regarding her entertainment for her sister club members. The program was to be about Indian events, the refreshments were to be Indian, served in Indian style, and Mrs. Millican as hostess was to be dressed in Indian costume, but the guests went her one better and surprised her by swooping in each and every one on her togged out in siwash dress with their war paint on. Mrs. Millican was prepared for an Indian evening but she didn't expect the whole "Shumia" tribe.

There were 12 clootchemen and one brave in the band. Mrs. Millican represented "Chepeta" the wife of the famous Ute Chief, Ouray, who figured in the Meeker massacre. Mrs. Julia Lytle was "Tobe" the Modoc woman, Miss Conway was "Tina" the Wasco, Mrs. Rova Brink, "Tilda" a Sioux, Miss Parrott represented "Pocahontas," Mrs. Anna Winnek took the part of "Sally Khekitat," Mrs. Minnie Clifton, "Elle Cushman," Miss Marjorie Brink, "Saejawwa," Mrs. Lula Rosenberg a Navajo woman, Mrs. Angie Smith, "Celle Warmspring," Mrs. Pearl Kaylor, "Mattie" the Piute, and Mrs. Wilda Belknap was one of Chief Paulina's braves, "Man Ashamed of His Face."

Mrs. Martha Spalding Wigle, daughter of Rev. Spalding the missionary at Whitman massacre, was also present.

The tribe swept down on Mrs. Millican from the Rosenberg home, where they had adjusted their war paint and feathers, and Miss Marjorie Brink delivered a speech of salutation in Chinook, which was interpreted by Mrs. Rosenberg. After the general merriment over the appearance of everyone in Indian garb had subsided somewhat, one of the most entertaining programs ever prepared by the club was carried out. The program was almost entirely composed of Indian legends and stories of local interest, which had been prepared largely by the assistance of Mr. J. L. Luckey. Mrs. Winnek and Mrs. Brink recited personal experiences with Indian dangers and Mrs. Clifton's paper was an account written by her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Warren, who was a girl about nine years old at the time she was an eye witness to the Whitman massacre.

A short review was made of the latest book of Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, "McDonald of Oregon," and autograph book-mark souvenirs from Mrs. Dye were presented to the guests. These were made up in the Shumia Club colors, gold and blue.

"Pinnola," the typical Indian dish of the southwest was served in Arizona Indian crockery, to the guests sitting on the floor Indian style. The large bowl in the middle of the Indian mat was an Indian relic and the "Pinnola" was dished out of it with an Indian ladle. Miss Parrott who presided as toastmaster used as a gavel an ancient war club which had done murderous work in the hands of a Pima warrior, and is said to still show the blood-stains of his victims.

A health was drunk to the guest of honor, Mrs. Wigle. After the session was over, the members of the club all went to the Commercial Club rooms where a flashlight photo was taken of the company by Mrs. Cyrus.

The "Shu-mi-a" Club out-Indianded the worst Indian of them all.

G. W. Y. Party.

The G. W. Y. Musk club had a progressive afternoon with the Misses Bertha and Fay Baldwin at their home last Wednesday afternoon. "Tiddledewinks," Jackstraws" Dominos and sparring pennants with a hat pin were among the contests along the way to progression, Miss Iva Booth being the winner of the prize. Music was one of the main features of the occasion. The house was handsomely decorated with pink carnations and potted plants, while the refreshments served conformed to a color scheme of pink and white. The afternoon was a very enjoyable one to the five members and invited guests present.

"Oregonians for Oregon."

"Oregonians for Oregon," is Mr. Strong's slogan.

In talking to a Journal reporter yesterday, Mr. Strong said: "Oregonians are beginning to realize the great drain made upon the state annually by the Wall Street Insurance Companies. Money that never returns. In the past five years $10,000,000 was sent out of Oregon for premiums and but $3,100,000 returned here to pay death losses and dividends, leaving $6,900,000 as the net amount drained out of Oregon, sent to enrich New York and other states by making their home companies custodians of these trust companies."

"Oregon Life" is the only "Purely Oregon" company. It insures only Oregonians. Oregon Life makes all of its investments in Oregon securities. Oregon Life is a policyholders' company managed for the benefit of the policyholders. No other east company is so organized."

Mr. Strong comes to Prineville with the highest recommendations from his company and the business world and will no doubt secure a large volume of business for Oregon Life because Prineville people are partial to Oregon enterprises.

Mr. Strong's headquarters are at the Hotel Prineville.

HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine, Etc., Used as a Simple Wash

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is now no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true, cannot be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderfully soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the remedy takes effect, the itch is allayed. There is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once.

Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., in the right proportions ourselves we are using a prescription which is universally found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. Prescription, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Co. of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merits.

THE WINNEK COMPANY

Pertinent Points.

Both of the ordinances passed at the session of the council Tuesday night carry an emergency clause. Only four councilmen were present all of whom voted for the ordinances. Recorder M. H. Bell gives it as his opinion that five councilmen must vote "Yes" on an ordinance to make the emergency clause effective, and that he does not believe they will lawfully go into effect until after 90 days.

These ordinances are as nearly as could be drafted copies of the state laws on the question of gambling, and upon the use of tobacco by minors, and the frequenting of card and billiard halls by those under lawful age.

Section 3 of the gambling ordinance provides as follows:

"No person otherwise qualified and competent as a witness shall be disqualified from testifying as such concerning the offenses mentioned in this ordinance on the ground that his testimony may incriminate himself. Such testimony shall be reduced to writing, and no prosecution shall be brought by the City of Prineville against him for the particular offense concerning which he testified as a witness."

The ordinance restraining minors, No. 171, in section 4 provides as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any minor to enter any room or place within the city of Prineville, Oregon, where such room or place is used to play any games of cards, dice throwing, or any other game of chance, billiards or pool is played, either for amusement or otherwise, or to loiter in or about such room or place within the City of Prineville, Oregon."

Whether this section will be interpreted to include the Commercial Club or not is not known. There cards, billiards and pool are played for pastime, and there are several members of the club who are minors.

Bend, Or.
Dr. A. W. Grater, Prineville, Or.—Dear Sir—I want to recommend your wonderful treatment to the public at large. When you began treating me I was very low with a complication of diseases. My heart was weak I could hardly get my breath and kidneys in bad shape. Now I am improving right along and feel sure I am cured. All I need now is warm weather and I will be a well man. I have been talking to several of your patients and they say that they have been cured of old chronic diseases. I feel that God is with you in these wonderful cures. Gratefully yours,
JOHN SIEGHEB.
