

THE ECONOMY JAR KEEPS PERFECTLY

Vegetables, Fruits, Fish, Game, Soups, Etc.

Sure Seal
Air Tight
Wide Mouth
Sanitary Straight Sides

We guarantee them if directions are followed.

PINTS, QUARTS, HALF-GALLONS AND EXTRA CAPS

W. F. KING, PRINEVILLE, OR

LOCAL MENTION

Ferd McCallister was in town on business Wednesday.
Wilfred Belknap returned Saturday from a trip to Portland.
George Rowell of Sweethome valley, is visiting relatives in Prineville.
Pat Coel of Silver creek, passed through Prineville the first of the week on his way to Portland.
Max Hofer and Warren Crooks returned Sunday from their visit to Portland and the Seattle fair.
Miss Sadie McCoy of Haystack, preached at the Union church Sunday to a good congregation.

James Cuffelt and Orval Taylor of Lebanon, came home with A. T. Morris to take a look at this country.

Mrs. F. E. Brosius was summoned to Linn, Wash., Sunday, by the death of a grand child, daughter of Mrs. Ed Tobin.

Miss Vivian Allen of Paulina, passed through Prineville Saturday on her way to Grizzly to open school the first of the week.

W. R. Cook of Madras, was in town Monday. Mr. Cook has bought the W. H. Linder place adjoining his homestead.

R. E. Jones returned yesterday from a business trip to Tacoma where he bought some new machinery for the lumber mill at Howard.

Miss Daisy McCallister came home from Portland the first of the week. She will keep house for her brothers while they attend school in Prineville.

Rev. J. T. Moore and family left Tuesday for Fossil, where he will remain for six weeks. Later he may decide to accept a call to a church in Arkansas.

Mrs. May Zell and Ray Mackey were married at Caldwell, Idaho, September 2. They arrived in Prineville last Thursday and will make their home here.

Mamie Bailey is still wrestling with the typhoid fever. This makes the fourth week. Mrs. Mattie Taylor is with her parents helping to care for her sister.

Henry Stiles and Miss Cordelia Stevens were married in Portland Tuesday. Miss Stevens was a very popular young high school teacher, who made many friends in Prineville, and Henry, the husband, was just as popular and had as many friends. May their troubles be little ones.

MUSIC

Private instruction both Vocal and Instrumental.

MISS HELEN A. ELKINS
PRINEVILLE, OREGON

LOCAL MENTION

Arch Powell came up from Madras Monday.

Theodore Cadle, son of Jack Kadle, died at Paisley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wurzweller arrived from Portland yesterday.

Miss Jessie Hartley came in Saturday to take up her school work for another year.

A. G. Scoggin of Paulina, passed through town Tuesday on his way to visit friends in Portland.

Mrs. R. P. Harrington and son, who have been visiting relatives in Prineville, left Saturday for their home at Marshfield.

Mrs. John Newsum, who has been visiting in Prineville for several months, left Friday for her home in Denver, Col.

Mrs. I. B. Myer of Paulina, was in town the first of the week. She started her 12-year-old son on his way to Spokane to attend school.

H. H. Palmer, a printer of Chehalis, Wash., passed through Prineville Monday on his way to Laidlaw, where he will be employed on the Chronicle.

E. E. Kiddle, Most Excellent Grand High Priest of Royal Arch Mason of Oregon, will be in Prineville Saturday, September 18, 1909, to institute the Central Oregon Chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

Douglas Tapp who was arrested last week on a charge of stealing some bedding from J. H. Beckley at the Cold Spring ranch, has been released from jail, Mr. Beckley withdrawing the charges and paying the costs.

Mrs. J. H. Prose and Elsie and Robert Osborn, will leave Saturday for Pullman, Wash., where the young folks will attend the agricultural college. They will go by way of Seattle so as to take in the exposition.

Mrs. Ida McNutt, a sister of Mrs. Collins Elkins, who was a visitor in Prineville a few years ago, was married Tuesday, September 14, to Louis Oldfield, of St. Paul. They will travel a couple of years before settling down to housekeeping. They go to Europe this fall.

Oscar A. Prose and Miss Madeline M. Cudd were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, at the home of the father of the groom, S. A. Prose Sunday afternoon. The wedding was quiet, only the immediate relatives being present. Rev. C. C. Babbidge of the Presbyterian church was the officiating clergyman in making this happy pair one.

Presbyterian Church: Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m.; theme, "Battleships." Endeavor at 7 p. m.; subject, "Vanity Fair" (Pilgrim Progress series.) Leader, Miss Louise Summers. 8 p. m., Rebekah's anniversary sermon. The local lodge of Rebekahs and visiting members will attend in a body. All friends of the Rebekahs are invited to attend this service.

LOCAL MENTION

Miss Mattie Wilson is visiting in Madras.

Will Ford and wife of Lakeview, are visiting relatives in town.

Cobby Stroud left Tuesday for a business trip to Portland.

Charles Lister is home again from a visit to the Willamette valley.

Ed Hodson and sister, Mrs. Dundy, returned Saturday from a week's visit to Salem.

Mrs. Thomas Balfour and family have moved in from Buck creek to take advantage of the Prineville schools.

The new opera chairs and new carpet for the M. E. Church are here and it is hoped to get them in place for next Sunday.

Mrs. Estes has two carpenters at work enlarging her sales room. Her millinery business has outgrown present quarters.

Mrs. Reppa Hamilton, Miss Edna and Herbert Hamilton of Eugene, and Mrs. Ethel Salzer of Antelope, left for their respective homes Saturday.

R. G. Smith writes from Seattle that he is doing well. He wants to keep tab on Crook county so must have the Journal. His address is 213 1/2 Jackson street.

N. F. McColin leaves the latter part of the week with a load of supplies for his sheep camp at Crane Prairie. He will bring in his flock from Diamond Peak to Crane Prairie.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church have planned an ice cream social for tomorrow (Friday) evening on the lawn of the manse. Ice cream will be served from 3 to 7 o'clock.

W. H. Gaston of Tacoma, is heading a party of Tacomaites through this country with the object of investing. Mr. Gaston has a son only 23 years of age who is holding down the city desk on the Tacoma Daily Tribune. Smart boy.

Mrs. Winnek and daughter, Miss Lorene, leave today for a trip to California and Mexico. On their return from the Mexican trip Miss Lorene will attend school in Los Angeles for the winter. Mrs. Winnek expects to be away a couple of months.

Word was received yesterday that Charles Zell, the oldest son of Peter Zell, fell from a 70-foot bridge near Chico, Calif., and was killed. No further particulars have been received. Charles Zell was a carpenter, and was well known in Crook county.

James Willis Mills of Beverley, E. Yorks, England, was in Prineville Tuesday. Mr. Mills is a stockholder in the B. S. & L. Co. of Haycreek, and is greatly interested in educational matters. He visited the Prineville schools and made mental notes to be used in the schools of Beverley, of which place he is town clerk.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. Straude Price left Tuesday for Seattle to attend the fair.

Duncan Macleod left on Wednesday's stage for Portland.

Horace Belknap has a position behind the counter at C. W. Elkins' store.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church are planning a harvest supper for September 24.

J. E. Wilson, the Madras shoemaker, came over with a load of fruit the first of the week.

L. H. Arnsmeier passed through Prineville Tuesday on his way to Supple to take charge of the school at that place.

Mrs. Jennie U'Ren of Eugene, who has been visiting her brothers, Ed and George Stayton, left for her home Tuesday.

L. C. Morgan, clerk in the forest service headquarters at Prineville, left Saturday for Portland to meet his parents who are on the way from the East to the Seattle fair.

Word has been received from Portland that Mrs. Frank Johnson is improving slowly. She is able to take light nourishment but it will be some time before she is able to leave the hospital.

Judge B. F. Swope of Newport has joined the local bar at Prineville. He has moved his wife and family here to reside permanently. The judge has been practicing law for sixteen years. He has been judge of Lincoln county, was its deputy district attorney for seven years and is a man known integrity. A change of climate was necessary for his family and he chose Crook county as his future abiding place. His office will be with Attorney W. A. Bell. We bespeak for Mr. Swope and family a cordial welcome by the citizens of Prineville.

For Rent.
A 6-room house; good barn. Inquire at this office or of A. C. Knighten, 9-9 3/4

For sale by Templeton & Son

LOCAL MENTION

There may be cigars as good but there are none better than Storkman's Best.

Gormley, The Tailor.

What about that fall suit? Of course you want it tailor-made. It doesn't cost any more than the hit-and-miss kind. My samples are the finest in town. Pressing, repairing and cleaning. Give a trial. 8-5

For Sale.
White Sewing Machine for $12.50; good baby buggy for sale at a bargain. Apply at this office.

Hall Safe for Sale.
A Hall safe, good as new, for sale. It weighs 1350 pounds and is 44x30x24 outside measurement, inside 27x21x14. For further particulars call at this office. 8-19-09

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday September 19: Sunday School at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11. The subject will be "The Law of Sacrifice." There will be no service in the evening as the congregation will join in the Rebekah Anniversary service at the Presbyterian church. All members of the church are requested to be present at the morning service. We are beginning the work of the new year, therefore let us join heartily in the work for the Master. Rev. J. D. LEWELLEN.

SECOND - HAND STORE

All Kinds of Goods Bought and Sold

C. L. V. Marker

Dillon Building.