

Satisfied Customers is Our Motto.

WE CARRY

Pumps and Pipes
Diamond W Goods
Stoves and Ranges
Doors and Windows
Tin and Graniteware
Blacksmithing Supplies
Tents and Wagon Covers

Tinning, Hardware, Plumbing, Groceries,
Implements.

AGENTS FOR

Fairbanks-Morse Gas Engines
Aermotor Windmills
Studebaker Vehicles
Lowe Brothers Paints
Superior Grain Drills
Sharpless Cream Separators
Quick Meal Ranges

THE W. F. KING COMPANY

LOCAL MENTION

G. M. Stocum of Redmond was a business visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Logan sold her home the first of the week to Elmer Clark.

G. F. Beckman of Powell Butte was a business visitor the last of the week.

G. M. Cornett brought in a five-passenger Chalmers the first of the week.

A. G. Ellefson has moved his candy store to the south room in the E. H. Smith building.

Champ Smith and family left Tuesday for Portland. Mrs. Smith may spend the summer there.

Robert Carey, who has been with the W. F. King Co. for some time, will enter the real estate business.

George E. Nelson and Scott Gordon of Metolius, were in Prineville yesterday in the interests of the Prineville-Metolius railway.

Miss Pearl Cottengui left for her home in London, Ky., yesterday. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. P. Reams in Prineville, for the past two months.

The W. F. King Co. have installed a model heating plant in their office. The American radiator is the system used. The coils are heated in the large stove in the store.

Dr. H. P. Belknap bought a Hudson five-passenger touring car from the local agent yesterday. L. Doonar purchased the two-passenger Hudson from the doctor.

The C. S. & S. company submitted a bid the first of the week for the supply of Prineville postoffice by automobiles from Metolius. The service will be installed at an early date, if the bid is accepted.

March 1st was proclaimed Colonist Day by Governor West, when all good citizens are implored to write a letter to some person in an Eastern state and urge them to come to God's country and enjoy life.

Services in the Presbyterian church Sunday, March 5th, both morning and evening. Subject in the morning, "The Fatherhood of God," and in the evening, "Weighed in the Balance." A cordial invitation is given you to come out.

Dr. Calvin S. White, state health officer, was the guest of honor Saturday night at a banquet given by the Crook County Medical Society. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. White, who spoke at length on the prevention of typhoid and other matters of interest. Dr. Coe of Bend was present besides all the local medicals. Dr. White is making an inspection of this part of the state looking over sanitary conditions.

Mrs. Sam Collins is critically ill at her home north of Prineville.

Sam Newsom Jr., arrived today from Portland with his Chalmers car. He will carry passengers from Prineville to the railroad this summer.

The Crook County High School students will give the "Merchant of Venice up-to-date," Friday evening, March 10, at Club Hall. This is something new and you should hear it.

Mrs. Alice Davis died of pneumonia the last of last week at the home of her father, Tom Hoover, in this city. She was buried Tuesday. She leaves a husband and seven children, besides her father, brothers and sisters. She was 27 years of age.

G. W. Wells of Burbank, Wash., was in Prineville this week looking over investments. He bought a 40-acre irrigated tract in the Powell Butte district. Mr. Wells bought raw irrigated land at Burbank three years ago for $175 an acre and believes the land over here to be just as good.

The Cove Power Co. has commenced operations on its power site at Boegli's place. The company has not yet received permission from the government to build but no opposition is expected from that source so work has commenced. It will not be pushed until the railroad can deliver needed supplies.

Mrs. Amanda J. Powell died at her home in this city last Monday. She has suffered paralytic troubles for the past six years. Burial services were held Tuesday afternoon. She was 61 years of age. She leaves three sons and a daughter, John Ritter, F. A. and R. M. Powell and Mrs. Putnam. Her husband, T. J. Powell, died April 21, 1905.

We have received a letter from the Seattle Commercial Club requesting us to make an appeal for the famine sufferers of China. Nearly 2,000,000 people are starving and will need aid for many months. Those familiar with the situation state that $2 contributed at this time will save the life of some man, woman or child. Remittances should be sent to the Seattle Commercial Club.

Seven cases, wherein Crook county people are charged with fraudulent entries, are being tried this week at Attorneys W. F. Staley and G. A. Benedict of the General Land Office. The defendants are William and S. E. Loftin, F. T. and W. H. Donk, K. Lee Arwine, Lee Wood and T. H. Coffeen. The suits are civil actions for the cancellation of the patents on timber and stone entries. The cases are being tried before T. E. J. Duffy, and will be passed on by the Interior department. Vernon A. Forbes of Bend is defending the cases.

LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. G. W. Slayton is quite ill with pneumonia.

Chas. Lott of Lamonta was in Prineville yesterday.

M. J. Lemons of Life was in Prineville the last of the week.

Jesse Windom was a business visitor from Culver yesterday.

J. B. Shipp sold his home to Mrs. J. H. Prose the first of the week.

H. R. McClay was in Prineville from Hillman the first of the week.

T. H. Brennan was a business visitor from Paulina the first of the week.

Mrs. Edith O'Kelley and Claude Barney were married in this city yesterday, Rev. Bailey officiating.

The English-American Authors' Club gave a reception to friends at the high school Saturday evening of last week.

Last Monday night was the coldest this winter, according to the government records kept by Mr. White. It was 4 above zero.

Robert Moore has been on the sick list for a week or ten days. He was able to be out today for the first time since he was taken down.

Ralph L. Jordan & Co. are tearing out petitions to enlarge their grocery department. Increasing business demands more shelf room to handle it.

The 500 Club met at Mrs. John Combs' last Friday afternoon. Miss Dolly Hodges won the prize plate. The Club will meet at Mrs. E. L. Ashby's March 10.

There will be a meeting of the Crook county sub-district Epworth League in Prineville April 8 and 9. Delegates will be present from all parts of the county.

A committee from the Prineville Commercial Club and members of the county court will inspect the proposed Prineville-Burns wagon road about March 20.

A letter from the Millikan ranch to the Journal says that there are lots of people in that part of the county filling on land and building improvements on land already filed. Millikan is the name of the new postoffice which has been petitioned for. It will be about a mile from the Millikan ranch.

J. A. Dobkins of Lamonta, was a county seat visitor today. Mr. Dobkins is getting his farm machinery in order for spring work. He uses machinery for everything. He has a big steam plow that enables him to do his own work with such dispatch that he takes contracts to plow for his neighbors. He burns straw for fuel. He can plow much cheaper than horses can do the work.

W. A. Booth is quite sick. Johnny Cork of Bend died of quick consumption at Poindexter's Hospital this morning. He was in the last stages when brought here four days ago.

Miss Rosa B. Parrott, assisted by members of the Shumla Club, held an "At Home" in the High School Annex last Saturday from 2 to 4 o'clock. There was a large attendance.

Services at Methodist church next Sunday morning and evening as usual. Ernest Kenyon of Portland will be present at those services and lead the singing. Special revival services will begin Tuesday evening. Subject of sermon for evening service, "A Vision of Duty." You are invited to attend.

Culver Junction News.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Waugh are the most recent newcomers to locate and both are highly pleased with the outlook.

Messrs Stewart and Rice of Prineville were at the Cove Orchard making the survey for the Cove Power plant.

The survey for the pipe line from Opal Springs to Culver Junction has been completed and soon this place will have a city water system that will be second to none. Menntine the deep well furnish water to all. The pump is expected for the well at any time.

At a mass meeting of the farmers and business men here it was determined to erect a warehouse and the name of the company will be the Culver Warehouse Company. Work on the building will be begun right away.

The bachelors of Culver Junction entertained the bachelor girls at a dinner on last Monday evening, the dinner being prepared by the gents. Turkey and other good things were served and a number of after-dinner talks were made. All very much enjoyed the dinner and voted that the bachelors, both boys and girls, need not remain bachelors longer if they would only get enough courage to propose. The dinner was given in the building which will soon be occupied by the Deschutes Valley Tribune, machinery and equipment for which is on the way from Portland. Messrs Young & Chandler will be editors and publishers.

A celebration consisting of a fish barbecue, old settlers reunion and railroad day will be held in Culver Junction upon the arrival of the rails of the Deschutes Railroad here. It will be held under the auspices of the Culver Junction Development League. All are invited and especially the old settlers of the Central Oregon country.

Stage Driver

Breaks Leg.

Elbert Allen was thrown from the driver's seat on the incoming mail stage Monday morning on McKay mountain and fractured his right leg just above the knee. The roughlock failed to hold the heavy coach and it crowded onto the team until a rapid speed was gained. The front wheel's dropped into a ditch which ran across the road and the driver was thrown to the frozen ground. He held to the lines and was drawn beneath the wheels. One wheel passed across the right leg just above the knee.

He stopped the team and pulled himself onto the seat, and drove to the Roy Stewart place from which place a doctor was called. He was taken to the Poindexter Hospital for treatment.

Prineville Too Strong for Bend

Prineville exchanged basket ball games with Bend last Friday and Saturday. In the first game the low ceiling bothered Prineville and it was hard work to run up a score of 42-17.

Saturday evening Prineville started off with a rush and the first half ended 33 to 3. Shortly after the second half started Referee Overturf ruled Prineville's center out of the game for alleged roughing. This decision was without precedent and entirely unfair. Prineville had no substitute so left the floor with the score standing 45 to 10 in their favor.

Spring and Summer Samples. The new Spring and Summer Fashion Book of Chas. A. Stevens & Bro., just received. The latest in Women's and Misses' made to order garments. A complete line of beautiful samples. Mrs. J. J. Smith, agent, Prineville, Oregon. 3-2-tf.

White Wyandotts. Several White Wyandott Cockerels for sale. R. V. CONSTABLE, Prineville, Oregon. 3-2-tf.

Fur Lost. Black lynx neckpiece lost between Jesse Windom's and Prineville. Leave at Journal office and receive reward. 3-2.

Grand Ball

St. Patrick's Day

March 17th, 1911

—AT—

CLUB HALL

LUCKEY'S ORCHESTRA.

"Merchant of Venice,"

Up-to-date

FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 10

The High School Play.

At the Club Hall

Something New

Come and Laugh

We Handle Both

D. M. Ferry's and Lilley's
Garden Seeds

Fresh Stock---No Old Seeds.

Garden Seeds

Planet Jr. Garden Cultivators

If you raise even a very small patch of garden, you need one of these seeders.

THESE GOODS NOW IN STOCK.

ONION SETS

We have just received a big supply of the best bottom sets,

Price 15c per pound.

J. E. Stewart & Company.