

Prepare now for haying time. You will find the best Machinery at King's

McCormick Mowers
Reapers, Binders, Rakes
Milwaukee Mowers
Dain Mowers, Bucks & Stackers
Louden Carriers, Etc.
Jackson Forks

REPAIRS

Complete assortment for all McCormick machines. ☐ Some parts for Plano, Buckeye, Milwaukee, Acme, Osborne and Standard. ☐ Prompt attention to orders for repairs for all other machines, not represented by Prineville agents.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. H. H. Hanley of Camp creek is seriously ill.
Mrs. Dick Mulholland of Bear creek is quite sick.
S. S. Brown of Culver was in town the first of the week.
Alma T. Morris leaves this week for Lebanon, Or., for a two-months' visit.
John Cambell and wife have returned from their trip into the Burns country.
County Clerk Brown collected $524 for hunting and fishing licenses during the past three months.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones returned Tuesday from their trip to the Seattle fair and other points.
James Prose and wife have gone to Snow creek, in the Cascades, on the Santiam road, for an outing. They will fish, hunt and pick berries.
Lee Hahn of Portland and C. E. Lamont of Seattle were in Prineville this week. Mr. Hahn was born in this county and is quite well known here. These gentlemen were met here by J. A. Horn of Antelope.
Arch Powell has returned to Prineville after an absence of several months. While away he spent considerable time in Elk City, Idaho, and at Coeur d'Alene. He may remain here during the summer.
Paul C. Bates and Robert Rea, of Portland, were in Prineville Monday attending to business in connection with the transfer of the Colonel F. Smith ranch, near Lamonte, which was purchased recently by Mr. Bates.
A daring robbery is reported by two young men of this city while bathing at the mill dam on Crooked river the other day. Two young ladies gathered in their clothing and kept the boys beating the brush for a couple of hours.
Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn of The Dalles, an optometrist of repute, was in Prineville this week looking for a prospective location. The doctor is obliged to seek a high and dry climate and thinks it is about right at this place. He will return this fall. See his notice.
Judge H. C. Ellis and Commissioners Bailey and Rice were in town this week attending to matters in the adjourned session of county court. The proceedings will be published in full in next week's issue. The most important matters considered were a large number of road petitions from the Madras neighborhood.
Wilson Bros. sawmill, located half a mile south of Sisters, was burned to the ground at noon Saturday. The men had quit for dinner at 12 o'clock. Five minutes later the mill was in flames. The loss on mill and lumber is estimated at $9000; $1000 worth of lumber was saved. No insurance. The mill will be rebuilt at once and given water power instead of steam. It is thought that the fire caught from the engine.

LOCAL MENTION

W. A. Booth was a passenger to the railroad Tuesday.
Mrs. Gall Newsom of Portland, who has been visiting relatives here, has returned home.
Misses Beulah Crooks and Stella Hodges spent Sunday at the C. Sam Smith ranch up the Ochoco.
Adolph Schrickel, a harnessmaker and a good one, from Los Angeles, has a position in E. H. Smith's shop.
George M. Nolan, representing the Mutual Life Insurance Company, was looking after business in Prineville this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Wurzweller returned the first of the week from Paulina. They expect to return to Portland soon.
Miss Iva West is expected here from Portland this week to visit her sister, Mrs. Ora Poindexter, and other relatives in this county.
E. H. Smith and wife have purchased a half block of lots just north of the baseball grounds and expect to build a residence on the same within the next few months.
Mrs. M. B. Biggs, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Etta Hayes, of Vale, arrived home Tuesday. These ladies have been at the Seattle exposition. Mrs. Hayes will visit for a short time in Prineville.
George Bailey of Isee passed through Prineville, Monday, on his way to Shaniko with a load of wool. John Kuhn and son Emmett were also here this week on the same mission. They had an accident with one of their teams which delayed them a day.
Mrs. Isom Cleek had a runaway Sunday at Lone Pine Gap. She was thrown from the buggy and quite severely bruised. Her little girl, who was with her at the time, clung to the buggy and escaped without injury. The horse ran into a wire fence and stopped.
L. Connell of Howard came down Monday in search of hay hands. He managed to get a few men but not as many as he wanted. He says that nearly all of the ranchers in his section are short handed. It will take about five weeks to harvest the crop. Hay this year is a better yield than usual.
Nye, Held and Barnes, three new postoffices recently established in Crook county, now get a regular mail service. It comes in on Saturday and goes out on Monday. Arthur Bennett is the mail carrier. This line will be supported by popular subscription for three months and then the department will ask for bids.
Colonel F. Smith and family returned Saturday from a trip to the fair. While away Mr. Smith purchased a new 4-cylinder 30-horse power Cadillac roadster. It has 4 inch tires and 10-inch clearance, making an excellent car for use in this country. Mr. Smith, with five hours' instruction, drove his car home from The Dalles.

LOCAL MENTION

C. Wawrinofsky was in town yesterday from Madras.
Mrs. J. B. Shipp has returned home from her trip to Portland and Seattle.
Born, to the wife of A. B. Roller in Prineville, Wednesday, July 21, an 8 1/2 pound son.
Mrs. Arthur Mackey of Combs Flat, has been seriously ill for the past two weeks.
G. M. Cornett has gone to San Francisco on business. It is reported that he will purchase a big gas auto to put on the Prineville-Shaniko run.
George Millean was in from the ranch last week and he and Mrs. Millean have returned there, taking some of their household goods out. Mrs. Millean expects to remain at the ranch during the summer and keep house for the men.
Peter Marnach was in from his home at Methodist Hill, south of Madras yesterday. He states that he has been all over the farming district in that portion of the county and that never before has he seen such plump grain as the fields will turn off this year. The grain berries are said to be perfectly developed this season and the quality of wheat which is always good, will be of the very highest this year.
Six hundred and fifty barrels of Prineville flour were loaded by freight teams for Burns at the local mill Tuesday. It used to make the Harney county papers sore when we published items like this but the occurrence is getting so common for the big eight- and ten-horse freight teams to come to Prineville and load up with flour or potatoes or grain, that we dare to mention the fact now without much fear of getting scolded for it.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. A. J. Noble of Paulina came in last week to meet her son, Freddie, who was on his way home from Portland. The boy took sick in Prineville and Mrs. Noble remained in the city until last Saturday with him, before he was able to make the trip home to Paulina.
Dr. W. T. Cox and wife, Miss Mittie Vandeventer, and a Rev. Blackburn all of New York City, passed through Prineville Tuesday in the big White steamer on their way to the W. P. Vandeventer home on the little Deschutes above Bend, where they will spend the summer visiting. Mrs. Cox is Mrs. Vandeventer's sister, and Miss Mittie Vandeventer is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Vandeventer, who since her childhood has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Cox. Dr. Cox and family were on the Deschutes 13 years ago, and spent a year. This is their first visit since that time.
Header for Sale.
Have yet on hand a good McCormick Header, all ready to run, which is for sale at a bargain. Has been run three seasons, New draper and sickle. Address L. A. Hest, Prineville, Or. 7-22
Dr. Mendelsohn.
Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn, optometrist, of The Dalles, will be in Prineville this fall during circuit court and fair time. He comes at the request of the physicians of Prineville. Do not be humbugged by peddlars. 7-22

Fruit Jar Specials.

Some fine specimens of White Winter oats and bald barley from the ranch of E. S. Dobbs, on the Ochoco, were left at the Journal office this week. The barley measured four feet and the oats six feet. The grain will be placed on exhibition at C. W. Elkins' store.
Don't forget that we have a full line of fruit jars, Schram's automatic sealers and Masons, all sizes, half-gallon, quarts and pints, with caps and rubbers for same. I. Michel, Prineville, Oregon.

MILLINERY CLEARANCE SALE

Commencing July 1st there will be a big reduction in the price of Summer Millinery. We must have more room for the fall stock. Now is the time.

Mrs. Estes' Millinery Parlor

LAMB FEED CO.

REDMOND, OREGON
Dealers in—
Chop Feeds of all Kinds, Baled Hay, Seed Grain, Timothy, Alfalfa, Clover, Grass and Garden Seeds of all Kinds.
Toll Chopping Done. Satisfaction Guaranteed

D. P. Adamson & Co DRUGGISTS

Remember, when you want a Graphophone Cylinder or Disc we have them in stock. We carry a complete line of Columbia gold moulded indestructible cylinder records, 35c. Also the 10-inch double disc records, 65c
WE SELL THEM
D. P. Adamson & Co. DRUGGISTS

Guaranteed Shoes

We guarantee every pair of Mayer or Washington Shoes put out by us to give perfect satisfaction. We will have repaired, free of charge, any shoe proving defective.

DISTRIBUTORS ROYAL CLUB GOODS J. E. Stewart & Company AGENTS MAYER SHOES

Haying Time

We have on hand for haying time Hay Forks, Mowing Scythes, Wire Rope, Steel Cable, Pulleys, etc. for Der-ricks.

Choicest Groceries

For an outing. If you want something dainty and fresh come and get some of our Lunch Goods. Our line is complete. Below is a partial list—

| | | |
|----------------------|------------------------|-----------------------|
| Sliced Beef in Glass | Potted Beef | Royal Club Salmon |
| Deviled Ham | Deviled Meats | Roast Beef |
| Lunch Tongue | Veal Loaf | Sardines |
| Royal Club Shrimp | French Sardines | Cervelat Sausage |
| Boneless Chicken | Sardines and Mustard | Pearl Onions |
| Jellies in glass | Sweet Pickles in glass | Sour Pickles in glass |

Try our Royal Club Pineapple—the finest ever put in cans.

Buy your Fishing Tackle of us

Lubricating Oils