

LOCAL MENTION

Charles Duncan sustained a painful injury to an eye Saturday by the explosion of a shell in a 22 rifle. The breech of the rifle being somewhat loose and worn, the rear of the shell gave way and the escaping gas and flying bits of metal came near destroying his sight. He is about recovered at this writing.

A combination of plunging bull and broken bridle rein resulted in the painful laceration of his left hand, near Post, Tuesday, and Marlon Taylor is in town having the injured member treated by Doctor Edwards. Mr. Taylor lost control of his horse when the rein parted, and his hand, entangled in the coils of the lariat which held the bull, was crushed against the saddle horn.
