Death of F. J. Lively.

Fletcher Lively, a former merchant of this place and a resident of Prineville for the past seven years, died last night at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, after five days of illness, at the age of 41 years.

Mr. Lively recently purchased the property formerly owned by Ehret Bros. in Redmond, and overhauled the building, intending to put in a stock of general merchandise. He left his home in this city two weeks ago for Portland, where he was buying the goods for the new store. He was to have been back on Wednesday of last week, but did not return and his wife was notified that he was dangerously ill with pneumonia.

A telephone message the first of the week stated that his condition was critical, and Mrs. Lively started for Portland Tuesday morning. Because of the sickness of her baby that was with her she did not get to Shaniko for the train yesterday morning, and will not arrive in Portland until tonight.

Arrangements for the funeral will not be made until her arrival, but it is probable that the body will be taken to Aberdeen, Washington, for burial. Mr. Lively's father and mother reside in Aberdeen.

Mr. Lively came to Prineville as drygoods man for the Wurzwiler & Thompson store about seven years ago, and afterwards married Miss Arnold of Chatanooga, Tenn. They have four little girls. Mrs. Lively's father and sister are residents of this city. Mr. Lively was a member of the local Masonic lodge and was an Elk.

He was a member of the Lively, Jordan, Lanus Company of this city up to 8 months ago.

Ackerman Heads

State Normal.

J. H. Ackerman, who has just completed a service of 12 years as state superintendent of public instruction in this state, has been elected president of the state normal school, which is to be re-established at Monmouth as the result of the adoption of an initiative measure with that end in view November 8. The salary of the president is fixed by the board at $3600 a year.

The friends of the state normal school are congratulating themselves upon the election of Mr. Ackerman as president. Though not a candidate for the position, he had been frequently mentioned in connection with it and his election is quite generally approved. As the institution is likely to be the only one in Oregon for several years it is expected that within a year or two it will be one of the largest of its kind in the northwest. Mr. Ackerman will assume active charge at Monmouth February 1.

Wanted—Housework or cooking two mornings a week. D. Fox, City. 12-29-11.
