LOCAL MENTION

Harold Hobbs is able to be out again.

P. N. Vibbert of Youngs, was a business visitor the first of the week.

Clifton & Cornett are giving away $10 dinner sets to customers. Read their announce in another column.

Francis C. Hewes of Denver, Col., arrived in Prineville on today's stage. She will give a series of lectures on Modern psychology, commencing Sunday, September 26.

Miss Fay Baldwin left Monday for an extended eastern trip. She and Mrs. John E. Ryan will spend the winter visiting in the larger cities—Chicago, New York and Montreal, Canada.

Louis Hodges lost the thumb of his right hand Monday. He was on horseback and was leading a wild horse when in some way he got his thumb between the coils of the rope and it was pulled off at the first joint.

Ed Smith returned the other day from a trip to the Willamette valley, where he went with a bunch of horses. He reports the horse market as very dull. While he made a little money out of the sale it was not what he expected.

G. W. Kidder, who lives six miles south of Madras, was in town Saturday with a load of wheat. He got 75 cents a bushel. Mr. Kidder will hold an auction sale September 28, at which time he will sell horses, Jersey cows, Poland-China hogs, etc. See his advertisement in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lueddemann, who have made their home in Madras for the past four years, departed from this place last Friday for outside points, they having not decided in what locality they will eventually make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Lueddemann were prominent in business and social circles of Madras, and their absence will be felt in the community.—Pioneer.

Silas Adams, who was taken violently sick in the Cascade mountains last week, is now reported out of danger at the home of Steve Yancey. Silas had quite a trip. He was 24 miles west of Diamond lake when first taken sick. He was carried 16 miles down a steep mountain side on a stretcher, there he was transferred to a buck and carried 30 miles. At this point he was met by Dr. Edwards with his auto, which was converted into a temporary ambulance and carried 109 miles to Prineville.

Miss May Belle Reed and Bruce Gray were married in Portland last Thursday evening. They thought they would surprise their friends but the marriage license column of the Portland papers gave the snap away. The young couple came in on yesterday's stage and are stopping at the home of Wm. Wigle. They were given a pleasant surprise last evening by their many friends in Prineville. Mrs. Gray, who is deputy county clerk, will help catch up with the work in that office before retiring to the ranch of her husband at Post. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with them.
