George Millen came in from the Pine Mountain country the last of the week. He says that cattle are doing fairly well on the desert, notwithstanding the cold weather.

Twenty below zero is reported as the temperature at Henry Carlin's ranch on Bear Creek last Sunday night. The thermometer registered 4 below in Prineville that night.

Colburn McPherson was in town this week from Haystack. He had an accident the other day caused by a wagon seat breaking and fell out on the frozen ground, bruising his face very painfully.

The annual number of the Portland Oregonian contained the best write-up Central Oregon ever had. There is no discounting its advertising value to this country. Our merchantable and marketable resources will receive wide publicity at an opportune time. A large immigration is sure to come this way the coming summer.

We are advised by Edward A. Beals, the U. S. weather man of Portland, that he tried to get a telephone message to Prineville on New Year's day notifying stockmen of the approaching cold spell but could not on account of the wires being down. When it's possible such advance information will be sent to the local weather man here for dissemination.

LOCAL MENTION

J. G. Clark, of Ashwood is in town this week to have some dental work done.

Harold Baldwin, of the First National Bank, returned Sunday from a visit in Portland.

New Year's Reception.

The Ladies' Annex of the Commercial Club kept "open house" on the afternoon of New Year's day for the members and their friends. While the matrons received and presided in the refreshment room, the young ladies served and assisted in entertaining the guests. During the afternoon several musical selections, both vocal and instrumental, were rendered which added much to the pleasure of the callers. The club parlors and library were transformed into veritable bowers of beauty by means of evergreen streamers, bells, artificial greens and roses, the whole making an especially pleasing and artistic effect in the soft candle light.

The afternoon reception was followed by an evening of Five Hundred, which was greatly enjoyed by all who participated. The prizes were awarded Mrs. Doonar and Mr. Bernier who held the two highest scores. The evening closed with music and lunch and all departed hoping that 1910 may hold many such delightful affairs.

House for Sale—Four-room house, two lots for sale; north side. Inquire at this office.

THE PEOPLE ARE FROM MISSOURI

We Have Shown Them

We have shown the buying public that at least one "Genuine Sale" has at last taken place in Prineville. There have been some so-called "Sales" in our city, which have not given the buying public any advantage in reductions.

The generous patronage the public has given us in the first three opening days of our Cash Sale is proof that ours is a Genuine Price Reducing Sale, and is appreciated as such by the buying public. Remember, everything in our immense stock is greatly reduced, we do not reserve a single item.
