

Price and Quality

are two very important factors to be considered before buying a Windmill or a Pumping-outfit. We are the Aermotor Windmill Agents and our plumbing department is fully prepared to install a complete pumping outfit that we guarantee to be first-class in every respect from the cylinder in the bottom of the well to the topmost fan on the windmill.

Windmills are not a luxury but are as economizing to the enterprising rancher, stockman or fruitgrower as a wagon or a plow.

Our Terms and Prices will suit your purse

American Fence—Poultry Netting—Yankee Steel Lawn Fence

We are the exclusive agents for the celebrated American Fencing and have recently added a carload to our already large stock. By buying in such large quantities we are in a position to allow our customers the satisfaction of examining the many different styles, weight and height and to give them the very Lowest Prices. If you are planning on building a fence be sure and see our New American Poultry, Rabbit and Stock Fence. It is the latest creation in farm fence structure, being strong enough to hold any kind of stock and the wires are close enough together to stop rabbits and chickens.

When a roll of fencing is bought of us we will furnish free an implement for stretching wire.
