

Hardware

Groceries

Superior Drills

Canton Plows

Osborne Harrows

The W. F. King Company.

Tinning

Plumbing

LOCAL MENTION

Mr. Lawrence Perry returned Sunday evening from Portland.

Walter A. Foster returned from a trip to Portland Sunday evening.

Jack Smith, the band leader, returned Sunday from a visit to Portland.

Mr. Scammon of Barnes, was a business visitor the first of the week.

Mr. Reinke, of the firm of Horgan & Reinke, has returned from a visit to The Dalles.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Reiknap.

Mrs. Victoria Huston returned Friday evening from a visit to Eugene and other valley points.

Mrs. L. M. Hodges left Sunday for Eugene to attend the funeral of her mother, who died Saturday last.

The Sunday School at Powell Butte school will hold a basket social at that place on Saturday, October 7 at 7 o'clock p. m.

J. H. Delore is building a neat 8-room brick bungalow on his property on the north side. McNeely & Balger are doing the work.

Rev. John E. Williams of Clarkston, Wash., who has been assigned to the M. E. church at Prineville, arrived Friday last to assume his new duties here.

N. C. Westfield, special fiscal representative of the United States Cashier Co., of Portland, is in Prineville, looking after the interests of his company.

Harry Douthit and family of Cross Keys, passed through Prineville Tuesday on his way home from a visit to his sister, Mrs. Luther Claypool of Paulina.

Club members are invited by the ladies of the annex to a social evening at their parlors tomorrow (Friday) evening. Be sure and attend. You will enjoy the occasion.

Prineville public schools will open Monday, October 2, in the old building. Work is being rushed on the new building but it is not possible to get it ready for the opening.

Dr. Howard Gove, a dentist of Fossil, Oregon, has come to Prineville for the purpose of making this his home. He is well known to people here who recommend him as a first-class man in his line.

John A. Dobkins of Culver, was a county seat visitor Tuesday. Mr. Dobkins says that farmers are about through threshing. He has been threshing on the McKay. Crops over there are short but grain is of good quality.

W. H. Walton, editor of the Hood River News, was a caller at the Journal office Saturday. Mr. Walton, in company with some other business men of Hood River, were making an auto trip through this section of Central Oregon.

A postal saving bank is to be established at Madras.

Al Eastwood has sold his home-stand on the McKay.

Herbert Rideout and family returned Sunday from a trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Curtis were in from their ranch on Bear Creek Friday.

The Prineville Commercial Club has guaranteed $750 for the maintenance of an experimental station for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Ketchum, who have been visiting in the valley and at Newport, returned the last of the week.

Be sure and turn out to the big mass meeting next Sunday evening at Commercial Club Hall. James J. Hill and others will speak.

Tom Coon and family returned Sunday from a trip to Lane county. They came over the McKenzie road and report lots of mud.

October 4 and 5 are to be made memorable days in the history of Bend. Prineville will be well represented at the driving of the golden spike.

Prineville Public School children and Crook County High School students will take a prominent part in the James J. Hill welcome next Sunday evening.

Mrs. Stewart, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. George Noble, her two sons and Mr. Noble, left this morning for Portland where Mrs. Stewart goes for medical attention. Dr. Belknap, who has been attending Mrs. Stewart, accompanied her.

There will be a big delegation of Prineville people at Redmond Saturday to help the Hub city people celebrate the advent of the iron horse. Redmond will be prepared to handle the crowds. Join the throng and help make the occasion a memorable one for our neighbor.

D. H. Peoples, while out shooting rabbits Sunday, was lucky enough to bag a young bobcat. He was on the Adamson place, a mile below town, when he shot a rabbit at a distance of 150 yards. While the rabbit was kicking the young bobcat ran out to get it when another shot put an end to its career.

Ralph Porfily was a business visitor Monday. Mr. Porfily is one of our large sheepowners. Twenty-two years ago he came to this county empty handed and herded sheep until he could start in the business for himself. By strict attention to business he has been able to accumulate a fortune.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peck of Culver, got back Sunday evening from an extended visit to relatives in California. They took in all the sights worth seeing in both Central and Southern California. California is all right to live in, they say, but for a place to make money Crook county beats it all to pieces.

LOCAL MENTION

Miss Edyth Rideout returned yesterday from her trip East.

J. J. Smith returned Monday from a business trip to Portland.

Miss Alwilda Wilson has returned from her trip to Halsey.

Wm. Jacobs and family have returned from their trip to the valley.

Andrew Noble is moving out to the Collins place that he recently purchased.

W. L. and J. T. Dixon, cattlemen from Beaver Creek, came down Tuesday.

Commissioner Bailey returned Tuesday from a business trip to Portland.

Wade Huston and family returned last week from a six weeks' trip to Lane county. They brought back a load of fruit.

Percy Smith, who has been working for the Prineville Light & Water Co., left Tuesday for San Francisco. L. E. Hyde has succeeded to the position left vacant.

No peaches in the John Day valley is the latest report. Some plums and apples in the foothills but no peaches. Prineville people who are depending on the John Day fruit supply will have to go elsewhere.

The Young Men's Club of Prineville will entertain their fathers and friends at a banquet this evening at the Presbyterian church. The question of providing ways and means for furthering the objects of the club will be discussed.

The editor of this great religious weekly returned Sunday from a visit of two weeks to the Hot lake Sanatorium in Union county. He was looking for relief for rheumatism and found it. It is a wonderful place and more wonderful cures have been witnessed there. People are carried from the trains on stretchers and in chairs and in a short time are walking around. Poor twisted humanity is straightened out in some miraculous way. Try the cure and convince yourself.

Postmaster Colver of Culver, was a business visitor Saturday.

C. R. Christ and F. W. McCaffery were Redmond visitors Monday.

J. E. Norson of La Pine, is a business visitor in Prineville this week.

The Margaret Iles Company, always welcome in Prineville, will be here again during fair week.

Leonard E. Tinner and Eva Downing, both of Redmond, were granted a license to wed yesterday.

H. Fulton and family of Paulina, passed through Prineville yesterday on their way home from Portland.

Postmaster Ledford is moving into his own home, recently purchased from T. J. Ferguson on Second street.

Mrs. Jacques, a new teacher in the Prineville Public School, arrived Wednesday from her home in Maine.

Grant Mays of The Dalles, is spending a few days in the county seat. He is on his way home with a bunch of cattle.

W. W. Brown and Jud McPherson of Heisler, were in Prineville Tuesday on their way home from the cattle drive in Southeastern Crook county.

An auto party from Columbus, Neb., consisting of N. Matzen and wife, W. T. Matzen and Lois Matzen, passed through Prineville yesterday on their way home from a trip to the coast.

The Modern Woodman of America at Redmond held a meeting Tuesday evening at which they initiated about a dozen candidates. A chicken supper was served by the Royal Neighbors. About one hundred persons were present. Eleven members of the Prineville lodge attended the feast.

Crook county is receiving a number of immigrants from Alberta, Canada. A large family arrived at Culver last Sunday evening. They had enough of that cold region. Snow from four to six inches covered the ground on the day of their departure for Crook county.

Culver Warehouse Co.

Forwarding Agents for all Interior Points. Grain, Hides and Wool stored and shipped. Have your goods shipped in care of Culver Warehouse Co. CULVER, ORE.

H. C. TOPPING, Manager

Long Distance Phone in Office

General Blacksmithing

HORSESHOEING, WOOD WORK, ETC., NEATLY AND PROMPTLY DONE WHEN IT IS DONE BY : : :

Robert Moore

Satisfaction Will Be Guaranteed

PRINEVILLE, OREGON.

How Many of These People DO YOU KNOW?

- Lewis C. Morgan, Proprietor of the Lyric Theatre
Hugh R. Lakin, of the W. F. King Company:
J. W. Carlson, of the firm of Stewart & Carlson, millers.
J. E. Stewart, of the firm of J. W. Stewart & Co.
Wm. J. Pancake, contractor.
Oliver Adams, of R. L. Jordan & Co.
Randolph D. Ketchum, Doctor.
J. W. Crooks, of Clifton & Cornett.
Wm. J. Paine, sawmill operator.
Timothy E. J. Duffy, Attorney at Law.
Wm. H. Porter, lumberman.

Do you think their judgment is worth anything? Do you think that they are in a position to know and appreciate land values in the City of Prineville? These are a few of the people who have secured ideal home sites in the high class NOBLE ADDITION. They expect to build and make their home there where they will have the benefit of the graded streets, sidewalks and building restrictions. A place where their property will not depreciate and their homes will not be made unpleasant by the erection of shacks on the adjoining lots.

MR. HOMEBUILDER OR INVESTOR

Buy your lots where ideal conditions for home sites are guaranteed. Where street improvements and sidewalks are already in; where your property values are secure; where it would be a pleasure to go and live yourself; where you have the protection of building restrictions. Noble's Addition is the only subdivision now on sale that has these modern necessities for a high class residence section. It is the only restricted district in Prineville. Prices are low. Terms to suit the purchaser. We will help you build your home. For particulars call on

A. R. BOWMAN For Particulars.

THE UNIVERSAL BREAD MAKER

mixes and kneads Bread thoroughly in Three Minutes. Does away with Hand Kneading and makes Better Bread.

SOLD BY

J. E. Stewart & Co

