SHOES

A poor shoe is an expensive investment. When you have learned its faults it is worn out.

It is better to buy a shoe with a reputation behind it.

The Edwards-Stanwood is that kind of shoe. We sell them. It costs no more than a poor shoe and gives satisfaction to the man who sees it as well as to the wearer.

Quality is there if the name is.

Junior Day at High, Drama in Evening

The class of 1910 will inaugurate a Junior Day in the Crook County High School, Friday, April 23. The day will be a holiday so far as lessons are concerned, but the pupils will be required to appear at the school building as usual.

The Junior black-and-gold flag will fly from the flag pole, and it will have the distinction of being the first flag to fly over the building.

The morning hours will be taken up in cleaning the grounds, which will be cleared and leveled. For the afternoon the committee on sports have planned an entertaining program. The boys will have foot races, jumping contests and a baseball game. The girls will participate in a tennis tournament.

The Junior class will serve refreshments to all of the pupils from 2 o'clock until the amusements cease.

DRAMA IN THE EVENING.

In the evening the Juniors will present the drama, "Miss Mosher of Colorado," in the Commercial Club hall. The following is the cast:

Elphram Mosher, who strikes a bonanza in Denver real estate, Prof. J. F. Blanchard
Dallas Aldrich, whose antecedents are doubtful, Willford Belknap
Herbert Slingerly, a Wall Street Broker, Clark Morse
Leta Mosher, a Colorado heiress, Roy Lowther
Jane, a servant, the soul of punctuality, Ethel Moore
Emergence Young
Mrs. Mosher, who takes a decisive stand in her daughter's behalf, Louise Summers
Marion Kendrick, a rich and afflicted with nerves, Agnes Elliott
The Prineville Concert Band has donated its services for the evening and will play a street concert previous to the performance. Morgan's Orchestra has done likewise and will play between acts. Besides the drama, there will be specialties on the program. Doors open at 7:30; curtain goes up at 8:15. Seats on sale at Winnek's 25c and 35c.

Forestry Expert Is Now at Rosland

T. T. Mungers, of the silviculture department of the bureau of forestry, arrived in Prineville Tuesday and left Wednesday for Rosland, where he will commence experiment work in planting yellow pine on some of the now barren tracts in that district, and also in replanting areas where now nothing but Jack pine grows, with yellow pine.

Mr. Mungers stated that his work will only be on a very small scale at present, the object being to determine the most feasible way to take up the work on a large scale possibly in the future. About Rosland there are many tracts of barren sand where now there are no trees growing at all, and on some of these tracts he will lay out small plots and plant yellow pine seeds.

"I will probably lay off three plots of about one acre each," said he, "and try three different methods. One will be to scatter pine seeds broadcast, another will be to plant seeds with a corn planter, and on the other I will plant some yellow pine seedlings from the government nursery stock. These plots will be marked so that forestry officers will be able to visit them from time to time to see what results can be obtained. The forest rangers in that district will assist me in the work."

"It will take probably four or five years' time before we can arrive at any conclusion as to results, and I will simply plant the seeds and young trees and let nature take her course. There are large areas in the region about Crescent lake in northern Klamath county which are barren, and the Rosland experiments will indicate what can be done there as well, for the soil and conditions are practically the same."

Mr. Mungers says the department is making many experiments in the way of introducing the valuable eastern hardwoods into the forests of Oregon and Washington, and that in case experiments show the idea to be practical the intention is to take up this work on an extensive scale.

After completing his work at Rosland, Mr. Mungers will continue south to Lakeview.

Rules for Using City Water

To persons who intend using water from the P. L. & W. Co. mains during the season of 1909:

Commencing May 1st we will be ready to furnish water for lawn irrigation from 6 to 8 a. m., and from 5 to 8 p. m. Please do not construe this to mean that you are entitled to use the water for five hours per day whether your ground needs the moisture or not. It does mean this, that you may use the water during the proscribed time in quantities sufficient to keep your vegetation green. Water in all cases must be used through a hose with a suitable sprinkler or spray attached to the end of said hose. We positively will not allow water to run to waste. Flooding and allowing water to run through an open hose, and using water before and after hours will be prohibited, and the person who, in our judgment, is breaking the rules, will at their own expense be required to install a meter on their irrigation service. Exclusive garden irrigation will be furnished only through a meter. We reserve the right to say what kind of a meter shall be used. Also all hose must be kept in good repair and no leakage to occur between the faucet and the sprinkler. All leaking faucets and stop-wastes must be repaired.

We wish to impress on water users that irrigation is a privilege allowed to regular water customers, and the time is close at hand when only those who are regular water customers will be allowed the privilege of using water for irrigation. And we also wish to call your attention to the fact that there is a charge on bath-tubs and toilets in private residences of 50 cents each.

Commencing May 1st, 1909, we will charge for stock watered from our mains at the rate of 50 cents per month for one horse or cow, and 25 cents for each additional horse or cow. This does not apply to livery stables paying regular rates.

In conclusion we request those who intend using water for irrigation to notify us before commencing to use it. And we insist that all equipment used for irrigation be put in first-class condition. Please attend to it at once and avoid annoyance and delay. Yours truly, P. L. & W. CO.
