Culver Junction Items

The sound of the hammer is now heard in the land and it is not wielded by the "knocker" either. Carpenters are now working on three new buildings, two of which are nearing completion.

Messrs. Jansen and Griffith, who are putting in a machine shop, now have a part of their shop on the ground.

The recent rains have put the roads in excellent shape. On the faces of the many travellers who are now frequenting the new town, is seen the smile that won't come off.

Plans have been made for the immediate erection of a large warehouse at this place. This will cover five of the lots recently secured by the warehousemen from the railroad.

W. P. Myers, president of the Deschutes Valley Land & Investment Company, together with his wife and family, have been guests of the White House Hotel for the past several days.

Jas. Dav's has purchased five acres of land adjoining the townsite, and has moved a house on that part of it bordering the town.

Departing guests of the new hotel express a delight at the excellent service.

We are to have a newspaper within the next few weeks. Arrangements have been made for the shipment of press and materials.

High Grade Wearing Apparel

As the agent for Chas. A. Stevens & Bros., Chicago, I shall be pleased to have you call and see the Beautiful Fashion Plates and samples representing a complete line of high-grade wearing apparel, made to order, at popular prices. I will cheerfully render you all assistance possible. Call before buying elsewhere. Respectfully,
Mrs. J. J. Smith.

Lamonta Locals.

John C. Rush is opening a feed store in his old store buildings.

Six bands of sheep belonging to H. C. Hooper, T. S. Hamilton and Henry Patjohn, all of Antelope, passed through Lamonta Thursday en route home from their summer quarters in the Cascades. They report a good summer in the mountains.

George Hendricks has sold his grain to John Rush and will leave in a couple of weeks for his new home in Pittville, California.

Albert Moore reports a good crop of wheat and oats.

Howard, Brown & Co. are feeding 200 head of beef on C. F. Smith's place.

The Grizzly Lake Lumber company sold their mill to Shipp & Perry of Prineville, and the machinery is being installed on Dry creek. There is a scarcity of lumber in this part of the county.

There were over 100 people at the Gilliam sale at A. W. Boyce's place Saturday. Everything sold at a good price.

W. F. Hammer has returned from Albany to his ranch near Culver.

Hillman Items.

Hillman Mercantile Co. have received their new stock of goods this week and are busy getting them marked up and in stock.

Word was received yesterday at Hillman of the death of the little son of L. E. Garlinghouse. People of this community join with us in extending our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents.

Neison Bros. completed the work on their contract at Trail Crossing and left Camp 5, which camp was moved to Camp 1 last week. The railroad construction in this community is fast nearing completion.

Shumia Club.

The Shumia Club held its first meeting after the summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Pearl Kayler on Saturday, September 29.

A program for the coming year was adopted and ordered printed. Mrs. Walker was elected to fill the vacancy in the membership. The annual election was held with the following result:

Mrs. Ada B. Milligan, president; Miss Catherine V. Conway, vice-president; Mrs. Wilda Belknap, secretary; Mrs. Pearl Kayler, treasurer.

The second meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Minnie Clifton on October 8. Each member answered the roll call by giving their favorite book and the reason for their choice.

Mrs. Wilda Belknap reviewed David Copperfield and Mrs. R. E. Gray gave a brief talk on the influence of Dickens.

Mrs. Ada B. Milligan and Mrs. May Wigle were chosen delegates to the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs which will meet in The Dalles October 25. The Shumia hostesses always serve dainty refreshments.

Hairdressing and Beauty Work.

Mrs. Elmer Clark will do resident work in hairdressing and all Beauty Work until she gets her parlors filled up. Any one desiring her services can reach her by phone at Sheriff Elkins residence. Mrs. Clark is an expert along these lines having completed the Sasse & Parker College of Salt Lake City. She comes with the latest styles and methods of New York. 10-13U

Announcement.

To The Traveling Public: We have just furnished and opened up the White House Hotel at Culver Junction and cordially invite the patronage of those in need of hotel accommodations.

Culver Junction is 55 miles from Shumia and on the best automobile road between Madras and Bend, and being ten miles south of Madras is the most logical and convenient stopping place for the automobile traffic. Strictly home cooking—all white help and everything first class. Try us. We'll serve you a good meal, even if you are a little late or a little early. Mrs. M. H. Foscock, Prop. 10-15-2w Culver Junction, Ore.

"Just Some-One,"—Song.

Sunday and Monday.

"Paul,"—A tragedy. An exceptionally clear and beautiful picture.

"Royal Italian Artillery."

"The Return of Dr. Cook,"—The great Arch Fakir of the twentieth century.

"The Yiddish Cowboy,"—A thrilling Pipe Dream of hairbreadth escapes and bravery.

"Down on the Silvery Mohawk,"—A Song.

Seven Thousand Sheep Sold

J. N. Williamson sold 7000 spring lambs to T. F. McCallister and Alex Davenport the first of the week, consideration $3 per head. The lambs were a cross between the Ramboulet and Cotswold types, and are in good condition. McCallister & Davenport plan to feed the lambs and sell them in the Portland market during the winter months.

Some 1200 tons of alfalfa hay have been bought by these men to use in feeding their stock and several thousand bushels of grain will be used in finishing the product.

500 tons of hay was purchased from Thomas Sharp, 100 tons from Montgomery and a considerable quantity from Hildeout and Christman.

A rotary feed chopper has been bought by McCallister & Davenport and all the hay will be chopped before it is fed. This chopper has a capacity of 10 tons per hour and is a great saving to feeders wherever they have been tried.

Have You a Spare Room?

All persons who have an extra room for rent during fair week are requested to notify Mrs. McElwain at Hotel Prineville. Accommodations are scarce and the Secretary of the Prineville Commercial Club urges upon the people the necessity of taking care of the crowds that will be here during the fair and circuit court. It may be a little inconvenient but place at least one at the disposal of the stranger within our gates.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon.

October 8, 1910. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Glenn Hendrickson, contestant, against homestead entry No. 1468, made May 16, 1900, for SW 1/4 SW 1/4 Section 9, Township 16 S., Range 15 E., Willamette Meridian, by Fred H. Snoderly, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said Fred H. Snoderly has wholly abandoned said tract for more than six months last past; that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear in person, and offer evidence tending to establish their respective claims, on November 21, 1910, before Warren Brown, County Clerk, at his office in Prineville, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on November 28, 1910, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit filed October 7, 1910, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication. 10-15p C. W. MOORE, Register.

OSTERMOOR

YOU CAN WASH THE MATTRESS BEARING THIS LABEL

Soap, water and a brush are all that is needed to keep the outside of an Ostermoor Mattress sweet and clean. The inside never needs attention. Costs nothing for repairs. An occasional "outing" in the sun keeps it fresh and new, because it is built (not stuffed) of elastic, fibrous Ostermoor sheets. It cannot sag, lump nor pack like hair.

Make sure you get the genuine Ostermoor. Note the label put there to protect you against worthless imitations. We sell at factory prices and invite inspection.
