Complete Line—All Sizes and Styles

Wood Frame Harrows
Spring Tooth Harrows
Superior Grain Drills
Fanning Mills & Baggers
The well known Oliver and Canton
Plows in walking, sulky and gang

In an effort to keep pace with the many improvements in agricultural machinery, we are introducing every season new types of implements that have been tried and found to materially increase the yield of the soil in other sections similar to ours. This year we offer the Canton Alfalfa Harrow and a big assortment of Land Packers. In packers we have the Dunham for light, sandy soil and the Campbell for heavier soil. These packers are designed to conserve the moisture and to obtain the proper proportion of air and moisture in the ground and thus increase yield

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. W. H. Peck of Lamonta, was a Prineville visitor Monday.
A marriage license has been issued to Robert L. Long and Miss Maude Newbill of Grizzly.
Roy Rannels of Cline Falls, is visiting his mother at the home of Charles Christian.
H. A. Scoggin has resigned his position as deputy county clerk and has gone back to his home at Tumalo.
Mr. Shattuck left for Shaniko the first of the week to get a new Ford car ordered by Mr. Merrill, the Bend druggist.
F. C. Logan was in from Barnes Monday. He was looking for ranch hands but could not find a man that wanted work.
Hubert E. Derrick, the forest ranger, who has been furloughed for the winter, is again on duty in Districts 8 and 9. His headquarters are at Rosland.
Dr. Rosenberg and J. H. Wigle left Tuesday for The Dalles to bring in a couple of new Overlands. Mr. Wigle will pilot his own, and the doctor will drive the one belonging to Walt Foster.
Mrs. John Chambers opened her purse on the Ochoco bridge last Saturday during the gale and old bones whiffed away a couple of $10 bills. A horseman plunged into the Ochoco and rescued one and the other was found in a nearby clump of bushes.
Mrs. Frank Cox was thrown from her buggy Sunday afternoon and received a fractured leg. The horse, which was a young one, became frightened at an automobile, and in jumping around overturned the buggy. Dr. Belknap was called to attend the injured woman.

CHEAP INSURANCE

FOR GRAIN GROWERS
"Woodlark" Squirrel Poison is the most reliable and destructive agent yet devised for the extermination of Gophers, Squirrels, Sage Rats and Prairie Dogs. It is the cheapest insurance against their ravages. Every kernel is warranted to kill. Climatic changes or moisture of the earth do not destroy its strength. Requires no mixing or preparation. Is always ready for use. No other is so good. Dealers will refund the purchase price if not as claimed. Pamphlet free. HOTT CHEMICAL CO., Portland, Oregon
For sale by Templeton & Son

LOCAL MENTION

Joe Combs and wife came down from Paulina the first of the week.
James S. McMeen of Lamonta, was in town Tuesday on business.
Miss Clara Healey of Lamonta, is visiting her brother in Prineville this week.
J. H. Delore leaves this week for The Dalles where he will make his future home.
Prineville and Redmond will cross bats next Sunday at the latter place. A good many fans expect to accompany the team to the Hub town.
B. F. Shepherd, who formerly lived up Crooked river, but now hangs from Burro, Calif., is in Prineville looking after his business affairs.
Miss Jessie McCallister came in Tuesday from Portland after an absence of a year and a half. She will visit her parents for a month or six weeks.
D. C. Ingram has returned from Seattle where he has been attending the school of forestry at the University of Washington. He is now on duty in district No. 7, which includes the Silver and Buck creek country.
T. E. J. Duffy, attorney-at-law, has opened an office in the W. A. Bell building. Mr. Duffy has been appointed deputy prosecuting attorney for this end of the district, and will look after legal business requiring the attention of Prosecuting Attorney Wilson. Mr. Duffy was formerly special agent for the general land office.
At the First Methodist church for Sunday the 10th inst., "The Communion of the Twelve," will be the subject for the morning sermon. The one for the evening will be, "What Think Ye of Christ?" Special music at both services. The special last Sunday night has been pronounced the best given during the present pastorate. The Junior League have a special temperance meeting at 3 o'clock, and a special invitation is given to boys to attend J. D. Lewellen.

In the ball game last Sunday at Bend the Prineville nine were beaten 8 to 1. Our boys could outbat the Bend players but they were not in it running bases or fielding their position. The Prineville club must get in and practice if it is to make it interesting for the other ball teams of the county. Bend will play a return game on April 17. The Prineville boys are talking up a dance to be given on April 16, if the Bend nine can arrange to be here on that date.
Miss Bonnah Crooks, who has been at Boise, Idaho, for the past several months attending business college, is expected home next week, and will be accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. R. E. Simpson and children, who will visit relatives in Prineville. Mr. Simpson is engaged in the sheep business and his duties take him away from home at this season. On her return Miss Crooks will resume her position in J. H. Haner's abstracting office.

LOCAL MENTION

Charles Houston and family moved to their ranch on Bear Creek Monday.
Will Hollinshead of Rosland was a business visitor in Prineville Tuesday.
George Ferris of Salt Creek was a business visitor in town the first of the week.
Henry Birdsong and Frank Ray of Johnson Creek were in town on business Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewelling of Rabbit Valley were in the city on business the first of the week.
The city council was not able to transact any business last Tuesday evening owing to the absence of three councilmen.
J. S. McMeen, one of Lamonta's prominent residents was in town yesterday and today, attending to business matters.
A. F. Randle, who was killed last week was buried Tuesday. The son and daughter who were to be here for the funeral have not yet arrived.
R. G. Smith and family returned from Seattle last evening. They could find no better place to live in than Prineville and were glad to get back.
A good string of horses is promised for the Prineville May races. There will be two from Huntington, Perival's bunch from Independence, and some from The Dalles and Ellensburg, Wash.

J. H. Prose writes that he has bought a "nice little place 1 1/2 miles from John Day and likes it over there first rate." The people over there will find that they have good neighbors.
A. R. Eastwood was in the first of the week from Coon Creek where he has been getting out lumber all winter for the railroad. Mr. Eastwood is making arrangements to put in a mill in the McKay country.
At the Presbyterian Church next Sabbath all services will be held at the usual hours. Preaching by the pastor both morning and evening. Subject for morning, "Spiritual Self-measurement." Evening theme, "An Undesirable Suburb."
Cole and Miller Macpherson have sold their Trout creek property to Bidwell Cram for $14,600. There were 2000 acres involved in the deal. Mr. Cram has now about 4000 acres in a compact body, making one of the finest ranches in the county.
That there will be cessation of activity in the way of providing water for settlers on D. I. & P. Co.'s segregation is evidenced by the fact that two crews are now employed clearing interals and ditches preparatory to the coming season's irrigation. The main canals have already been cleared and water is flowing in them. All ditches will carry water in ample time for crops. And it is expected that a large area of new land will be watered this year.—Bend Bulletin.

There Are Two Classes of Investors
ONE KIND
This kind makes most money. He invests in farm lands and city property while prices are low. Every advance in price is that much money in his pocket.
ANOTHER KIND
This kind hesitates while prices advance higher and higher but he, too, finally buys, because the value of the investment actually forces him.
Land Owners, Attention
If you wish to sell and your property is reasonable, list with us. We are in touch with capital and are receiving many inquiries concerning raw and improved farm lands in Central Oregon.
