Wonderful.
It was in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. The little man with the hunted look on his face was standing before the mummy of an Egyptian princess. "Isn't it wonderful," he sighed, "to think that any one could make a woman dry up and stay that way?" And silently wiping away a tear he hurried out and caught a car, for it was only twenty minutes to dinner time.—Boston Post.
British Red Tape.
To charge Charles Cross in a telegram as two words and allow St. Pancras to go as one word is an absurdity which only the English postoffice would be guilty of. When an explanation was asked in this case an official gravely stated that St. Pancras was charged as one word because honor was due to a saint! Great is red tape, and highly amusing are those that are bound in it!—Pearson's Weekly.
Difficult Request.
"Who was it that just called up over the phone?" demanded the wealthy manufacturer.
"That young chap at the country club," responded the junior partner.
"What did he want?"
"Why—er—it seems he's a little bashful. He asked for your daughter's hand over the wire."
"He did, eh? Well, the next time he calls up tell him if he will direct me how to send a hand over the wire I will try to accommodate him."—Chicago News.

Eighth Graders Pass Fine Exams

The Prineville Public schools this year graduated the best class in its history. It was not the largest in point of numbers, but the class average was the highest. The class of 1910 was said to be one of the strongest to enter the Crook County High but the 1911's set out with the determination to beat it and did so. The class made a general average of 91.2-33 per cent. This is excellent work and reflects much credit upon Principal Myers, who is an earnest worker for his boys and girls. The entire class expect to enter the high school next September. Their names are as follows:
Helen Elkins, Norris Bixby, Mabel Slayton, Mary Jones, Mildred Slayton, Paul Cooke, Pete Harris, Elma Noble, Harry Farnsworth, Hobart Belknap, Harry Starns.
The sixth grade pupils finished their work in physiology and took the examination with the eighth grade. All made an average above 90, with one exception. The names of the sixth grade are as follows.
Sylvian Michel, Helen Spring, Isabel Ireland, Orval Dillon, Ruth Adamson, Hazel Harris, Eula Wright, Alma Lippman, Martha Horgan, Violet Lister, Oza Myers.
