tures of the game and give one a pretty good idea of high art baseball.

A traveling company of four colored people, two men and two women, who are touring Central Oregon under the name of the "Colored Aristocracy," arrived in Prineville and on Monday evening gave a performance to a crowded house at the Club hall. Long before the show commenced all the seats in the building were occupied and down town establishments were raided for chairs and benches to accommodate the audience, and still many had to stand during the performance.

Attorney M. E. Brink, accompanied by Mrs. Brink, went to Bend Monday where he defended W. M. Clabough in Justice Merrill's court on a charge of cutting a fence belonging to W. T. Casey. After hearing the evidence Justice Merrill dismissed the case, it appearing that Clabough had only disconnected the fence of Casey from his own fence. Casey and Clabough own adjoining lands at Powell Buttes, and have had some difficulty over a line fence. Clabough moved his line fence ten feet within his line and Casey stretched a panel across Clabough's land to connect. It was for the cutting of this portion that the effort was made to bring an action against Clabough.

J. H. Gray this week bought from J. E. Crouch & Son's agent, the beautiful imported German coach bay mare, "Brense" and now has her in his stables in Prineville. The mare is six years old and weighs about 1550. She is said to be one of the most perfect animals of her type ever seen in Crook county. She is valued at $2500. Mr. Gray is interested in the company which acquired the German coach stallion, "Mandarin," and the many purchases that Crook county stockmen have been making of imported horses of valuable breeds promises great strides for the raising of the standard of the horses in this section. The day of the "fuzz-tail" breed is rapidly waning.

The contract for moving the old court house to the high school grounds was on Monday awarded to L. A. Hunt for $250. There were several bids, ranging from $900 to $250. The successful bidder will be required to give a bond in the sum of $500. The time allowed for the completion of the contract is until July 15. The county offices are all in the old building as yet. The new furniture has not arrived and the date of removal into the new quarters has not been determined. County Clerk Brown is averse to moving until some provision is made for placing the records in systematic order. To move and pile the papers and books would make a chaotic state and result in endless hard work to get things in order again. The other offices could be moved in short order.

Dr. U. C. Coe passed through town yesterday on his way home to Bend. Dr. Coe has been in the East for the past three months taking post-graduate work in some of the greatest hospitals in the country, and says that he feels well repaid for the effort and expenditure the courses required. He took special work in surgery, saw the best surgeons in the country perform difficult operations, and under their direction did actual work himself. He was glad to be back and said he was anxious to get home and get to work again.

The subjects of the moving pictures at the Emporium for Friday and Saturday nights are: "Early Day Romance in Oregon," "A Case of Spirits," "The Deadly Plant" and "The Acrobatic Maid." These are especially good films and should be seen by everyone. The past few nights the bill has included the world's championship baseball game between the Chicago and Detroit teams at Chicago last fall which resulted in a victory for Chicago with a score of 4 to 2. The pictures show all the famous members of the teams at close range, many interesting fea-

Negro Porter Shoots Two at Shaniko

Just before noon today the negro porter who shot Trumbull and McLaughlin at Shaniko Tuesday night, crossed Sherar's bridge, going toward The Dalles. There was no one at the bridge except an old man, who made no attempt to stop him. Sheriff Chrisman and his men have been notified and the capture of the negro is expected at any time.

Tuesday night at Shaniko, B. H. Trumbull, Portland agent for the Illinois Central Railway, and Jack McLaughlin were shot by the negro porter on their special car at about 1:30 a. m. Trumbull was shot in the groin and is expected to die. McLaughlin was struck in the leg by a bullet and his wound is not considered serious. The negro escaped into the darkness and has not yet been captured so far as learned.

The negro became bolterous on the private car and Trumbull and his companion started to take him to jail. While on the way on the street the negro broke away from them and pulled a revolver firing five shots, two of which took effect. The porter then ran down the street throwing off his white coat and escaped.

Charles Durbin hurried to Antelope in his auto after Dr. A. E. King to attend the wounded men and when he and the doctor had almost made the return to Shaniko, they met the negro crossing the road, in his shirt sleeves and bare headed. They stopped and asked him to ride, but he said they were going the wrong way. Since that time he is not known to have been seen by any one. Word has been sent out in all directions for officers to keep a look out for him.

McLaughlin and Trumbull were hurried by a special from Shaniko to Portland to the hospital. They had come to Shaniko to attend to business in connection with wool shipments.

The only trace that is known of the negro is that the cottage of Mrs. Paine, on the road between Antelope and Shaniko has been ransacked, and it is supposed that this was done by the porter in an effort to find ammunition or supplies that would assist him in making the getaway.

Lanius-Howard Wedding.

Mr. Harry C. Lanius and Miss Hazel L. Howard were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Howard in Prineville, last Sunday at 12:10 p. m., Rev. C. P. Bailey performing the ceremony. The wedding was witnessed only by the family. After partaking of a dainty wedding dinner the happy couple left at once by auto for the railroad at Shaniko and will spend their honeymoon at Portland and Seattle.

When the auto started to leave town its passage was blocked at the Ochoco bridge and a crowd of friends showered the wedding party with rice.

The groom is a worthy young business man who located in Prineville about three years ago. He is a member of the mercantile firm of Lively-Jordan-Lanius Company. Miss Howard is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Howard, whose home has been in Prineville since childhood.

After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Lanius will go to housekeeping in the Mrs. Jane Powell residence property.

LOCAL MENTION

Laddlaw Chronicle: A proposition is on foot to establish a cream station here to purchase cream for the Prineville creamery and it should be given every encouragement by the farmers. It will bring many dollars to the farmer that patronizes the creamery and the trouble should be but little. The Prineville creamery is now in good hands and is doing a good business. It will pay our people to co-operate in the cream station here.
