 Fanning Mills & Baggers
 The well known Oliver and Canton
 Plows in walking, sulky and gang

In an effort to keep pace with the many improvements in agricultural machinery, we are introducing every season new types of implements that have been tried and found to materially increase the yield of the soil in other sections similar to ours. This year we offer the Canton Alfalfa Harrow and a big assortment of Land Packers. In packers we have the Dunham for light, sandy soil and the Campbell for heavier soil. These packers are designed to conserve the moisture and to obtain the proper proportion of air and moisture in the ground and thus increase yield

I. O. O. F. Anniversary

The ninety-first anniversary of the I. O. O. F. lodge in America was fittingly observed by that order at the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening. The program was given by the Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends, to a gathering of about one hundred people.
 The principal address of the evening was delivered by Rev. J. D. Lewellen who has recently been initiated into the order here. Members were in attendance from all over the county and a number of visiting Odd Fellows were present. After the program a banquet was served in the hall and all departed declaring the Odd Fellows admirable hosts. The following program was rendered:

Miss Brink with a beautiful traveling case, as a slight recognition of the appreciation of the order for the interest she has ever manifested in its welfare from the time of its organization, when she occupied the station of worthy matron, to the present time, when she resigned the office of secretary.
 On Tuesday afternoon the Shumia Club, of which Miss Brink is president, called, and Miss Parrott, in the name of the club, presented Miss Brink with a beautiful souvenir spoon of the Crook County court house and voiced the hope of the entire club when she said she trusted it would prove a lodestar that would draw her to them again, as the organization and much of the success of the club is due to the zealous work of Miss Brink in its behalf.

There are two classes of investors. One kind makes most money. He invests in farm lands and city property while prices are low. Every advance in price is that much money in his pocket. Another kind hesitates while prices advance higher and higher but he, too, finally buys, because the value of the investment actually forces him.

There Are Two Classes of Investors

ONE KIND
 This kind makes most money. He invests in farm lands and city property while prices are low. Every advance in price is that much money in his pocket.

ANOTHER KIND
 This kind hesitates while prices advance higher and higher but he, too, finally buys, because the value of the investment actually forces him.

Land Owners, Attention
 If you wish to sell and your property is reasonable, list with us. We are in touch with capital and are receiving many inquiries concerning raw and improved farm lands in Central Oregon.

I. L. Ketchum has devised a system of "smudge pots" for his orchard, something after the system used in Washington and other states to keep the late spring frosts from killing the fruit. It seems that the experiment would be successful and if so it will make fruit raising possible in almost any part of Central Oregon.
 C. C. Hon of the forest service, came in Tuesday from the Long Prairie range station near Rosland. He is getting work on the different ranger buildings started so that they will be habitable by the time needed this spring. He will go from here to the Rager creek station on the head of Bear creek, where new buildings will be put up.
 Hermann Anderson was brought in from Madras, Tuesday, by Deputy Sheriff Culp, and after an examination by local attorneys was found to be insane and committed to the state asylum at Salem. Attendant from the asylum left today with the patient. Anderson has no relatives or friends in this country, and has been in the employ of the railroad camp near Madras for some time.
 Seven automobiles came up on the boat last night. There were two Chalmers-Detroit for the Wenandy-Buntun Auto company, two Buicks for F. Z. Baldwin of Prineville and two Fords for Prineville parties whose names could not be learned. The seventh car was owned by parties on their way to Prineville. —The Dalles Chronicle.

John Osler and wife of San Jose, Calif., passed through Prineville Sunday on their way to Bear creek, where he is interested in the cattle business. Mr. Osler has been visiting this country for nineteen years and says that he can see it changing from stockraising to agriculture. The change is coming gradually, but none the less surely. California keeps an even pace. Mr. Osler has a large dairy down there. He cuts from four to six crops of alfalfa a year.
 The pathfinder car for the Portland automobile club and the Oregon State Auto Association, will be in Prineville on Saturday, April 30, according to G. B. Beck of the Portland Automobile Club in a letter written to G. M. Cornett of this place and will look over the country hereabouts for the purpose of finding the best roads and obtaining facts for mapping them for the use of the tourists and transient autos. As yet there is no available printed matter for these people. H. R. Glener will be the official representative of the club.

The Paulina Racing Association, J. D. Combs, president, and H. J. Faulkner, secretary, are to have three days racing, beginning on June 15. They hang $350 in purses and will have a variety of running races for all distances. This is the biggest event yet undertaken by these people and will no doubt meet with success as have all their previous efforts in this line.
 Sheriff Elkins returned yesterday from a trip through the west side of the county where he served subpoenas on some 120 people to appear before the State Board of Control in sundry water cases which will be tried by that board at Sisters, Laidlaw and Bend, some time in June. The subpoenas were ordered at the instance of F. M. Saxton of the board.
 Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith, a farewell reception was given for Rev. and Mrs. C. T. Radford and children, who left Wednesday noon for Shaniko, on their way to their new home at Long Beach, Calif. A large number of the members were present to bid them goodbye. Light refreshments were served, and a most pleasant evening enjoyed, except for the departure of Mr. Radford and family. Though the members of this family have been with us but a few months, they have the esteem of all who have come to know them, and all regret that they must go.
