We have accepted the agency for the Empire line of Cream Separators. This is the machine that was shown at the Crook County Fair and is the one separator that has given perfect satisfaction all over the world. We expect to have two of these machines, No. 1b and 2b, set up on our floor Monday, Nov. 8, and will be pleased to have you call and see them. If you have an old separator of any make we will be glad to make you a trade for a New Empire.

The Cold Stays Out and the Style Stays In

when you're wearing a Sincerity overcoat. Warm enough for the keenest cold, but light enough not to be a burden. The makers reshrink fabrics that come from the mill marked "fully shrunk" 'till the loss is 15 per cent—that's their loss.

As a result the style stays in—that's your gain. And every stitch—every bit of work on a Sincerity garment is directed towards making the style more than the looks. And all

Paulina News.

Paulina schools opened Nov. 1, with thirty four pupils. There will be a term of six months. Mrs. C. V. Hanley is teacher.

Mrs. Sam Lytle, Paulina's postmistress, has been sick for the past three weeks with typhoid fever.

Henry Faulkner is just recovering from an attack of the fever.

We are having some pretty cold weather in Paulina. We have had several light snows, making the young people thing of sleighing.

Mrs. Anderson and grand-daughter Hazel Ruthford were passengers on the Saturday night stage from Prineville. Mrs. Anderson came out to nurse her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Clark, who is quite sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. Clark has been ill for two weeks.

John Rickman of the Beaver Creek saw mill left here Saturday on his way to South Carolina.

Beaver Creek's new school house is nearly completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Morgan were in Paulina last week. Mr. Morgan is buying beef cattle. They left here Sunday on their way to Prineville.

Mr. Charles Roberts is reported sick this week. He was alone on his farm below here. His wife and children being in Paulina for the winter school. "Uncle McKim" of Paulina has gone down to help him.

Paulina Valley's school teacher has come out, and school will start now in a short time.

Haycreek Items.

Sam Edmunds, from Walla Walla, Wash., went through this place Tuesday on his way to Dunsmuir, Cal.

Light snow Wednesday.

W. E. Duchien has purchased a phonograph.

Opal Moore, the three-year-old daughter of Ralph Moore, is ill this week.

George Lytle and Ralph Moore went to Madras Tuesday.

Althea Vineyard went to Trout Creek, Tuesday.

Orville Moore is sick this week.

In this vicinity there is quite a demand for an instructor on violin or cornet.

Three inches of snow Saturday.

Youngs News.

The cold weather here has given quite a few people bad colds. Those who were reported as sick last week are all on the mend at this time however.

George McFarland received the sad news of his mother's death in Seattle on Thursday of last week. The news came as a shock to Mr. McFarland as he supposed his mother was getting better right along. She was seventy-seven years old and had been afflicted with rheumatism for a number of years.

The Mud Springs school house will be the center of attraction next Friday night when a basket social will be held there. A lengthy program has been prepared and the crowd anticipate a jolly evening. There is an organized literary society in that district which holds meetings twice a month that are instructive as well as enjoyable.

Mr. Lockhart, who has driven the stage from Heiler to Madras for the past several years has had the position of stage agent given him and the new mail stage will now go on his old run.

The man Matheny who was so free with his gun a few nights ago is now in jail in Portland. The man who was his partner in the "near-beer" joint will have to go to Portland if the case comes up for trial there. Matheny has some charges of long standing that are waiting to be brought up as soon as this case is disposed of.

Mr. Akeyson and family have moved to their homestead two miles from Sagebrush springs. Mrs. Akeyson had the boarding house at the springs and had an average of eight boarders daily. The place is vacant now and no one around here is in a position to take the place.

Some of the farmers around here are killing their hogs and the daily bill of fare is changed from smoked ham and bacon to spare ribs and sausage. The change is appreciated too as we were about to advertise for a receipt to cook bacon in a way to make it taste like roast beef.

Some of the farmers have their land all planted and they are ready for winter whenever it is ready to come. Others are hoping the cold weather will wait a month or so.
