LOCAL MENTION

J. E. Wilson came up from Madras Sunday.
Henry Pickett was in from Paulina Monday.
W. F. King went to Portland last Sunday on a business trip.
A. E. Gillam has removed from Culver to Prineville to reside.
Earl Wurzweller arrived Tuesday from Portland for a visit with friends in Prineville.
F. S. Cooper and family have moved into the dwelling near the courthouse recently vacated by Ollie Ellerson.
Alex Houk was in from his ranch west of Lamonta Monday. He reports the arrival of a son at his home June 4th.
Charley Lytle and W. H. Young went on a fishing trip to Marks creek the last of the week, and caught slathers of trout.
Ed Harbin is at work on Champ Smith's new residence on the Johnny Prior lot. The work was contracted by Lippman & Co.
Married—At Albany, Or., June 6, Mrs. Lillie Faulkner, formerly of Paulina, and Thomas Davie, a furniture dealer of Aumsville, Or.
Mrs. Lou Hodges and daughter, Dolly, arrived home yesterday from their visit to Portland and Seattle. They report having a splendid time.
Addie Foster and Dr. J. H. Rosenberg expect to leave Sunday for Pendleton, where they go as delegates to the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias from Prineville. The grand lodge convenes on the 22d.
Here's one they tell on Warren Crooks. He is an enthusiastic autoist. The other morning at the breakfast table he had emptied his coffee cup, when he said: "Mother, will you please give me another cup of gasoline?"
Wm. Boegli was up from the Cove Orchard Saturday. He states that his cherries will be in the local market within the coming week. All fruits will be a fair crop this year on his ranch, with the exception of peaches, which will be a total failure.
"Old Sham," the Grizzly lake logger, was in town Monday. The mill is now running full blast at Grizzly lake. "Sham" was looking for some quarta location notices, which he intends to post on some mineral discoveries he recently made. He is not the only one who is taking an interest in the mineral indications in that region. Frank Loveland, who is working with the oil drill, showed the reporter samples of likely looking rock which he said came from a ledge in that locality. There is a probability that in the near future some valuable locations will be made on Grizzly or Grey Butte.
Wire Rope, Pulleys etc., for equipping Hay Derricks at Stewarts.

LOCAL MENTION

Warren Smith went to Madras Monday to open a barber shop.
Miss Maude Vandervert of Lava is visiting at the home of M. E. Brink.
Charles Horton, the Klamath Falls stockman, was in Prineville this week.
Estes Short, Oscar Prose and Tommy Coon spent the past week on the Matoles fishing.
James W. Hurt, the Madras meat market man, was in town last Saturday on business.
Drs. Rosenberg and Belknap went to Laidlaw last Monday forenoon to perform a surgical operation upon Mrs. M. C. Low. They made the trip in Dr. Belknap's auto.
Robert Rogers, a Minneapolis timberman, accompanied by his son, passed through Prineville yesterday en route to the Deschutes country, where he is going to look up timber matters.
County Assessor Lafollette is now busy transferring the returns from the field assessors onto the records. All of the returns are not in yet. As soon as they become available the Journal will publish a summarized statement of assessed valuations.
Mrs. C. E. McDowell of Hotel Prineville, departed last Friday for Portland and other points. Before returning she will go to Pendleton to attend, as a delegate from Juniper Circle, the state session of the order of W. O. W., which convenes there June 25.
E. E. Laughlin of Paulina passed through Prineville Saturday on his way back from Shaniko, where he had been with a load of wool. Wool in the Paulina country is just beginning to move, Mr. McLaughlin says. All will be in Shaniko by next sale's day.
A. L. Zulauf, a flour mill man of New London, Minn., writes the Journal that he expects to be in this section next month looking for a location of some kind. For one thing he wants to take up some government land. He is a miller and millwright and would consider taking an interest in a flourmill proposition.
Last Sunday afternoon the local lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs observed Memorial day. Members of the two orders formed at the hall bearing flowers and marched to the cemetery and decorated the graves of the deceased members. In the evening they attended special services at the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Lewellen.
Messrs. Will Wurzweller and Hugh Lister have purchased the big gray Percheron stallion "Beachmel," which has been in Prineville for the past few weeks in charge of a selling agent for J. W. Crouch & Son, horse importers of Lafayette, Ind. The horse is seven years old and weighs in the neighborhood of 2300 pounds. He will be taken to the Lister ranch at Paulina.

Miller McPherson of Ashwood was a business visitor in Prineville the first of the week.
T. N. Balfour of Fife came in Monday to meet his wife who is on her way home from Portland.
L. E. Throop of Paulina, passed through Prineville, Tuesday, on his way home from Shaniko.
Mrs. S. W. Yancey has gone to the Cove orchard to visit her sister, Mrs. Wm. Boegli, and to pick cherries.
Miss Vida R. Chrisman passed through town Sunday on her way home to Silver Lake from Eugene.
Harvey Cyrus, who was formerly in the jewelry business in Prineville, was here the first of the week from his home at Sisters.
A. C. Sanford and son and D. W. Barnett, of Madras, were in town the last of the week looking after business in connection with the oil prospecting by their company on the west slope of Grizzly mountain.
James Melvin White, a son of A. W. White, died in Prineville last Friday, aged about 21 years. The young man had not been in good health for several years, being afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism and dropsical ailments. The funeral took place Saturday from the family home, with interment in Odd Fellows' cemetery.
George Storkmann, proprietor of the Prineville Cigar Factory, reports that he met with good success in extending his trade in the western part of the county last week. Mr. Storkmann is assisted in the factory by Carlton Hyde, who is learning the trade, and both men are busy all the time turning out the smokes that are steadily growing in demand.
Last Friday Earle Stolte got his left hand mixed up with the edger saw at Compton & Dee's mill near Grizzly post office, and the flesh and bone of the little finger was so badly mangled that he was brought to town for surgical attention. Dr. Rosenberg attended him and found it necessary to amputate the finger. Several other workmen have been maimed by this same saw.
S. W. Yancey was a passenger to Shaniko on Monday's auto, where he went to attend the wool sales. His spring clip, 34,000 pounds was sold at 20 1/2c. Local sheepmen state that Mr. Yancey's clip is a fine quality and that his flocks produced heavy fleeces. Most of his yearlings yielded in the neighborhood of ten pounds each. The sheep have been taken to the summer range on the upper Deschutes.

The Prineville baseball team is planning to go to Bend on July 3rd to contest for the $75 purse offered by the Bend Celebration committee.
Misses Lillie and LeVey Knox of Post were in town the latter part of the week on their way to the upper Deschutes, where Miss Lillie has a homestead claim.
A. L. Mackintosh of Paulina and J. N. Williamson of this place, went to Shaniko Sunday to attend the wool sales, and will afterward make a business trip to Portland.
Miss Katie Dunsmore, who has been employed as stenographer in the D. I. & P. Co.'s offices at Bend, is visiting friends in town. She is on her way to Independence where she will join her father, Rev. C. H. Dunsmore.
G. W. Wiley of Post was in town the last of the week. Mr. Wiley is an old-timer in Crook county. He came here at a time when the country hereabout was a cattle range.
Mrs. C. Sam Smith returned from Albany last Sunday where she has been for several weeks with her father, H. A. Cleek, who is seriously ill. Mr. Cleek is afflicted with Bright's disease and is not expected to ever regain his health. He is well known to most of the older residents of Crook county, who will sincerely regret to learn of his illness. Miss Ceole Smith, who accompanied her mother to Albany, has been visiting at the Seattle fair, but has now gone to North Yakima where she will spend a few weeks at the home of her aunt.
Petett makes a specialty of repairing and cleaning watches. Satisfaction guaranteed.

LOCAL MENTION

R. S. Price has at his home in Prineville a pair of grown China pheasants and three chicks, which were recently hatched.
Miss Gertrude Hodges is now employed at C. W. Elkins, taking the vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Hazel Howard, who is now Mrs. Lanier.
In this issue will be found a call for bids on the construction of a new school building for Beaver Creek district, No. 27, at Paulina. The plans show that a neat and comfortable building is contemplated, which will be a substantial improvement for that community. No. 27 is one of the wealthiest country districts in the county.
James Rice, who for a number of years has been connected with the B. S. & L. Co. of Haycreek, has severed his connection with that company. Mr. Rice came to Haycreek as foreman when Mr. Edwards purchased that property, and later, upon the reorganization of that company, became a stockholder. He desired to go into the sheep business for himself, however, and has just made an exchange of his interest in the company for other property owned by the company. In the settlement he acquires the Trout creek ranches, about 7000 acres, and 8000 head of sheep. The Trout creek lands include some valuable alfalfa ranches and Mr. Rice has gotten hold of a fine property. He will continue with the company through the present summer.—Madras Pioneer.
