

Chinamel ! Chinamel ! Chinamel !

A heel-proof, scratch-proof, water-proof Varnish and Stain for floors, doors and furniture, inside and outside. By the aid of Chinamel and the new Patent Chinamel Graining System, you can make your old floors into a beautiful imitation of hard wood with a permanent, durable finish of any grain or color desired. Costs no more than inferior varnishes. I have a complete color assortment.

Will be pleased to have you call and see how easy it is to grain and varnish by this improved system.

FREE SAMPLES WHILE THEY LAST

THOSE SAGE-RAT EXTERMINATORS do the work. Ask your neighbor about them—he got some.

PRINEVILLE

W. F. KING

OREGON

LOCAL MENTION

John B. Brown and wife of Culver, were in the city this week.
C. W. Palmehn of Grizzly, is in town attending court as a juror.
Fred A. Young came in from Burnt Ranch Monday in his White Steamer.
We are sorry to learn that Uncle Jimmy Lawson is not improving. He has been ailing a long time.
E. F. Smith, who manages the sawmill business of Hightower-Smith Co., at Glet, is spending the week in town as a juror.
Teddy Becker came in from Redmond Tuesday having been summoned as a witness before the grand jury. He made proof on his homestead in that section a few days ago.
Miss Lella Garfield, winner of the contest in declamation from the Crook County High School departed Monday for Walla Walla, where she will represent the local school in the contest there.
Mrs. F. J. Lively and children and Miss Helen Arnold departed last Monday for Aberdeen, Wash., where they will visit for a short time, and from there they will go to Chattanooga, Tenn., to remain for several weeks.
Mrs. Leonora M. Good-Knight, a teacher of oratory and physical culture is at the Redby. She is anxious to meet ladies and girls who would be interested in taking up a course of this work. Mrs. Good-Knight is from Boston.

Miss Hattie Quinn was a county seat visitor last Friday.

S. A. Logan of Camp Creek, is in town seeking medical attention.

J. McMeen of Lamonta, was in town on business the first of the week.

The basket dinner and services at Mill creek last Sunday was a feast. It was well attended.

O. G. Collier, the postmaster-merchant of Culver, is in town this week attending to business matters.

A. D. Anderson, who operates a dry ranch in the Madras section, is in town this week serving his country as a juror.

The city marshal is going to enforce the ordinance against chickens running at large on the streets. You had better look out.

Millard Triplett, deputy sheriff for the Bend district, came over the first of the week in connection with official duties and returned home on Wednesday's stage.

Assistant Forest Ranger Dennis Matthews has gone to Silver Creek range south of Paulina, officially known as grazing district No. 7, where he has been assigned by Supervisor Ireland for the season.

Nick Weider of Bend is spending the week in town. He says the Bend people are going to make the eagle scream on the Fourth of July and repeat the big stunt of a few years ago when they had the big trout barbecue.

John Moore, the well driller, spent part of last week at the oil well near Grizzly Mountain, where he was employed to take a kink out of the casing in the well. Mr. Moore, who has had large experience in Eastern oil fields says that the formation in which the drill is now working is very favorable for oil.

Mrs. Emma B. Wickersham of Ashland, has been engaged to teach in the training department of the Crook County High School for the coming year. This is a new department to be added to the high school work and will be a course for the training of teachers, similar to the courses taught in the state normal schools heretofore.

The progressive auto dinner given last Friday evening by the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church, proved to be a success in every way. Delicious edibles were served at Mrs. Winick's, Mrs. Lister's and Mrs. Thomson's. Lafollette's auto whirled those attending from place to place. The ladies netted over $30 for their efforts.

Bend is coming to the baseball tournament with a team that they think will take the $100 purse offered by the race association. Redmond also promises to be on hand and a team from Paulina is also expected. With the Prineville team in the competition, there is the assurance that three teams will be on hand and some good games are anticipated. The rules governing the entrance of teams will be found in another column in this issue.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. George Ray of Post, is the guest of friends in town.

Gus Loveland was in town from his home at Grizzly this week.

William Brownhill of Youngs, came in Tuesday and is spending a few days in Prineville.

F. E. Dayton, a prominent business man of Laidlaw, was in Prineville several days this week, attending to matters in court.

J. H. Jackson, one of the prominent ranchers from the Agency Plains country, is spending the week in town attending court.

Forest Ranger B. F. Johnson and Clerk L. C. Morgan arrived home last Saturday evening from a week's trip to the South Ice Caves, beyond Pine Mountain, where they were called to investigate some forest service matters.

Walter E. Critchlow of Portland, formerly national traveling secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, will speak under the auspices of the prohibition state committee at the Union church, Friday evening, May 7, at 8 p. m.

A practice game of baseball between Redmond and Prineville teams is scheduled to take place on the grounds west of the skating rink next Sunday afternoon. In the game at Redmond recently the Prineville team lost with a score of 7 to 2.

John T. Disney came up from Madras Monday as a witness before the grand jury. Mr. Disney states that he has been appointed to the position of doorkeeper of the home for the feeble minded at Salem and will go there at once to take up his duties.

Union church services: Saturday, May 8, covenant meeting at 2 p. m., Sunday, 10 a. m., Sunday School; 11 a. m., preaching; topic, "A Manly Request and How Treated." 7 p. m., C. E. Society; 8 p. m., preaching; topic, "A Great Question." A cordial invitation to all. C. P. Bailey, pastor.

The request from the Prineville Band for monthly subscriptions of $40 for its support has received the favorable action of the board of trustees of the Commercial Club, and the matter will be taken up in due time with the business men of Prineville. The agreement provides that the band furnishes music gratis for any public occasion for which no admission is charged at the request of the president of the club.

The Deschutes Lumber Co. of which J. E. Ryan is manager, has purchased some 15,000 acres of timber of the S. S. Johnson Co. of San Francisco, it being their entire holdings on the Deschutes river. This tract of timber is said to be an exceptionally good one, and we are sure it is, judging from what we know of Mr. Ryan. If it had been otherwise he would not have purchased it.—Silver Lake Leader.

Mrs. J. H. Grant of Lamonta, was in town Wednesday.

Attorney W. P. Myers and family of Laidlaw are in Prineville this week, Mr. Myers having several cases in the circuit court.

Thron Thronson, manager of the Oregon Mayflower Co., whose mines are at Howard, returned home the last of the week from an extended business trip to Dayton, Wash., and Portland.

Theodore Minger, who was one of the plumbers on the court house job and came back from Salem a few weeks ago to finish the work, has accepted a position in the shop of W. F. King and will remain in Prineville.

Arthur P. Donohue, who was one of the founders of the Laidlaw Chronicle, was in Prineville this week looking after business matters. Mr. Donohue is now dealing in timber lands, and is making his headquarters at Portland.

Deputy Forest Ranger C. C. Hon came in from the Ochoco Ranger's station above Howard the first of the week accompanied by Mrs. Hon, who will spend some time in Prineville. Forest Guard D. C. Ingram came in also from the same place.

The E. F. E. W. Sunday school class of the Baptist church, will give an ice cream social for the benefit of the Prineville band, in the Belknap building opposite Hotel Prineville next Saturday evening. The band will assist with a street concert, and everyone is cordially invited.

W. P. Vandervert is in from Bend. Mr. Vandervert was called on to give an account of himself and said that he had the disease that is now prevalent in Bend. "Every man you meet over there now has something up his sleeve about the railroad," he says. "Some inside information which cannot be divulged. I brought mine over to Prineville for a day or two."

The Emporium Electric Theatre, the new moving picture show, of Frank E. Brosius, opened up last Thursday evening and has been giving exhibitions each evening to good crowds. Mr. Brosius is giving the public a first-class show in every respect and several of the scenes shown during the week have been not only amusing but have carried an educational value as well. The general admission is only 15 cents and those who have been attending think they get their money's worth.

Henry B. Hazard, Assistant United States Attorney in matters relating to naturalization, was in Prineville this week to investigate the papers of several applicants for naturalization. Among these applicants were: Fred Wiese, of Sisters, a native of Germany; Wm. J. Roberts, of Grizzly, a native of England; Charles Wawrinofsky, of Madras, Germany; William J. Sayyena, of Haycreek, Canada. Emile Planchet, of Paulina, also made application, but was denied citizenship on account of insufficient residence.

LOCAL MENTION

Perry Henderson, a homesteader from Madras, is in town this week. F. W. Wooley, Marshall-Wells Co.'s hardware drummer, spent the most of the week interviewing the trade in Prineville.

Seth Lewelling, one of the Agency Plains farmers is in town this week. Mr. Lewelling says that his crops are looking better than at any previous season.

Next Friday night is the date of the first grand ball given under the auspices of the Prineville Commercial Club. Morgan's orchestra will furnish the music.

Miss Cora Streitl, teacher in the first grade of the Prineville schools, departed last Wednesday for her old home in the East. Miss Marjorie Brink is teaching her room.

J. A. Bernardi, boss plumber on the courthouse job, came up from Salem last week to inspect the plumbing in the new courthouse, when the work was finished. He returned home Tuesday.

Otto Hohlfeldt and John Thomas of Madras, are in town this week to take out naturalization papers. Mr. Thomas was a citizen by virtue of papers taken out by his father, but as his father's papers had been destroyed in the government records, he now finds it necessary to take out papers in his own behalf. Wm. Brownhill and Chas. Kann are in with them as witnesses.

Tillman Reuter, one of the progressive farmers from Madras, is in town serving on the petit jury.

According to the Pioneer, Madras is soon to have a new two-story hotel building, which is to be built and conducted by J. W. Livingston.

C. F. McCallister has opened up a shooting gallery in the old Bucket building. He is offering as a prize a fine guitar for the best scores made by any marksman up to May 15.

T. M. Baldwin has gone to Portland where he was summoned as a witness in the federal court in the case of the United States vs. the Southern Pacific railroad company.

Attorney Jesse Stearns and family are in Prineville this week. Mr. Stearns appearing as attorney for the D. I. & P. Co. in the five cases in the circuit court brought by A. M. Drake.

W. H. Wilmer of Madras, is in town on business before the county court. Mr. Wilmer has acquired an extensive acreage east of Madras, having bought the old U. S. Cowles ranch and later, adjoining school lands. He is fencing the property and expects to raise blooded stock on a large scale.

Both of the hose companies of the Prineville fire department held smokers this week, this being the program for each regular monthly meeting. No. 1 held theirs last Monday night and No. 2 Wednesday night. Fire Chief B. F. Johnson has been putting the boys through drill lately.

P. Rabb, a special agent of the interior department, was in Prineville last Friday in connection with the contest case of T. H. McGee of Lamonta. The contestant, E. F. Cooper, failed to appear, and the matter was continued for sixty days. Mr. McGee, the contestee, Carl McGhee and wife and B. B. Helfrich, all of Lamonta, were in town as witnesses in the case.

Send $1.50 for the Journal One Year.

Drop in and See
Champ Smith
DEALER IN Soft Drinks
of all kinds
Imported and Domestic
Cigars
At the old Smith & Cleek stand, Main street, two doors south First National Bank

Prineville COMMERCIAL .. Club ..
Will give a
Grand Ball
At the club hall, Prineville on the evening of Friday, May 7
MORGAN'S ORCHESTRA
Tickets - $1.00

Maber & Grosh Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co
DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Magis
Lewney's Candies
Stationery
Cigars

Remember, when you want a Graphophone Cylinder or Disc we have them in stock. We carry a complete line of Columbia gold moulded indestructible cylinder records, 35c. Also the 10-inch double disc records, 65c
WE SELL THEM

D. P. Adamson & Co.
DRUGGISTS

AGENTS "HOLEPROOF" HOSE J. E. Stewart & Company DISTRIBUTORS MAYER SHOES

Mayer Shoes
SPLENDID VALUES IN OUR SHOE DEPARTMENT

The MAYER trademark on a shoe stands for quality style and comfort. We give an absolute guarantee with every pair sold. Let the next pair of shoes you buy be a Mayer—you will be more than satisfied.

"Leading Lady" Shoe for women $ 3 50
"Treadwell" for men 4 00
"Honorbilt" for men 4 50
"Special Merit" for children

SPECIALS
One Day Only Saturday, May 8

Lemons
A fancy lot of Lemons, large size, special for Saturday, per dozen 30 cents

Oranges
A choice lot of medium-size Navel Oranges special, per dozen 35 cents

Dry Juniper $5 per cord, delivered

We are agents for the U. S. Cream Separator

With the use of the separator you can increase your output of cream fully 25 per cent, besides the saving in labor.
Sold on the installment plan—easy payments.

Lawn Hose and Supplies

If you need a Hose or anything in the supply line such as Nozzles, Sprays, Faucets, Clamps, Rubber Washers, Etc., it will pay you to come here. WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY.