Matoes Items.

Here are a few items from the Matoes, commonly spelled Matoes, or Matolius, or most any old way except the right way. It is a remarkable fact that the old chief's name has never been spelled correctly since the river was named after him, save once, and that was upon a cedar tree that stands not far from the banks of this noisy stream. It leaves the following inscription cut with surveyor's instruments: "Starved Out Camp, 1853. The Matoes is dam."

We still have nearly a foot of snow up near the lower shut-in rock, so the squatters on the unsurveyed have a good excuse for doing nothing.

It is reported that the progressive Mr. Riggs has engaged Irwin Williams to work for him at odd times for the magnificent salary of a dollar per day. C. T. Hubbard, who is kindly assisting Mr. Williams in holding down a claim, is said to have entered a vigorous protest against the liberal offer in the following language: "Mr. Riggs pays Mr. Williams a dollar a day for ten days—ten dollars; a hundred days, a hundred dollars; a thousand days, a thousand dollars; a million days, a million dollars. What chance have I to win in these days of privilege of the favored few in a contest against a millionaire?"

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the old firm of Stroud Bros. prior to October 1, 1909, are requested to settle at once. These accounts have been placed in the hands of Attorney G. L. Bernier for collection and all remittances should be made to him at Prineville, Oregon. 115-11 C. M. STRUOD.

Business College.

J. S. Fox, the public stenographer, has taken extra rooms in the Adamson block and is prepared to teach commercial subjects. Shorthand, Typewriting, Book-keeping and Handwriting. Individual instruction. Any pupil can take any or all subjects. Terms reasonable.

Trade at Home!

We greatly appreciate home trade and know all would be benefited by spending your money at home. Catalogue houses never helped your son, daughter or neighbor, they do not pay taxes in your community nor support your schools or churches. YOUR HOME MERCHANT DOES. If you will add freight or postage, then compare quality with our goods we will meet the catalogue houses every time. Yours for home trade,

ROBERT SMITH,
General Merchandise
Sisters, Oregon.

Paulina Items.

As no Paulina news has appeared in your paper for sometime, we will try to send you a few items from this lively little village.

Winter hangs on with us as with all our neighbors, but we hope to live through with no trouble. The stock looks well. Most of the stockmen can feed until the 10th of April.

The Paulina school is progressing splendidly under the management of Miss Hazel Caldwell. There are twenty-eight pupils enrolled.

On the evening of the fourth the school gave a tea social, which was a very enjoyable affair and netted the school twenty dollars. The money will be spent for supplementary readers.

Frank Jenkins, Homer Craddock, Ed Reams and Joe Smith were Paulina visitors today. Joe Smith was on his way to Prineville.

Homer York passed through on his way to Prineville.

The horsemen of the country held a meeting on the sixth and organized to build a race track and fair ground at Paulina. J. D. Combs; president, H. J. Faulkner, secretary; Mike Brown, Elmer Clark and Marlon Morgan, directors. They will hold a fair and races to conform with those at Burns and Prineville.

Fred Mosler came in from Brown's sheep camp to spend a week with his wife and family.

Several of our residents were called to the county seat on business last week. "Bush."

M. E. Church Services.

At the First Methodist church for Sunday the 13th, the regular preaching service will be held at the morning hour. The young people of the Epworth League will give a programme at 7:30 p. m. Randolph Kethum will give an oration on "St. Paul, the Man." Irene Barnes, "Paul Witnessing the Death of Stephen." Ethel Klahn, "Paul the Persecuter." Mr. Dinwiddie, "Paul's Conversion." Mr. Darper, "Paul's Defense on Mars Hill." Guy Lafollette, "Paul's Defence before the Mob." Maude Potter, "Paul before the Council." Frank Lafollette, "Paul before King Agrippa." Roy Lowther, "Paul's Speech upon the Stormy Sea." Miss Rideout, "Paul a Prisoner at Rome." Miss Elkins, "Paul's Calm Departure." Music will be interspersed with these selections.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give their Easter sale on the 19th of March.

Patients Received.

Persons needing hospital accommodations can find them at my home. I am prepared to care for patients, or patients may employ their own nurses. Maternity cases may expect special attention. Mrs. P. B. POINDEXTER.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

It has been brought to our attention that it is the opinion of some that we are endorsing "wildcat" schemes owing to the fact that we had placed on our map which we have printed on our literature, the names of places not in existence except in the imaginations of the promoters. We did this to save answering inquiries as to the location of said places. We may say, however, that we do not recommend or endorse any scheme which by misleading or exaggerated advertising seeks to obtain the money of investors quickly by misrepresenting the facts, but recommend nothing to prospective buyers except such propositions as we know to be absolutely reliable. We have not sold, nor do we wish to sell any lots or property in any place or townsite that cannot bear the closest investigation, and up to the present no townsite has been projected which, on present showing, we could thoroughly recommend to our patrons.
