

Real Economy In Wagon Buying

There is more real economy in buying a Studebaker farm wagon than in paying a lower price for some cheaper make. A Studebaker will give you

Real Service

It is built to last, and does last, as thousands upon thousands of farmers will testify.

are always dependable—honest in material—honest in make.

That is why the farmers of the world have made the Studebaker factory the largest vehicle factory in the world. It will pay you to visit our store and look over our line of

Studebaker Vehicles

When buying Groceries, Hardware or Implements, I have always found Kings a pretty good place to trade. They have a large stock of first class goods, which are sold at a reasonable profit, and whenever anything bought at their store, does prove defective, are more than anxious to make it right. They don't sell tomatoes for 8 cts. a can and then crowd the price up on something else. If you are not now trading with The W. F. King Co., I suggest that you give them a trial.

The above is the universal opinion of our customers. Are you one of them.

The W. F. King Company.

Quality Supreme

Every ounce of material that goes into a Studebaker wagon or buggy has the Studebaker Reputation behind it.

Nearly sixty years' experience has taught us how to make vehicles that last. Every axle—every spoke—every hub—every tire—every bolt is made just right.

The result: The finest wagons possible to produce and the largest vehicle factory in the world.

The absolute reliability of the Studebaker line appeals to all careful buyers—those who appreciate honest value.

Harry Ellis, while working at the stone quarry west of town, lost three fingers by the breaking of a derrick. Dr. Rosenberg attended the injured man. If no complications set in the rest of the hand may be saved.

John Combs says the circus people are all right. He looked at his watch during the performance and instead of putting it back into his pocket let it fall to the ground. He did not miss it until getting into a car to come home after the show. It was as good as lost, but John concluded to appeal to the manager of the circus for help to find it. The manager was found and the loss made known to him. Mr. Combs was informed that if it fell into the hands of any of the show people it would be returned to him. The circus people were called up and the lost watch announced. In a jiffy John had his timepiece. The watch was a valuable one, costing when new $250. Put this down to the credit side of the circus. Here is one that makes a business of protecting its patrons from loss—accidental or from pickpockets.

A Good Word for Burns.

Mr. Stinson, who accompanied the Hill railroad party to Burns last week, reported a fine trip and quick time. The party left Prineville Wednesday morning and made the run to Bill Hanley's place in Harney county the same day, distance of 150 or 160 miles. The people of Burns gave the party an enthusiastic welcome. The streets and buildings were decorated with gay colors and the band boys and school children completed a welcome that made the visitors feel that it was good to be there. There was speech making and general felicitations all round. Luncheon was served with real western hospitality and it is safe to say that if the president of the Hill roads can do anything for the Harney metropolis it will be theirs for the asking. The party returned to Prineville Friday evening and the railroad men left for a visit to west side towns the following day.

Calico Ball by Ladies' Annex

The Ladies' Annex will give a calico ball May 28.

At the last meeting the ladies decided to take this method of raising funds to furnish their new rooms at the Commercial Club. The furniture will be on the mission style, upholstered in brown leather.

Besides giving the dance, the ladies will furnish refreshments. They will take charge of the floor and see that you have a good time. A six-piece orchestra will furnish the music. The usual price for tickets. Buy one and help along a good cause.

The Waiter.
A distinguished member of the illustrious profession of waiters has declared that to be successful in his calling a waiter must have:
The patience of Job.
The wisdom of Solomon.
The wit of a diplomat.
The skill of an artist.
The bearing of a prince.
To which perhaps should be added "and the soul of a waiter," for, like the poet and despite all protests to the contrary, the waiter is born, not made.—Argonaut.

Bismarck's Comment.
In the early days of the present German empire the question as to how the kaiser's title should run divided the court into three sections. One division favored "German emperor," the second was for "emperor of Germany," while the third wished it to be "emperor of the Germans." Bismarck, who was present at one such discussion, looked up from a meal. "What's the Latin for sausage?" he asked. "Farciuntum," said one. "Farciuntum," said another. Bismarck smiled as he replied, "Farciuntum or farciuntum, it is all the same to me."
