TOYS AND HOLIDAY GOODS

With everything in readiness for the greatest Christmas business in the history of our store, we invite your inspection of our great stock in toys and holiday goods. In announcing this event, we have a two fold purpose--to crowd as much of the holiday business as possible into the next two weeks relieving, as far as possible, the rush of the final shopping days, and incidentally help you economize on your Christmas buying. Let your gifts this Christmas time be things of practical worth and service. A toilet set, no matter how inexpensive, will add to the personal comfort of friends or any member of the family. A visit to our store will reveal more just as attractively priced and just as practical and serviceable. All purchases will be held subject to delivery at your request.

Ladies' and Misses Jersey Ribbed Underwear, American Lady Corsets, Dolls Etc. A fresh line of candies, Bon Bons and sweet things just arrived. Fancy Christmas boxes for your sweetheart, come in and get one today and make her heart feel glad.

High School Notes.

The High School has just closed a month of excellent work.

The interest taken in athletics has not in any instance interfered with class work. Our athletes are at the top of their classes.

Great interest is being manifested in the declamatory contest. The preliminary will be held Friday evening of this week. A large number from each society will compete.

A large number are also looking forward toward taking part in the inter-scholastic debate. There is so much interest manifested in this line of work that a teacher with special training along this line should be added to our faculty.

Lawrence Lister, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is gradually improving.

The typewriters have arrived and are installed. About thirty have enrolled.

The "A" students for the month are: Freshmen, Leland Belknap, Van Brink, Harold Cooke, Lucile Cooke, Merl Ireland, Robert Lister, Arthur Michel, Evelyn Millora, Grace Reams, Carey Stearns, Elmer Thomas, Grace Van Tassel, Norman Wiegand and Alta Wright. Sophomores, Clarence Bixby, Theresa Budy, Georgia Cleek, Mabel Doak, Leola Estew, Berach Livingston, Ray McAllister, Adolphus Myers, Arthur O'Neil, Robert Osborn, Juniors, Wilda Nye, Mamie Bailey, Gladys Doak, Nora Livingston, Roy Lowther. Seniors, Fay Baldwin, Ethel Klann, Blanche Wilson. Special, Clark Morse. The senior class leads with 100 per cent receiving "A".

Hillman Locals.

The wives of the members of the Hillman Commercial Club gave a banquet Thanksgiving evening at the Hotel Hillman. About one hundred guests were present and all had a royal good time. In the early part of the evening a delightful program was rendered to an attentive audience.

The talent displayed here would have been a credit to a town many times as large as Hillman. After the program a beautiful supper was served of roast turkey, fried chicken, salads, pies, cakes and other dainties. W. R. Davidson served as toastmaster and under his direction the gentlemen gave many delightful toasts. Oliver Swanson spoke on "Our Wives" which pleased the ladies immensely. Mr. Winfield spoke on "Hillman of Today," and N. H. Elliott gave "The Future Hillman." The mental picture that Mr. Elliott painted of the future Hillman gave inspiration and encouragement to the many stout hearts that worked and planned and toiled and labored in order that a beautiful city might spring up amidst the sagebrush and juniper. About one o'clock the guests departed to their respective homes, all feeling that they had been royally entertained.

The road by Trail Crossing is again open to travel and the freighters report the new grade to be one of the finest in Central Oregon. Commissioner Bailey, who has charge of the work, surely knows his business and is doing a great deal for the roads in this part of Crook county.

John Pettys has moved back to Hillman, which place he expects to make his home in the future. John realizes that Hillman is the one place in Central Oregon to tie to and wants to be in on the ground floor.

The Ladies' Pioneer Club met last week with Mrs. Bert Nichols west of town.

N. G. Taylor, secretary of the Hillman Townsite Co., returned last week from a business trip to Portland, having purchased the pumping plant for the well in Hillman.

There was about fifty in attendance at the meeting of the Commercial Club last Wednesday night, a great deal of business was attended to and enthusiasm ran high. Surely Hillman has a Commercial Club which will be heard from some of these days.

Hagard Bros. & Tidwell are laying the foundation for their new stone building on the corner of C Ave. and 15th street. This will be a fine building made of rock taken from their quarry just south of town. This rock is white with a yellow spot, and will make a beautiful building when completed. E. A. C.
