as Justice of the peace for Lalldaw precinct is accepted and A. F. Ramsey appointed in his stead until the next general election.

The bid of Claude E. Smith for safe now in the sheriff's office for the sum of $65 is hereby accepted, delivery to be made on or after June 30, 1930.

The sheriff is hereby requested to turn off all electric current from the county jail (including the separate cell) at the switches outside said jail at or before 9 p. m. each and every night and leave said current off until necessary the following evening.

The semi-annual report of the county treasurer, beginning October 1, 1928, and ending March 31, 1929, was presented, examined and approved as apparently correct and ordered filed.

The county having accepted the new court house, it is ordered that approximately $40,000 worth of fire insurance be placed upon said building in thoroughly reliable companies at a rate of not to exceed $1.25 per hundred, and that said policies be written for three years, inasmuch as the county will save one year's premium thereby; that upon the delivery of said policies to the deputy district attorney and upon his acceptance thereof and the filing of said policies with the county clerk, said clerk is hereby directed to draw warrants on the general fund for the cost of said total amount of insurance for the ensuing three years, the total of said warrants not to exceed the sum of $1000.

Synopsis of New Fishing Laws

The new fish law goes into effect May 23, which date falls on next Sunday.

In order that Crook county people may know the provisions of the measure we publish a synopsis of it.

Every person over 16 years of age must provide him or herself with a license which can be obtained from the county clerk and cost $1. Each license has all the rules and regulations clearly defined on the back.

The catch of trout is limited in this state to 75 in one day except in Klamath county where the catch is limited to 25 fish or 20 pounds. On bass and salmon there is no limit to the catch.

The fishing season is open from April 1 to November 1 except in Baker county and Link river district in Klamath county. In Baker county, the fishing season in the lakes is from July 1 to October 1. In the Link river territory the season is open from June 1 to September 1. Bass and salmon trout are open to fishing all the year.

It is unlawful to fish without a license and the penalty for doing so is a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $150.

It is lawful to fish in the Rogue river or any of its tributaries at any time. It is unlawful to fish at night or one hour after sunset or one hour before sunrise except within the tidewaters of the Coquille river.

It is unlawful to sell trout except those propagated in private hatcheries and then it must be done under the supervision of the state game warden.

It is unlawful to take trout, salmon trout or bass except with hook and line. It is unlawful to take trout, char or salmon less than six inches in length.

For violation of any of the aforesaid laws named, the penalty is a fine of not less than $25 and not more than $150. Any person who uses powder, gas, lime, cocculus indicus, poison, etc., or any person dumps sawdust, planer shavings, lumber waste, wood pulp etc., in any stream of the state is liable to a fine of not less than $200 and not more than $3,000.

HOME CURE FOR ECZEMA

Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine, Etc., Used as a Simple Wash

It really seems strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema, when it is now no longer a secret that oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol, glycerine, etc., makes a wash that is bound to cure.

Old, obstinate cases, it is true, cannot be cured in a few days, but there is absolutely no sufferer from eczema who ever used this simple wash and did not find immediately that wonderfully soothing, calm, cool sensation that comes when the itch is taken away. Instantly upon applying a few drops of the wash the remedy takes effect, the itch is allayed. There is no need of experiment—the patient knows at once.

Instead of trying to compound the oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., in the right proportions ourselves we are using a prescription which is universally found the most effective. It is known as the D. D. D. Prescription, or Oil of Wintergreen Compound. It is made by the D. D. D. Co. of Chicago, and our long experience with this remedy has given us great confidence in its merits.

Smith-Reed

Wedding at Bend

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of J. E. Reed, in Bend, on the eve of the 12th at 7:30 o'clock, when the Reverend J. Anthony Mitchell united by the holy bonds of matrimony Miss Flossie Violet Reed and Ernest A. Smith, in the presence of the family and a few immediate friends.

After the impressive and pretty ring ceremony, the guests withdrew to the dining room where they were served with an elegant wedding supper, while the air was fragrant with the perfume of roses and carnations with which the rooms were tastefully decorated.

Everyone present thoroughly enjoyed the serenade given the happy couple by the hand boys, as they rendered several splendid numbers; neither did the boys' tin can brigade forget them. However, they were quickly sent on their way rejoicing, and again the sweet strains of the band claimed the attention of all.

The bride was gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of bride's roses; the groom wore the conventional black. Both young people are well known in Bend and highly esteemed by their many friends. Violet is a sister of May-Belle Reed, deputy clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Smith went to their own home the next morning talking with them, not only many useful and beautiful gifts, but the good wishes of all who know them.

Consult Dr. Walker at Hotel Prineville, about that headache.
