

Car Load Superior Drills, Plows, Harrows

and Pulverizers will arrive the latter part of this week.

The W. F. King Company.

LOCAL MENTION

Charles Lott of Lamonta was in town last Monday.

The public schools of Prineville will open Monday, October 2nd.

Wm. Treichel of Paulina was a Prineville visitor Saturday.

Ed Slayton has just received his new piano of the Ludwig make.

Marshal Weston had the bridge across the Ochoco repaired last week.

J. Frank Stroud of Portland was in Prineville two or three days this week.

T. F. McAllister, who was threatened with an attack of typhoid, is out again.

John Hopper and family were in town Monday from the homestead at Powell Butte.

Newt Poindexter, who has been sick for the past month, is able to be on the streets again.

Horace Belknap leaves Friday morning for Portland where he will enter the medical college.

Walter O'Neil of Madras, was in Prineville a couple of days during the week visiting with his family.

Miss Irene Barnes began a term of school in the Slayton district last Monday.

Mrs. A. M. Jolly returned to Prineville Friday after spending several weeks at her son's place near Crescent.

Frank Elkins, who is superintending the grading of a lane at Summit Prairie, spent Sunday with his family in Prineville.

Oliver Powell extends a cordial invitation to all lovers of music to meet him at the Union Church Wednesday evening at 7:30.

H. F. Mitchell realized good values from his auction sale held last Friday at the Pitcher place. Every article advertised was sold.

Miss Nellie Summers left this morning for Portland where she will resume her studies in music, under the direction of Miss Valli Whitney White of Boston.

Rev. Bailey requests the subscribers to the Baptist church building to pay their subscriptions at their earliest convenience. Pay to either bank, subject to the Baptist building committee. D. F. Stewart, treasurer.

Mrs. Evelyn Lane Walker, who had charge of the training department in the Crook county high school last year, has resigned because of the severe illness of her sister. The students and other friends of Mrs. Walker regret that she is not to be with them this year.

Warren Brown, County Clerk, left Wednesday to attend the Pendleton "Round Up." After spending three days at Pendleton he expects to go to Hot Lake, Union county, for a two week's vacation. Mr. Brown states that he has been in the office for more than five years and this is the first time he has been away. He expects to return about October first.

C. S. Congleton, forest ranger in the Paulina district was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Elder Gregg will preach at Newsome creek next Sunday at 11 a. m. and again in the evening.

Married—In this city, Clarence L. Branton and Nellie Barnes, Rev. C. P. Bailey officiating.

Henry Frohnhof of Grizzly was in Prineville Monday, making application to make final proof on his homestead.

R. L. Brewster, city engineer, left last Friday for his old home in Chicago. He expects to be gone about three weeks.

Miss Edna Morse of Prineville has been elected principal of the Metolius schools and began her work there last Monday.

Mrs. Elmer E. Spalding will leave Friday morning for several weeks visit to Vancouver, B. C., Portland, and other Willamette valley points.

Married—At the residence of the bride's parents on West Branch, Wheeler county, September 5, Geo. C. Black and Bertha Specht, Rev. C. P. Bailey officiating.

Robert W. Bland of Grizzly made final proof on his homestead last Saturday before the County Clerk. Antone Fogle and Chas. McKenzie were his witnesses.

The ladies' "500" club held their first meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Foster. Mrs. E. L. Ashby won the prize, which was a beautiful hand-painted plate.

Andrew Noble and family returned last week from a trip to the valley. They went down the Santiam but because of the forest fires were forced to return by way of the McKenzie.

Mrs. Eliza Scott and A. E. Scott of Auburn, Washington, arrived Wednesday. Mrs. Scott will make her home with her son, L. L. Scott and A. E. Scott will look after his land interests here.

Addie Foster fell and sustained a severe fracture of his leg last Monday. There were three breaks between the knee and ankle. Dr. J. H. Rosenberg was called to attend him, and while it was a bad break, Dr. Rosenberg reports that he is doing well.

John E. Williams of Clarkston, Washington, who was recently appointed pastor of the Prineville Methodist church, has written Dr. Fox that he will be unable to reach Prineville before Sept. 24. He asked Dr. Fox to take charge of the morning and evening services on Sunday, Sept. 17. Dr. Fox has kindly consented to conduct these services.

Mr. George Millican visited the Journal office this week and showed us a very fine specimen of free gold bearing quartz. This sample was sent Mr. Millican by his son, G. Walter Millican who has a mining claim on the middle fork of Applegate. If this specimen is a fair sample of the mine, G. Walter Millican will soon be a millionaire.

LOCAL MENTION

W. F. Magee was up Monday from Oneil.

A. R. Bowman left this morning for Portland.

Miss Hattie Houston of Roberts was in town Wednesday.

Harold Baldwin left for Portland Wednesday morning.

Dr. Clark went to Madras last Monday for a few days' work.

C. Bean, Frank B. Clark and Mrs. A. J. Clark left for Portland Monday.

Wm. Cochorn and family of Brownsville are visiting friends in Prineville.

Walter O'Neil was up from Madras the first of the week, on business.

Wilford Belknap leaves next Tuesday to enter the Oregon Agricultural College.

Miss Agnes Elliott left today to resume her studies at the U. of O. Her mother will accompany her to Portland.

Mrs. Jennie U'Ren, who formerly lived in Prineville, was recently married to Mr. Murphy, a business man of Eugene.

The commercial club of Pendleton wish it understood that they have ample accommodations for all who wish to attend the Round-Up.

Dr. H. P. Belknap has been appointed county physician by the county court for the next two years.

Newt Poindexter left Tuesday morning for Portland, where he expects to drive a taxi during the coming winter.

Claude Wright, who has been suffering from typhoid for some time, is reported as past all chance of recovery.

Union church services: 10 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., preaching; 6:30 p. m., C. E. society, leader, Mrs. Belknap; 7:30 p. m., preaching by the pastor. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

J. W. McGonagill, one of Crook county's pioneers, was committed to the asylum on Monday. The old gentleman has been ailing for some time, and George Ramsey has been taking care of him. McGonagill is being held here pending instructions from a son who lives at Ontario, Oregon.

George Scott was ridden down by a man named Hendricks, the latter being on horseback, Monday evening. The horse managed to step on Scott's right ear and almost severed that member from his head. Hendricks was hailed before Mayor Edwards (in the absence of Recorder Breese) Tuesday morning, pleaded guilty and was assessed $5 and costs. Both men had been drinking.

LOCAL MENTION

J. W. Boone spent Sunday with his family in Prineville.

T. E. J. Duffy went to Bend last Friday and returned Monday.

C. H. Foster of Powell Butte, was a Prineville visitor last Monday.

G. W. Kidder of Oregon City has been spending a few days in Prineville, visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Earl McLaughlin.

Grant B. Frier who has been spending the summer with his aunt, Mrs. F. A. Rice, will leave Friday morning for Seattle where he will re-enter the university.

The Shumia Literary Club will hold its first business meeting next Saturday, Sept. 16, at the home of Mrs. C. I. Winnek. A mistake was made in the date in last week's paper.

A band of horses recently sold by Mr. George Millican to some horse buyers passed through Prineville Monday evening on their way to The Dalles. They are to be shipped to British Columbia.

Mrs. Wood of Davisburg, Michigan, has been employed to take charge of the Normal Department in the Crook County High School. Mrs. Wood is expected to reach Prineville the last of this week.

Crook County Journal, county official paper. $1.50 a year.

Rev. Huggins who served the Methodist church of Prineville last year, was sent by the last conference to Moran, Washington. Mr. Huggins' congregation and many friends regret that he is not going to return to them. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Huggins join in wishing them a pleasant and prosperous year.

Rev. J. D. Lewellen's many friends in Prineville will be interested in the following item from The Dalles Chronicle. "The Rev. J. D. Lewellen, who has been the minister here for the past year, goes to Sunnyside, Wash., which is one of the best charges in the conference. Rev. Lewellen has made many warm friends in The Dalles and it was with considerable regret that they learned of his transfer."

W. A. Booth, H. D. Still, L. A. Booth and R. W. Zevly returned Saturday from a month's outing in the mountains of the upper Rogue river country. These people blazed their own trails and saw much new country. They were sometimes forced to cut their way through rugged sections and at one place their pack horse rolled down the mountain side. They report that section of the country very beautiful and well stocked with game. They had many exciting experiences but the climax was reached when Zevly and Still killed their first deer; but we promised to keep still so all we shall tell is that they killed 18 fine big deer.

No uncertainty about her poise. She is ably supported by a Warner's = with the garters = of the right elasticity

SOLD BY
J. E. STEWART & CO.

How Many of These People DO YOU KNOW?

Lewis C. Morgan, Proprietor of the Lyric Theatre
Hugh R. Lakin, of the W. F. King Company
J. W. Carlson, of the firm of Stewart & Carlson, millers.
J. E. Stewart, of the firm of J. W. Stewart & Co.
Wm. J. Pancake, contractor.
Oliver Adams, of R. L. Jordan & Co.
Randolph D. Ketchum, Doctor.
J. W. Crooks, of Clifton & Cornett.
Wm. J. Paine, sawmill operator.
Timothy E. J. Duffy, Attorney at Law.
Wm. H. Porter, lumberman.

Do you think their judgment is worth anything? Do you think that they are in a position to know and appreciate land values in the City of Prineville? These are a few of the people who have secured ideal home sites in the high class NOBLE ADDITION. They expect to build and make their home there where they will have the benefit of the graded streets, sidewalks and building restrictions. A place where their property will not depreciate and their homes will not be made unpleasant by the erection of shacks on the adjoining lots.

MR. HOMEBUILDER OR INVESTOR
Buy your lots where ideal conditions for home sites are guaranteed. Where street improvements and sidewalks are already in; where your property values are secure; where it would be a pleasure to go and live yourself; where you have the protection of building restrictions. Noble's Addition is the only subdivision now on sale that has these modern necessities for a high class residence section. It is the only restricted district in Prineville. Prices are low. Terms to suit the purchaser. We will help you build your home. For particulars call on

A. R. BOWMAN
For Particulars.