The Margaret Iles Theatrical Company will be in Prineville five nights during next week opening on Tuesday evening at the Club hall. Several members of this company have been in Prineville before, and it is said to present very good entertainments for the inland route. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.
The Journal is informed that Mrs. Watt Jones was in a lively runaway at Powell Buttes a day or two ago but luckily escaped uninjured. The team ran wildly and threw Mrs. Jones out of the rig for a distance of 20 feet or more but she was not hurt. Afterward the horses got mixed up with a barbed wire fence but further details were not learned.
E. E. Laughlin and family of Paulina passed through Prineville today en route home from a trip to Portland and Seattle. Mr. Laughlin took four carloads of cattle to the Portland market and had to feed eight days at Shaniko waiting for stock cars. He says there were 30,000 sheep and 3000 cattle at Shaniko when he left waiting for cars.

P. L. Caples, salesman for the Honeyman-Hardware Co., of Portland, is in Prineville again for the first time in many months. On the first of last April Mr. Caples was in a runaway about 40 miles out of Heppner and the tendons in his knees were severed. As a result he laid in a hospital for 70 days but is able to get around about as well as ever again.
G. Springer was in town Monday from Culver, this being his first trip to town since he got bungled up by falling off a load of hay. He is planning to attend as a representative of the Deschutes Valley Dry Farming Congress and exhibits of farm products which will be held at Billings, Mont., the latter week in this month. Mr. Springer will bring in some of his fine horses to the Crook County fair.

Volume 1, No. 1, of The Oregon Hub, published at Redmond, made its appearance October 7. W. C. Walker is the editor and publisher. It is a neat 7-column paper, all home printed, and is well filled with local matter. Such a publication speaks well for the community in which it is published, its business men and citizens generally. May it keep step with the thrifty town in which it is published.

Mrs. Wm. McMeekin is critically ill at her home near Grizzly.
Douglas Hood the Madras liveryman, was in town the first of the week.
Joe Smelzer, who was injured in a runaway a couple of weeks ago is still in a very critical condition and improvement, if there is any, is very slow.
Friday night of next week a banquet will be given by the Crook county teachers at the Prineville. It looks like a big week for the teachers during the institute.
Widd Barnes, W. Frank Petett, Jack Feaks and Alf Eklson took a joy ride in Hodson's car last Friday night and attended the dance at Madras. Needless to say they had a good time.
Dennis Matthews, forest guard, who has been stationed during the summer at Buck Creek, Izee and Silver Creek in northern Harney county, is now doing office work in the forest service headquarters in Prineville.
Mrs. Matt Stiles of Portland, worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star, will be in Prineville next week on an official visit to Carleton Chapter No. 44. The session will probably be held Thursday night of next week.
The local K. of P. lodge is preparing for big things next week when Grand Chancellor Frank Menefer, Past Grand Chancellor Gus Moser and Supreme Representative W. L. Bradshaw will be here. Plans for one of the most interesting sessions in the history of the local lodge are being made for next Wednesday night.
James Allen passed through Madras the first of the week on the way to his home near Prineville. Mr. Allen has been in attendance at the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which was held in Seattle recently. He was one of the few members of the order who was admitted as an honorary member.—Pioneer.
The baseball cup to be awarded by the board of management of the Crook County Fair has arrived and in all its splendor is on exhibition in the window of W. Frank Petett's jewelry store. This cup is engraved "Crook County Baseball Championship, 1909." It stands 14 inches high on a 5-inch ebony base. It is a $30 silver cup and should stimulate the best efforts of the baseball boys.
Duncan Macleod, J. H. Haner, J. L. McCulloch and Mr. Drennan, the latter of Butte, Mont., came in Friday from Portland in Frank Rodman's big Pierce-Arrow car. They shipped the car to The Dalles and made a good run into Prineville from there. Mr. Macleod is here on business in connection with his real estate business in Portland and Mr. Haner and Mr. McCulloch were returning home from the city where they have been on business. Mr. Drennan is here looking over the country with a view to making investments.

Special Clearing Sale of Seasonable Goods
One Week---October 18th to 23rd Inclusive

This is an opportunity that you do not often have; a chance to buy seasonable goods at clearing prices. We find that in some lines we have too heavy a stock, while other lines which are slightly broken we intend to close out. This is a strictly bona fide sale; we do not believe in humbugging the people as we have seen done in some of the special sales held in Prineville. Look over the articles listed below, you will not have to be a judge of merchandise to know that they are genuine bargains. Of course at these prices goods are STRICTLY CASH.
