LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. H. P. Thompson arrived the first of the week from The Dalles.

County Clerk Brown went to Madras yesterday to attend the celebration.

Mrs. Mattie Taylor returned to her home at Grass Valley the first of the week.

Elder W. S. Cooke will preach at the Lamonia schoolhouse next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Carey W. Foster arrived from Walla Walla yesterday morning. His family will return about April 1.

C. E. Thomas of Portland, an expert cutter and fitter, is associated with B. Gormley, the Tailor. See ad in another column.

Silas Hodges left the first of the week for Shaniko where he will meet Dr. and Mrs. Ketchum who are returning from Portland.

Mrs. C. O. Pollard and little son arrived last week from Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Pollard will make their future home in Prineville.

Charles S. McMeen and Miss Nora Russell were married last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Achen, near Lamonia. Elder Cooke officiated.

John Mattson returned recently from a trip to Idaho. He did not like the looks of the country and concluded that Crook county was good enough for him.

Married—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Vibberts, near Youngs, Wednesday, February 8, Charles Dillon and Miss Clara Vibberts. Elder W. S. Cooke officiating.

There will be a meeting of the Prineville Band at the Commercial Club rooms every Wednesday evening at 7:45 and Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock. All musicians are requested to attend.

C. R. Henry of Paulina came down the last of the week for seed grain. Mr. Henry says that there is every prospect for plenty of moisture in his section this year. Five inches of snow fell Friday night.

The C. S. & S. Company have established regular coach service between Prineville and Madras to connect with all trains. The coach will leave Prineville and Madras every morning at 7 o'clock and will reach its destination about 2 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church will serve dinner in the class room of the church, Friday evening, February 17, from 5 to 8 o'clock. Chicken and other good things too numerous to mention are listed on the advance sheets of the bill of fare.

Religious services will be conducted in the Presbyterian church next Sunday, February 19, both morning and evening. Interesting and helpful subjects will be treated and good singing will be given at each service. You are cordially invited to come out. J. G. Hodges, minister.

LOCAL MENTION

J. A. Weston was sworn in Monday as special police officer by Judge Kennedy.

Mrs. Ashby and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ketchum are expected in from Shaniko today.

Seth Dixon, of Dixon Bros., the cattlemen, came down for supplies the first of the week.

Jarvis Jones, an old-timer in Prineville, who has been away for a couple of years, has returned to his old haunts. He spent most of his time while away in Great Falls, Mont.

The Ladies Annex will give a 500 party next Monday evening, February 20, in the parlors of the Commercial Club. All members are requested to be on hand at 8 o'clock sharp.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a free social on the evening of February 22. An invitation is extended to the members of other churches to be present and enjoy a social evening. Owing to small quarters the invitation is extended to persons over 15 years of age.

A vault has been constructed for the county treasurer's office at the courthouse. Six feet was cut off from the west end of the recorder's vault and a steel door swung opening into the treasurer's office. Treasurer Ralph Jordan will move into the new office this afternoon.

You are invited to hear the sermons and listen to the music at the Methodist Church next Sunday, morning and evening. Morning subject, "Christian Fortifications," evening, "The Power of the Gospel." We extend a cordial invitation to those having no other church home to worship with us. Jno. M. Huggins, pastor.

The incoming mail stage on the C. S. & S. Company line came near being destroyed by fire Monday night. About five miles out of Shaniko the interior of the coach suddenly was a mass of flames, and but for the presence of mind of Driver James Toney, the stage and all the mail would have been consumed. The flames were extinguished by throwing snow onto the mail pouches. Many of the mailbags were damaged and some of the paper mail was destroyed. The fire is supposed to have started from a footwarmer.

D. F. Stewart and T. M. Baldwin returned Sunday from their Portland trip. While they are not giving out much for publication regarding a railroad to Prineville they feel much encouraged and are hopeful of steel connection with the outside world before very long. "We are bound to get a railroad," said Mr. Baldwin and "if we can't get it one way, then will try another plan. We did not meet Mr. O'Brien, as he was out of the city at the time of our visit, but we were assured of every consideration when the time came to build in this direction."

LOCAL MENTION

The 500 Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Foster last Friday evening. Mrs. Doonar and Barney Millorn carried off the honors.
