

PRETTY CHEEKY.

At Least the Senator's Demand Struck His Colleague as Such.

Soon after the convening of a new session of congress announcement was made of the approaching marriage of Anson G. McCook, who was then secretary of the senate. A subscription was immediately started among the senators for the purchase of a wedding present. Two or three prominent senators volunteered to collect the money. Senator X., one of the richest men in the senate at that time, was one of these.

Seeing a new senator who had not yet been approached on the subject.

"THAT MAN BEATS ALL!"

Senator X. went to him and said, "Senator Blank, I want you to give me $25."

"What for?" demanded the new member.

"For McCook's wedding present," explained Senator X.

"I'll see you about it tomorrow," answered Blank, with a scowl.

"All right," said Senator X. as he walked away. "but don't forget it."

Senator Blank watched him until he was out of hearing and then, turning to his colleague, remarked with warmth:

"Well, I've heard of cheeky things in my life, but that man beats all. What do you think? He just asked me to give him $25 to buy a wedding present for his cook!"

A Preventive Measure.

Six-year-old Harriet announced her intention of giving up her German lessons with fraulein.

"She hugs and kisses me all the time I'm at lessons, and—ugh—I do hate Dutch!" Harriet explained.

Father, who is something of a diplomat, reasoned with her. "See here, my little girl, I have read German and French with fraulein ever since I was your age, and she has never tried to hug or kiss me."

"Father," observed the child dryly, "you had better touch wood."—Success Magazine.
