

"Guernsey"--Something New in Earthenware

We have just received a large assortment of this celebrated RED CLAY Guernsey Ware Enameled Lined. You may Cook and Serve almost any kind of food in the same dish, hence retaining all of the flavor and heat. Fire or heat will not make them black or smutty. Our stock includes a variety of styles in open and covered patterns. Examine the assorted display in our window.

THE W. F. KING COMPANY

LOCAL MENTION

T. L. Quinn has a position in the First National Bank.

Harold Baldwin left for a trip to Portland Saturday.

Mrs. M. A. Parrish of Hay Creek was a county seat visitor Monday.

The revival meetings at the Union Church are to be continued indefinitely.

John McTaggart and wife were in Prineville the last of the week from Madras.

Tom Ferguson returned the last of the week from Texas, where he has been visiting for some time.

Mrs. Oldfield, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Collins Elkins, left Monday for Denver to join her husband.

R. R. Lawrence, an experienced school teacher arrived the first of the week from Olympia, Washington, and will take charge of the upper Mill Creek school.

Will Prose arrived the last of the week from Eugene. He has returned to Prineville to live and will be joined in the spring by Mrs. Prose who is visiting relatives in Dulur, Oregon.

Married--At the home of Joe Lister, January 6, Frank Elkins and Miss Elvah M. Dobbs. Rev. C. P. Bailey performed the ceremony. The best wishes of their many friends accompany them on life's voyage.

Born--Wednesday, January 11, to the wife of H. E. Cross, a son.

A. M. Smith and family, who have been visiting relatives here for some time, left yesterday for Ashland, Oregon. Mr. Smith is a former resident of Iowa.

Miss Caroline Christian, who has been a compositor in the Journal office for some time, left last week for a visit to New York. She was accompanied by her cousin, N. M. Christian, who lives in New York.

The settlers in the Benham Falls segregation, which includes residents in the district south and east of Powell Butte, have petitioned the State Land Board, asking that the project be completed at once.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Biggs returned the last of the week from a trip to Missouri and other eastern states. They report very cold weather, in some places 29 degrees below zero, and are pleased to get back to Crook County.

Manager Doonan of the Pioneer Tel. & Tel. Company completed arrangements for two rural telephone lines in the Powell Butte country Saturday. One will accommodate residents on the north side of the butte and will reach beyond the Powell Butte post-office, while the other will be built on the east and south side, in the Hat Rock neighborhood, and may eventually be extended to Bear Creek butte. Both lines will be built in about a month.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. C. I. Winnek, who has been quite ill for the past week, is getting better.

G. W. Newbill and Roy Chitwood were business visitors Tuesday from Willow creek.

Mrs. Hightower Smith of Bend, is visiting friends and relatives in Prineville this week.

Mrs. Monroe, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Claude Smith, for several weeks, leaves today for her home in Washington.

Dr. Chas. S. Edwards has purchased the 18-foot lot on south Main street, which is occupied by the old Kelly photograph gallery.

The Prineville-Redmond basketball game, which was to have been played Saturday night at Redmond, is called off on account of sickness.

Tillman Reuter and father were in town last Friday making arrangements for an exhibit at the dry-farming congress to be held at Colorado Springs.

Will Nelson of Nelson Bros., railroad contractors, was in Prineville the last of the week looking over the resources of this part of the country. His brother is the man who promoted the Oregon Trunk, and Mr. Nelson intimates that there will be a Hill road into Prineville sometime in the near future.

Mrs. Lewis Wyde gave a delightful surprise party last Friday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Smith, of Iowa, who has been visiting relatives in Prineville. Mrs. Smith leaves this week for her home.

Worship at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening as usual. Subject in the morning, "Parables of the Kingdom." In the evening, "The Call of Abram." Sunday school begins at 10 a. m. and the preaching service at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is given to you to come out. J. G. Hodges, minister.

The Five Hundred Club Entertains

The ladies of the 500 Club entertained their husbands and invited guests at the home of Mrs. C. M. Elkins last Friday evening.

After a delightful evening at cards, Mrs. Elkins, assisted by Mrs. Millhorn, served delicious refreshments. We do not like to overwork "delicious," but no other term could adequately describe the toothsome dainties that were served.

The honors of the evening were won by Mrs. Oscar Hyde and R. E. Gray, who received beautiful pieces of hand-painted china. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Elkins, Mrs. and Mrs. L. Dooner, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Millhorn, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Haner, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hyde; the Misses Baldwin, Conway, Hodges and Parrott; Messrs. Bernier and Bowman.

Special Meeting Of the City Council

There was a special meeting of the city council Monday night for the purpose of considering the report of Engineer Brewster.

Present--Mayor Chas. S. Edwards, Councilmen Lippman, Rosenberg, Winnek, Noble and Yancey, Recorder Brees and Marshal Kelso.

The report of the city engineer on the cost of grading and graveling Third street was read and accepted.

The matter of an ordinance for the regulating of billiard and pool halls and fixing their license, also providing for their closing was referred to the license committee and will be considered at the February meeting.

W. P. Read was present and asked for permission to shoot small rifles for the purpose of regulating sights. This matter was referred to a committee.

Public Installation.

The Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and members of the Prineville Encampment held a joint installation at I. O. O. F. Hall last Thursday evening, at which about a hundred persons were present, almost all of whom were members of some one or more of the three branches of the order.

The installation was followed by a banquet in the I. O. O. F. kitchen on the lower floor of the building. The banquet and decorations was in charge of the Rebekahs. The main hall was beautifully decorated. The ceiling was liberally sprinkled with miniature multi-colored electric lights scattered among the draperies.

The banquet was served on five long tables and covered a wide range of edibles from ice cream to turkey.

The officers installed in the Rebekah lodge were: Mrs. G. P. Reams, N. G.; Mrs. C. L. Shattuck, V. G.; Miss Stella Hodges, P. G.; Mrs. Ray Mackey, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Young, treasurer; Mrs. T. H. Lafollette, chaplain; Mrs. Vira Cyrus, conductor; Mrs. J. H. Crooks, R. S. N. G.; Mrs. Sarah Wright, L. S. N. G.; Mrs. A. S. Ireland, R. S. V. G.; Miss Jessie Elliott, L. S. V. G.; C. L. Shattuck, I. G.; T. H. Lafollette, O. G.

The elective officers of the Encampment were: Tillman Reuter, C. P.; Earl McLaughlin, H. P.; A. S. Ireland, S. W.; G. P. Reams, scribe; C. B. Dinwiddie, treasurer.

Officers installed in the I. O. O. F. lodge were: R. V. Constable, N. G.; Widd Barnes, V. G.; H. L. Hobbs, secretary; C. B. Dinwiddie, treasurer; A. S. Ireland, R. S. N. G.; W. H. Hutton, L. S. N. G.; Chas. Probst, R. S. V. G.; Dan K. Zuck, L. S. V. G.; C. L. Shattuck, Warden; G. P. Reams, conductor; Bert Barnes, I. G.; Albert Noble, O. G.; T. H. Lafollette, R. S. S.; James Allen, L. S. S.

Help.

Wanted--Housework or cooking two mornings a week. D. Fox, City. 12-29-11.

Foster & Hyde Going Out of Business?

NO!!

☞But we are making such low prices on our entire stock of goods that all SO CALLED CLOSING OUT SALES ARE BEATEN TO A FRAZZLE.

☞This is a genuine stock reducing sale for cash as we are heavily stocked and need the CASH--You need the GOODS. Our reputation for fair dealing is a guarantee that this will be a genuine sale. As we do not have space to quote prices, we ask you to come in and see for yourself.

42 Piece Dinner Set Given Away Free!!

☞As an inducement during this sale, we will give each purchaser a beautiful Dinner Set, consisting of 42 pieces for every Cash purchase amounting to $50.00 until 30 sets are gone. Save your cash register coupons.

☞Everything slaughtered for CASH. See our big reduction on LADIES SHOES, SWEATERS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, MEN'S SUITS, SWEATERS, UNDERWEAR, FLANNEL SHIRTS, SHEEP LINED COATS, in fact seasonable goods you need at this time of year. We do not ship in cheap, trashy goods to dupe you with, but this is a reduction on the goods we sell every day in the year--goods you know and are proud to wear and tell your friends they are bought from a reliable tax paying firm.

This Sale Begins Monday, January 9, and Will Close Tuesday, January 31.

Cash! Cash!! Cash!!!

Foster & Hyde