Low prices, reasonable terms and first class quality have been the means of rapidly reducing our stock of stoves during the past few weeks. However we still have a good sized stock of Cook Stoves, Heaters and Coal Oil Stoves, which will be sold at prices ranging from $3.00 up to $90. We are in a position to meet the closest competition, both in quality and price. Give us a call.

Have You Heard About Our Bean Guessing Contest?

$10.00, $5.00, and $2.50 in trade will be given as first, second and third prizes to the person or persons on December 17th at 8 p. m., who guesses nearest to the right number of beans in a jar placed on our counter. Every 50c cash purchase entitles a customer to one guess. You may be the lucky one.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. Mary F. Smith of Portland arrived in Prineville last night.
Wallace Williams of Madras, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Williams, accidentally shot himself Sunday while duck hunting on Trout Creek. He was pulling the gun out of the rear end of the wagon when it was accidentally discharged, killing him instantly.
W. L. Fallaway and J. R. McClure, representing the real estate firm of Fred A. Jacobs Co. of Portland, were Prineville visitors Tuesday. They were making a flying trip through this country to get in personal touch with actual conditions. They believe there will be something doing when Spring opens.
The 13th Annual Convention of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Convention will be held at Portland, January 3, 1911, just one day before the opening of the 47th Annual Convention of the National Association. Portland is making elaborate preparations to give the a woolgrowers sumptuous entertainment.
We publish elsewhere the card of Phoenix & Brewster, civil engineers of Redmond. Mr. Phoenix is well-known in Redmond, and the new member of the firm, G. H. Brewster, is a graduate engineer, who has been with the Oregon Trunk line. G. H. is a brother of R. L. Brewster who has been with the county surveyor all summer.

S. C. Caldwell, who headed the "People's Ticket" in the Bend city election Tuesday, was defeated for mayor by Dr. U. S. Coe, the vote being 71 to 82. The councilmen chosen are: Theodore Anne, H. E. Allen, and M. J. Kelly. J. E. Kelly defeated C. A. Chapman for marshal by a vote of 88 to 63. The contest was the hottest one ever held in Bend.
The C. S. & S. Company are carrying the Prineville-Bend mail in an auto. The slippery surface of the roads can better be coped with by auto than by team. With railway connection at Redmond, Prineville should be able to get mail supply every day in the year by auto from that point by way of the straight road across the upland. When this road is completed it will be possible to get mail from and to Redmond from Prineville in one hour almost every day in the year.
The Howard-Brown company sold 108 head of cows to the S. & S. company of Portland the first of the week, which weighed out an average of 1161 pounds. The cattle have been fed at C. F. Smith's ranch for about two weeks. The men have 130 head more which are being fed at this place, which, they figure, will be enough to provide meat for the Oregon Trunk construction camps until the trains reach Metolus. This, they are informed by the railroad people, will be by January 1 unless land slides become too frequent.

Married, in this city, Wednesday evening, Miss Pearl Redding of Polk county, and George F. Hilliard.
John Sizemore, one of the pioneer residents of Crook county, died in Grants Pass a short time ago. His son is in Prineville settling up his father's estate.
Collins Elkins Jr. gave a party yesterday afternoon commemorating his third year. Fourteen young friends were present and the report is that they all had a fine time.
A steam valve blew out at the power house Tuesday evening, and the city was dark for a few minutes until the trouble had been repaired. No damage was done, however.
The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will serve refreshments at the home of Mrs. J. B. Shipp, Tuesday evening, December 13, from 7 to 10. Music. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a rummage sale and handkerchief bazaar at Belknap hall December 17. A light lunch will be served in the afternoon. Oyster supper at 5 o'clock.
Services at the M. E. church next Sunday, December 11: At 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Good singing of Gospel songs at both services and special music at evening service. Subject for morning hour, "Christian Unity." For evening, "The Things That Make Life Worth While." You are invited.

A new city council was chosen in Madras Tuesday. Howard Turner was re-elected mayor without opposition. The councilmen are: T. B. Tucker, S. E. Gray, J. C. Robinson, A. W. Culp, G. V. Stanton and C. E. Roush. J. H. Jackson was elected recorder and D. W. Barnett, treasurer. The tax levy for the coming year was fixed at 5 mills. The ordinance regulating saloons was passed. This ordinance placed the license at $1000 per year payable semi-annually in advance. The third violation of any provision of the ordinance forfeits the license.
W. A. McFarland will leave shortly for Hester, where he will shoe the C. S. & S. Company horses.
Miss Allie Horigan was given a "tin shower" Tuesday evening by the members of the E-A Club.
Dennis Mathews of the local forest service, left the first of the week for Roseburg, where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Roberts are reported much improved this week. They have both been suffering from typhoid fever for some time.
Tom Hoover has completed his home on the north side of Prineville. It is a modern dwelling and a valuable addition to that part of the city.
Elder J. M. Lawson, the associational missionary, occupied the pulpit in the Union church last Sunday. Good attendance greeted the speaker at both services.
Rev. J. G. Hodges, who has been chosen as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, arrived Tuesday to take up his duties here. He will preach next Sunday, both morning and evening.

The janitor at the court house has a kink coming against the owners of loose stock that roam the streets at night. The courthouse lawn is an inviting pasture and here is where the stock break in to feed. The janitor is a mild-mannered man, but if something is not done by the owners to prevent the damage caused by the cows he will take effective means to abate the nuisance.
Rancher Fined $500.
William Jones, a Malheur county rancher found guilty of fencing government range in eastern Oregon, was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and costs by Judge Wolverton in United States court Monday. The costs may amount to several thousand dollars. William Hanley, recently found guilty of a similar offense and given a like punishment, had to pay nearly $4000 in costs.
Horigan-Cram Wedding.
At the residence of the bride's parents, December 7th, Robert H. Cram and Miss Allie Horigan were united in marriage, C. P. Bailey, officiating. Miss Mamie Bailey played the wedding march. The ring ceremony was used. After which the happy couple led the way to a table loaded with good things to eat. The groom is a young man, belonging to one of Crook county's best families. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Horigan. Many useful and valuable presents were given the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Cram left early this morning for their home on Trout Creek. The best wishes of their many friends follow them.

OSTERMOOR

YOU CAN WASH THE MATTRESS BEARING THIS LABEL

Soap, water and a brush are all that is needed to keep the outside of an Ostermoor Mattress sweet and clean. The inside never needs attention. Costs nothing for repairs. An occasional "outing" in the sun keeps it fresh and new, because it is built (not stuffed) of elastic, fibrous Ostermoor sheets. It cannot sag, lump nor pack like hair.

Make sure you get the genuine Ostermoor. Note the label put there to protect you against worthless imitations. We sell at factory prices and invite inspection.
