

Special Meeting of Commercial Club

A special meeting of the Prineville Commercial Club was held in the reading room of the Club last Saturday evening.

President Adamson stated that the primary object of the called meeting was to arrange for the entertainment of J. J. Hill and party during his visit to Prineville October 1st.

The sentiment was unanimous that the Club and the people of Prineville show Mr. Hill a good time and as elaborate entertainment be provided as the short time of preparation would warrant.

Prineville feels doubly honored at being able to entertain the distinguished guest over night, and, although not on the line of the railroad, we recognize the stupendous work that has been done by Mr. Hill in bringing his railroad into Central Oregon.

Committees for the entertainment of Mr. Hill and party were appointed as follows:

Reception and program—T. M. Baldwin, Cashier First National Bank, Chairman; C. M. Elkins, Cashier Crook County Bank; C. S. Edwards, Mayor of Prineville; D. P. Adamson, President Prineville Commercial Club; J. R. Stinson, Agent Oregon & Western Colonization Company.

Committee on Banquet and Finance—W. F. King, Dr. J. H. Rosenberg, Tom Quinn, J. H. Haner and J. S. McMillan.

Committee on Decoration—Geo. Summers, S. R. Cooper, C. W. Elkins, R. L. Jordan and O. C. Hyde.

Committee on Publicity—Louis Dooner, C. O. Pollard and B. F. Wyde.

LOCAL MENTION

Joe Smith's threshing crew commenced work at Ed Slayton's place this morning.

Dean Huston has bought the interest of Calvin Morris in the firm of Gilchrist & Morris of Paulina, who are operating in cattle. The new firm will be known under the name of Gilchrist & Huston. They have leased the big ranch of Andrew Noble and have also bought Mrs. Pete Delore's cattle.

Henry Speck of Mitchell, was in town Monday with two wagon loads of apples that had been knocked off the trees by a recent hailstorm that visited that section last week. Considerable damage was done to fruit. There is practically no more fruit in that country.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, It has pleased the all-wise ruler of Heaven and Earth to take from his family and from us our beloved neighbor Claude E. Wright, who died September 19th, 1911: Wherefore our hearts are made sad and we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the wife and family of our silent neighbor. The battles of life he bravely fought and like a true Woodman he never surrendered to any obstacle in the way of his duty and protection of his family. Therefore be it resolved, That Camp No. 9565 Modern Woodman of America extend to the widow and family our heartfelt sympathy.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow and family and a copy be sent The Crook County Journal for publication and a copy be spread on our minute book.

Fraternally submitted,
J. O. POWELL, Consul,
C. C. BAIX, Clerk.

SCHOOL BOOKS—SCHOOL SUPPLIES

A new supply of school books, tablets, pencils, dictionaries, pens, penholders, writing books, and school supplies in general have arrived for the opening of schools.

We Sell Ruberoid

And Guarantee It—We Know It's the Greatest Roofing the World Produces

Whatever roofing you are using on any building, you are paying the price of Ruberoid. There are 300 imitations of Ruberoid—and all of them cost more in the end than the genuine. The imitations have names that sound like Ruberoid. Frequently they are sold as Ruberoid. Before they are laid and exposed to the weather they look like Ruberoid.

You cannot judge a roofing by its name—you cannot judge a roofing by its looks—you can judge it only by the service it gives.

Get This Free Book

It tells the advantages and disadvantages of tin, tar, shingle, iron and ready roofings—fairly, frankly, impartially.

Remember, whatever roofing you buy, you are paying the price of Ruberoid.

So learn about all roofs before deciding on any. To get this valuable book free, address us, or, better still, call if you can.

Modern Clothes

"The Kind Gentlemen Wear."

WITH the opening of our Fall and Winter Season, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many customers and friends who have shown us their patronage during the past year. We hope that our methods of doing business have been satisfactory to one and all and once a customer always a customer. Our methods will be the same for this coming year: Everything Marked in Plain Figures and One Price to One and All. We don't sell you an $10.00 suit for $15.00; our $18.00 suits are marked $18.00, that's our price; no other. But we are not talking prices, Quality First and Last. We are today carrying the Best Clothes to be found in Prineville. Modern Clothes designed and laid out by

Brandegge, Kincaid & Company, Utica, New York

Clothes well selected and worn cannot be overlooked by people of discrimination. Exclamations of great joy are certain to be called forth by our display of "College Chap" Clothes, because of their particularly brisk style, and because they fit so perfectly that they cannot but be well worn. The fabrics are totally different from those ordinarily seen. The many graceful and characteristic features which distinguish the well-dressed man from the multitude of careless dressers will be found in these splendid garments. Knowing how to design and how to develop has made "College Chap" Clothes what they are, "the clothes you want."

Preparing For Winter.
It is a good time now to get ready for next year's corn crop. Saving good seed is laying the first stone in the wall of success.
Take the best ears—not necessarily the largest, although those are to be desired if they are perfect. A nice, trim, well shaped ear, with rows all as straight as a knitting needle and tipped out nicely, will fill the bill.
Still another fall job is to hustle up the new buildings we have under way or fix up the old ones the best we can for winter. We can always do this better and get more comfort out of it if we are not crowded by cold winds and the thought that winter is right at our heels.
See to it also that the calves and young stock are getting to be in good trim for the long cold weather just ahead. They will grow faster now on the same amount of feed than they will later after the cold begins to pinch pretty hard. Then flesh and bone cost quite a good deal more.

Thymol and Stomach Worms in Sheep.
Some time ago Joseph E. Wing suggested thymol, a drug that is used extensively and successfully in treating human subjects for hookworm, as a possible remedy for stomach worms in sheep, writes N. S. Mayo in the Breeder's Gazette. The same thought had occurred to me, and preparations had been made to test it, but a satisfactory opportunity did not occur until recently.

The feces of a lamb were examined and eggs of the stomach worm found. The lamb was given a purge of salts, followed by the thymol in gelatin capsules. Following the thymol another purge of salts was given. Doses of nine to fifteen grains were given, but without results. Following the thymol treatment the same lamb was given a dose of gasoline, that caused many stomach worms to be expelled in the feces. From this limited trial it does not appear to be a satisfactory treatment for stomach worms in lambs.

Charcoal For Cows.

Do not oppose the cow's appetite. She knows what it takes to make a balanced ration better than any feed-fag standard. If she does not like bran and corn give oats and corn. If she is tired of fodder by all means try a little clover hay. A mixture of salt, two parts, and ashes, one part, should be put in the salting box at least once each week. The ashes should be rich in charcoal. The cows require a great deal of charcoal and cannot do their best without it.

Roots For Cattle.

Raw cabbage makes an excellent feed for cattle, but it cannot be safely fed to horses. Mangels, carrots, beets and turnips will, however, be found good for both horses and cattle if fed raw. They are named here in order of their value.
