

HAY

We handle McCormick mowers and rakes. If you need a new haying machine, you can do no better than get a McCormick. McCormick mowers are light running; they are durable, and they are built in various sizes to meet the most varied requirements—3½, 4½, 5, 6 and 7-foot cut. McCormick rakes are made in various widths in either hand or self dump styles. If you are undecided as to what machine you want, call and let us explain the many meritorious features found in the McCormick mower and rake construction. Learn why McCormick mowers and rakes are money savers. If you are not ready to buy, call anyway and get a catalogue. It's filled with valuable information, and it will explain exactly why McCormick rakes and mowers excel.

J. H. Delore is back from Wasco county. He bought a place four miles from The Dalles, but got a chance to sell it and did so. Crook county suits him better so he has come back to stay.

The Sunday School meeting to be held at Rev. Wyatt's homestead on the Sunday following the Fourth has been postponed on account of the busy season. The date will be announced later.

Otto Borrenson has a big turkey gobbler that wants to set. Not only wants to, but is doing business right along. He covers the eggs, just like an old hen, gets off for food and then goes right back to his job. His hatch will be out in a day or two.

C. J. Sundquest, who has a dry ranch on Lower Rye Grass, says that his crops look fine. The late rains saved them. He has sweet potatoes, beans, corn, oats, wheat, rye and the best potatoes he ever saw. They will be ready for the table in a few weeks. The season is about two weeks late.

"The Conflict of the Ages" will be the subject of sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Young people's devotion meeting at 7 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the pastor will speak on "Our Connectional Interests." You are invited to attend these services.

Frank Smith narrowly escaped a serious accident Monday. He was driving down Main street when the tugs of one of the horses became unhitched, letting down the tongue. This frightened the team and they started to run. Mr. Smith was thrown out on his head and knocked unconscious. He was not badly hurt.

James W. Lawler, with his brothers and mother, is back again to Crook county. The family left here eight months ago for Surprise valley, California, where they purchased a large ranch. They didn't like it there, mainly because it was not a stock country. The brothers are looking for a good stock ranch in Crook county. The family will remain in Prineville a few days and then go to Haycreek.

Judge Ellis has received word that work on the McKenzie wagon road on the Lane county side will be pushed this summer. In the agreement with Crook county the work should have been done last year but factional strife in the west side county prevented it. This has been overcome and a good auto road made that will connect Crook and Lane counties. Crook county has built a good road to the Lane county line.
