

Order Now

Don't put off getting a machine. Place your order now and it will be here for the fall sowing. The Superior Drills speak for themselves. The name tells a true story.

Superior Grain Drills

A Comparison Invited

We ask you to compare the Superior with any other drill on the market. Carefully consider the one-piece solid steel frame, the large diameter steel axle, the strongest and best wheels and the hoppers, made out of the best well-seasoned lumber

The W. F. King Company, Prineville, Oregon

LOCAL MENTION

A. L. MacIntosh returned to Portland Friday.
E. E. Daylon of Laddlaw was a business visitor Tuesday.
Mrs. Emma Whitsett of Bend, is visiting relatives in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Yancey left Sunday for a brief visit to the Cove Orchard.

W. F. King, daughter and son returned the last of the week from a months outing in the Cascades.

Miss Verna Howard left for Madras the first of the week to take up her work in the public schools of that place.

Harold Throp of Paulina, returned home from the Willamette Valley the first of the week, where he has been visiting his parents.

O. C. Claypool and B. F. Wyde left Saturday for a hunting trip on the McKinzie. Omer will bring his family with him when he returns.

Ed Pruitt of Antelope and Emma Pike of this city were married at the Baptist parsonage August 29 by the Rev. C. P. Bailey.

Miss Helen Elkins left for San Francisco this week, where she will spend the winter. She will study music under some of the masters of that city.

Miss Flossie White, daughter of George White, who has been visiting in Ohio, came in last Thursday. She will make her home in Prineville in the future.

Dick Reese got back the first of the week from his hunting trip on Summit Prairie. He brought home a big mule buck. He saw nine deer in his 3-days' hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Horney returned Tuesday from Iowa, where they were visiting, when recalled last Thursday on account of the illness of their daughter Bertha.

Sheriff Elkins arrested Douglas Tapp here Monday, wanted in Douglas county for sandbagging and robbing a man there. Tapp was arrested here two years ago on a charge of larceny in this county.

A hunting party composed of W. A. Booth, G. W. Noble, J. H. Templeton, L. A. Booth and J. Frank Spinning returned from a trip to Diamond Peak the first of the week. The party were out five weeks and bagged the limit of five deer each.

The Oregon Trunk addition to Redmond is the latest addition that will be passed by the county court at its September session next week. This addition includes 130 acres of land just east of the original town and across the canal. It is owned by the Inland Empire Townsite Company, the president of which is V. B. Williamson, who is connected with the Oregon Trunk road. The property will be handled by Redmond & Phoenix.

LOCAL MENTION

J. W. Shattuck passed through Prineville Tuesday.
Tillman Reuter of Madras was in Prineville yesterday.

G. N. Nye of Crooked river was a business visitor the first of the week.
D. Burros of Nuplee passed through Prineville the first of the week on his way to visit his mother.

John E. Edwards of Bend, is a Prineville visitor this week. Mr. Edwards is a candidate for the office of sheriff subject to the approval of the democratic voters at the primaries September 24.

A train of twelve immigrant wagons arrived in Prineville Saturday from eastern parts of the state and Idaho. This is the largest single immigration of this kind that has arrived here for some time.

Mrs. Steward, president of the Ladies' Annex, wishes to announce that next Tuesday is the regular meeting of the Annex and that a full attendance is requested. Business of importance will come before it.

Mrs. A. E. Starr of Portland and H. B. Richards and family of The Dalles, will leave in a few days for their respective homes. They have been visiting C. W. Starr and family at Howard and J. N. Williamson of this place.

B. F. Johnson and party of fire fighters returned Tuesday from Snow Mountain where they succeeded in putting out a bad fire. All fires in the Deschutes forest, which includes the Blue Mountains, are out or well under control.

Millard T. Triplett of Bend, is in Prineville this week looking over the political situation. He announces himself as a candidate for the office of sheriff, subject to the approval of republican voters, of the county at the primaries September 24.

N. N. Kims and wife of Held were in Prineville Saturday attending to land matters. They are new arrivals in this county from California.

They are greatly pleased with the land they were able to file on in southwestern Crook. They got a good homestead and a desert claim.

Presbyterian church next Sunday. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Subject, "A Wise Christian." Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Evening sermon at 8 p. m. Topic, "God's Picture of a Happy Man." Come thou with us and we will do thee good. No fads or fancies, only plain gospel that will bear fullest investigation.

C. C. Bauninger, Pastor.

A petition has been forwarded to the postoffice department asking for the establishment of a postoffice at L. Connel's place on upper Summit Prairie, to be supplied with mail from the Howard office twice each week. If the new office is allowed it will be called Meadow. This service will be a great convenience to the people of that country. Some forty patrons will be reached by the new route.

LOCAL MENTION

A. G. Seoggin went to Portland the week.
Marion Taylor has sold 250 head of cattle to Tom Breunen.

Otto C. Gray was in the city yesterday from Bonnyview.
Archie Gibson is building a residence for his sister Christine on her ranch near Post.

A marriage license was issued August 27 to William C. Fordham and Anna Laure Hultz.

A. J. Noble bought the G. W. Ramsey property in the north part of the city the last of the week.

T. E. J. Duffy went to Bend on business connected with the prosecuting attorney's office the last of the week.

Clarence Rice left the last of the week for a two weeks' visit with friends in Spokane. He will return in time for school.

The last of a long procession of freight teams loaded with wool passed through Prineville Monday. This load belongs to Kern Bros. and was hauled by Sam Clemens.

D. M. Curtis has leased the dining-room of the Poindexter Hotel and will conduct the same on a first-class basis. An excellent cook has been engaged and good service is guaranteed.

Albert Noble says that he wishes to notify the public who are in the habit of leaving their letters to post at the stage office, that he will not be responsible for the delivery of such letters, and that they should be mailed at the postoffice.

Clarence Post and family who have been visiting his parents on Crooked river, left for their home in South Bend, Washington, yesterday. A party was given the young people Monday night, at which many of their old friends were present.

John Morris has rented his home property on Main Street to Mrs. Hinton and will leave this week for Portland in search of health. It is thought a change of climate will do him good. Mr. Morris has been a resident of Prineville for eleven years and has accumulated considerable property here. He is a firm believer in the future of Prineville and leaves the town with many regrets.

Married—Sunday afternoon, Ira E. Ray and Miss Fay LaFollette. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Poe LaFollette on Dry creek. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. C. Babbidge of this city. Mr. Thron Able acted as best man and Miss Hazel Demaris as bridesmaid. A large number of friends and relatives were present. The young people left Monday for their new home east of Antelope on John day river, where they have a fruit ranch. They received many valuable presents from their friends.

LOCAL MENTION

R. S. Dixon of Barnes was in Prineville yesterday.
G. L. Bernier was in Bend on legal business Saturday.

Charles Monroe of Post was in Prineville on business Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. John I. Jones of Powell Butte were in the city this week.

Marion Taylor and family returned a few days ago from a trip to Willamette Valley points.
G. M. Cornett left the last of the week for Seaside. His family will return with him next week.

Check and Grover Gibson were in from Post the first of the week with a bunch of cattle for Stroud & Cross.

Douglas Smend is building an addition to his residence near Post, and installed an independent telephone last week.

W. F. King and family returned from an outing in the mountains the last of the week and left Sunday for a visit to the seaside.

George Wiley has finished gathering his beef and is pasturing them on Newsom creek until the delivery, which is September 10.

C. L. Shattuck and family and Mrs. E. H. Smith returned from Klamath Falls Friday. They made the trip overland in the little Ford, and report a good time.

Claude Dodderidge and J. Frank Spinning left yesterday for Shaniko. Mr. Dodderidge goes to Portland for a ten days' visit with his parents while Mr. Spinning will return to his business in Echo.

There will be no preaching as the pastor will be away for a time soliciting funds for the new church. The Sabbath school and C. E. Society will be as usual. Mrs. O. Powell will lead the C. E. meeting next Sunday. Let the Endeavors rally to the work. C. P. Bailey, Pastor.

LOCAL MENTION

Grant Mays and Robert Wiley were in Prineville Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Graham of Hay creek were in Prineville the first of the week.

Ira Paxton of Morrow & Keenan's Willow creek ranch, was in town the last of the week.

Walter and Frank Foster and Roy Gray are back from a hunting trip in the Summit Prairie country.

J. H. Beckley came in from Portland the first of the week and may buy cattle before his return.

Horace Belknap left Monday for Trout creek, where he will spend the week visiting Robert Cram.

Morgan L. Trot and wife of Antelope passed through Prineville on their way home from Silver Lake Monday.

County Clerk Warren Brown, Millard Triplett and John Edwards left this afternoon for Madras and way points.

J. E. Stewart and family left today for Baker City and other outside points. They will be gone about a month.

John Stedal, C. H. Erickson, C. A. Lucas, W. W. Orent and other Bend parties are in Prineville today attending the Joe Ross trial.

A letter from Portland states that C. B. Dinwiddie who underwent an operation for appendicitis, is able to leave the hospital and will go to the seacoast shortly for a vacation.

Mrs. P. G. Carmichael, of Loudon,

LOCAL MENTION

Oregon, who resided on Crooked river for a number of years, is visiting her daughter Mrs. A. D. McDowell.

Death of J. P. Yancey.
J. P. Yancey, father of Jesse, S. W. and Al Yancey and Mrs. Ray Mackey, Mrs. George Estes, and Mrs. Nye, of this place Mrs. Emery Foren of Burns Mrs. Rattie Hanson of Portland, died at Caldwell, Idaho, Monday afternoon. Mr. Yancey lived in Prineville and vicinity for a number of years and had many friends here. He was 74 years of age at the time of his death. The body will be brought here for burial. Jesse Yancey, I. W. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mackey and Mrs. Estes will accompany the party in from Shaniko. Time for the burial has not been set.

List your City and Acreage Property WITH THE Henderson Investment Company

SNAP—203 acres two miles out, 165 under ditch; 70 in alfalfa; 95 in grain; good house, barn and outbuildings; 30 shares in ditch and all implements. Price $16,000; $6000 cash, balance 5 years at 6 per cent.

40 acres wheat land, 9 miles out; all under high state of cultivation and fenced. Small house and barn; good well. $1200, including crop.

Homestead relinquishment, 34 miles out, containing 100 acres rich agricultural land, under canal survey, $325.

160 acres, 140 tillable, 12 acres under ditch; good house, barn and outbuildings. Price $6000.

HENDERSON INVESTMENT CO.

Prineville Hotel Building, Ground Floor
Prineville, Oregon.

D. P. Adamson & Co DRUGGISTS

Grateful relief from the torture of sunburn with its annoyance and unsightly after effects is absolutely assured if Adamson's Almond and Cucumber Cream is constantly used. Adamson's Almond and Cucumber Cream will prevent all the skin troubles of hot weather, will save your complexion and keep the face, neck, arms and hands soft and healthy. This summer you can avoid all the discomforts of sore, parched, irritated skin if you will use Adamson's Almond and Cucumber Cream every day. Apply it night and morning as well as before and after exposure to the sun or wind; you will not be troubled with either blistering or peeling. If the skin should be already burned, Adamson's Almond and Cucumber Cream is delightfully cooling, soothing and healing to the fevered surface, affording almost instant relief. Mothers find it excellent for baby's delicate skin. Fathers know it is unequalled after shaving. Remember Adamson's Almond and Cucumber Cream is the Genuine.

DIGESTO only 50c a box

D. P. Adamson & Co. DRUGGISTS

Done by order of the Socialist County Central Committee, August 1st, 1910.
J. H. HONNAY, Chairman.
J. H. SMITH, Secretary.
A speaker of national reputation will address the convention. 8-11

Begins Saturday
August 13

Season - End Sale

Begins Saturday
August 13

Shoes for Men, Women and Children

A lot of odd pairs in Men's Misses' Women's Children's
All go at reduced prices

Sale Begins
Saturday
August 13

White Goods

Our prices on these goods are always right and you will find these sale prices Extra Special.

Now is the time to lay in a good supply

Watch our window for these specials. | J. E. Stewart & Co | Mail orders receive prompt attention