LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. George Storkman left Monday for Portland.

Mrs. F. A. Rice and son left this morning for Portland.

Mrs. McDowell left yesterday to attend the rose carnival.

J. W. Carlson left Tuesday for Portland to meet his wife, who has been visiting in the valley.

Miss Lillian Holzman is taking in the rose carnival. She will visit her parents at Canby, Oregon, before returning.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left this morning to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge at Portland. Both are grand lodge officers. They will make the trip by auto and then use the car to visit Willamette valley points. They expect to be away two weeks.

Volume 1, No. 1, of the Redmond Daily Spokesman has reached our exchange table. It is a neat, well-printed, 6-column quarto, filled with local and general news. We hope the venture will prove as remunerative as it deserves. Its a good advertisement for Redmond.

George Elkins, a crazy man, was brought in from Madras Tuesday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff John McTaggart and C. H. Jackson. Elkins has been working with a steel gang on the railroad for quite a while. His actions led the officers to take him in custody and have him examined as to his sanity.

The substance of an opinion handed down by the attorney general the other day says that the children of the state of Oregon are compelled to attend school when they are between the ages of 8 and 15 years. The time of the compulsory attendance starts on their 8th birthday and ends on their 15th.

Articles of incorporation of Imperial Township Co. of Crook county were filed with County Clerk Brown June 5. The principal place of business is Portland, Oregon. Capital stock, $10,000. The incorporators are Sherman Montgomery, LeRoy Hadley, J. E. Alexander, B. S. Miller and E. L. Hamilton.

Emery Seales came over from Lane county Wednesday, to look after his business interests in Crook county. Mr. Seales left Lamonta two years ago and settled on a ranch near Blachly, Lane county. He likes his new home and thinks the change of climate has been a great benefit to his family. He will be here a week.

Prineville and Redmond had a good game of ball last Sunday on the high school grounds. Redmond maintained the lead up to the sixth inning when Prineville took it. The first of the ninth Redmond scored a man, making a tie, but when Prineville took her turn at the bat two tallies were added to her score, making it read—Prineville 8, Redmond 6.

Ralph R. Wheaton, the contractor, has started a brickyard east of town on Oliver Powell's land. A good quality of clay has been found and Mr. Wheaton will make the brick he needs for the new school building. He will also have a portable planer that will be used in connection with his building operations. His auto truck arrived last Thursday and will be used between Prineville and railroad points.

C. B. Dinwiddie returned from Portland Saturday evening where Mrs. Dinwiddie underwent a double operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital. He reports Mrs. Dinwiddie doing as well as could possibly be expected. She is with her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Lister. Mr. Dinwiddie says that M. R. Biggs is doing well after his operation and states that Mr. Biggs is expected to get away from the hospital some time this week, but would not be able to come home for some time. Mr. Quinn is steadily improving from his operation for appendicitis.

LOCAL MENTION

The ladies of the Baptist church will serve dinner to the public on the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Ida Prose has moved into the Shipp house, which she purchased several months ago.

Mrs. Edwards and children left Friday for San Francisco to visit her aunt, Mrs. Joseph King.

Mrs. Jennie King, Mrs. C. M. Elkins and Mrs. John Combs left for Portland this morning to attend the rose carnival.

Miss Evelyn Millhorn left today for San Francisco, where she will study music during the summer. She will stay with Miss Nellie Elkins.

The W. C. T. U. met Saturday and outlined an active campaign to be taken up this fall. They will hold regular meetings during the summer.

Miss Edythe Rideout left this morning for Presque Isle, Maine, to visit her parents. She will return in time for her school work in September.

Henry Whitsett, recently returned from Northern California, where he has purchased property, will move his family from Bend to California in the near future.

Preaching next Sunday at the Union church. Morning subject, "Evidences of Christianity." Evening subject, "The Social Evil, its Causes and Cure." Geo. M. Wyatt.

Men and teams are at work on the grandstand and bleachers for the new athletic grounds of the Prineville Commercial club. The grounds are being leveled and put in first class shape for baseball.

The Artisans elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Master Artisan, Gardner Perry; superintendent, Albert Noble; inspector, Mrs. Dodderidge; secretary, Mrs. Belknap; treasurer, J. W. Horigan.

C. A. Gilchrist and wife of Barnes passed through Prineville Tuesday on their way home from a three-weeks' visit to Portland. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Johnstone, who will spend the summer in this country.

Mrs. Belknap, accompanied by her sons, Hobart and Leland, left this morning for Portland, where they will be met by her eldest son, Horace, who has just completed his first year's work at the U. of O. After enjoying the rose carnival, Mrs. Belknap will attend the International Sunday School Convention in San Francisco from the 20th to the 27th. She will later visit friends and relatives in southern California.

The tercentenary of the King James English Bible, known as the "Authorized Version," will be celebrated at the Methodist church next Sunday evening, with an address by the pastor on "The Romance of the English Bible." Few people realize how the English Bible is bound up with the history of the English nation and the English tongue. You are invited to hear this address. The pastor will have for his morning theme, "The Apostle of the Foundation Stone." Splendid special music has been provided for these services. Jno. M. Huggins, pastor.

Omar J. Wilson, of Prineville, has purchased the old Taylor sawmill 18 miles east of Paulina, and will take possession immediately after the arrival here of some repair parts of certain machinery, which will probably be in about ten days. Mr. Wilson is an expert sawmill man as well as carpenter, and will do well in his new location. Posters will soon be out announcing the transfer of the business, which is of considerable importance to local trade. There is much building going on in the eastern part of Crook county, and Mr. Wilson plans to contract as well as furnish lumber already framed to erect by the homesteaders themselves.
