

Hardware

Groceries

Superior Drills

Canton Plows

Osborne Harrows

The W. F. King Company.

Tinning

Plumbing

LOCAL MENTION

Born—Sept. 28, to the wife of Lee F. Parker, a girl.

Mrs. Will Wurzeiler has returned from her visit to Portland.

Prof. Myers has moved his family into town from the ranch.

Miss Lillian Holtzman left for her home at Canby, Oregon, Sunday.

Laban Harris of Post, was a county seat visitor the first of the week.

L. B. Charles of Silver Lake, was over for a load of supplies the last of the week.

Born—September 17, at Lebanon, Oregon, to the wife of J. R. Breeze, a son.

W. D. Moffat of Roberts, was a business visitor to Prineville the last of the week.

Mrs. Floyd Rowell and family have returned from their visit to Bonnyview Farm.

Miss Emerine Young came back the first of the week from a two weeks' visit to Portland.

Mrs. Estes is offering rare bargains in millinery. See advertisement in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Barbar of Willamina, Oregon, are visiting at the home of J. H. Windom.

Mrs. Thomas Davis of Toronto, Canada, a sister of Mrs. John R. Stinson, is visiting in Prineville.

Mrs. L. E. LaRue and daughter of Woodland, Wash., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. A. J. Noble.

Miss Hazel Culp of Burns, is visiting at the home of Mrs. B. F. Johnson. Miss Culp is a niece of Mrs. Johnson's.

Miss Norma Richardson of Bend came over Sunday. Miss Richardson will have charge of the second grade this year.

Mrs. Joe Lister and family have moved in from the ranch at Paulina. The children will attend school this winter.

J. B. Shipp left yesterday for Portland. Mrs. Shipp, who has been in the hospital, will be able to return with him.

Miss Junita Endahl of Seaside, Wash., came in Friday. She will teach the fourth grade in the Prineville public school.

A. J. Pitzer, the stage driver, brought over a record load of mail last Friday night. He hauled 53 sacks. Total weight, 2500 pounds.

Mrs. E. R. Masters of Rocky Ford, Colorado, mother of Mrs. Lewis Wyld, arrived last Saturday for a visit of several weeks.

The Margaret Iles Company that will open an engagement at Prineville next Monday evening will reorganize here. Margaret Iles herself leaves the company to star in the East in a play written especially for her. The Prineville engagement that opens October 9, will be the last chance to see this popular actress for some time.

Mrs. Louis Hodges returned Saturday from Eugene, where she went to attend the funeral of her mother.

The Leader wants to make you comfortable this wet weather. You can find out all about it by reading the ad.

Bandmaster Smith and Louis Wyld left for Bend this morning to help the Bend band make music for the big celebration.

The railroads into Central Oregon are cutting down the running time to Portland. See their advertisement for time table.

Charles E. Johnson and Miss Maude Baker of Metolius, were married Tuesday by Rev. Williams at the Methodist parsonage.

The Central Oregon Fair will open at Prineville next Wednesday and continue four days. A large attendance is expected.

I. C. Lott of Lamonta, was a business visitor yesterday. He says that his section has received a thorough drenching during the first several days.

H. L. Stewart of Cambridge, Idaho, an old resident of Crook county, is here on a visit to his mother. He says he likes Oregon all right, but is fond of Idaho.

Work has commenced on John Combs' new bungalow on Second street. John bought the Brink lot between Recorder Breeze's place and J. W. Boone. Pancake has the contract.

Ross Robinson of Weiser, Idaho, has succeeded to the position left vacant by the resignation of Ed Masse in the C. W. Elkins store. Mr. Masse returned to his old job in Portland.

J. H. Windom left Monday for Portland to receive medical attention. George Luckey accompanied him. Mr. Windom's condition was such that he required the attention of a nurse.

Mrs. J. H. Haner and her sister, Mrs. Dudley, left for Portland the last of the week. Mrs. Dudley will continue on her way to her home in the South. Mrs. Haner is expected home the last of the week.

Rev. Gregg, state evangelist for the Christian church, who has been holding revival meetings at Post, has returned to Prineville. A Christian church with 33 members was organized at Post, also an Endeavor Society.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the club rooms last Friday. The Ladies' Annex had the affair in hand and left nothing undone to make the first social this fall a complete success. There were cards, games and refreshments.

It was decided at a meeting of the Christian church Monday to have a series of revival meetings to begin February 1st. A singing evangelist will be here. These meetings were to be held earlier but as they would conflict with the revival meetings of other churches it was decided to postpone them until the February date.

LOCAL MENTION

Dr. Belknap returned from his trip to Portland Saturday night.

Superintendent Ford is moving into the Marks house on the north side.

Warren Brown returned Monday from a two-weeks' visit to Hot Lake.

Miss Wilbur returned Monday from a week's stay at the home of Otto Gray.

Rev. Gregg of the Christian church, will preach in Prineville October 15.

If roads permit a big crowd of Prineville people will help Bend drive the golden spike.

L. Kamstra is advertising a big cut in watches, clocks and Jewelry during fair week. See his ad.

The C. W. Elkins store is making fair week bargains. Read all about them in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Williams left Monday for a visit of ten days to relatives in Puyallup, Wash.

The Crook County High School football squad will leave tomorrow for Bend where they will play the Bend team.

W. Post of Post, came down for supplies the first of the week. The recent rains have been a great thing for grass in his section.

Well matured potatoes that were sown after July 4 are being shown from the Powell Butte country. They are of good size and quality.

Twins—a boy and a girl, were born to the wife of L. D. Osborn of Powell Butte, on October 1. The boy weighs 7 and the girl 6 pounds.

Miss Louise Summers, who is studying to become a trained nurse at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, is home on a vacation. She will be here three weeks.

Alex. Mackintosh of Portland, came in the last of the week to attend the celebrations throughout Central Oregon. He expected to go to Burns but the condition of the roads prevented.

John Stordahl and Chas. F. Condat have bought the stock of goods of W. S. Cooke in the Masonic building. The new proprietors have had some experience in this line of business and invite the public to give them a call.

The Journal has received a complimentary ticket for the Fifth Eastern Oregon District Agricultural Society's Fair to be held at John Day, Grant county, commencing Tuesday, October 10 and continuing 5 days. Thank you.

The Sunday School at Powell Butte will hold a basket social at the school house at that place on Saturday, October 7 at 7 o'clock p. m. The proceeds will be used to pay for the organ. Everybody cordially invited.

Union church services Sunday—10 a. m., Bible school; 11 a. m., preaching; 6:30 p. m., C. E. Society, leader, Miss Stella Powell; 7:30 p. m., preaching by the pastor. A cordial invitation is extended to all. C. P. Bailey, pastor.

H. W. Harlin came down from Roberts yesterday. He says that the recent rains have been unusual and that if warm weather sets in the ranges will be fine. He has lived in the county 24 years, and says the prospects look brighter now than at any other time during that period.

Frank Hackleman was a Prineville visitor Monday on his way home to Albany. Mr. Hackleman stated that the cattlemen of Crook county have just about sold themselves out of stock owing to the good prices, and that many of them would have to feed sheep this winter in order to realize on their hay crops.

The dwelling and contents of Logan McPherson of Powell Butte, was totally destroyed by fire last Friday. How the fire started is not known. Mrs. McPherson was the only one at home at the time. This is the third fire that Mr. McPherson has had in a year. He lost two barns and his house. There was no insurance.

Work Wanted.

Help wants winter engagement. D. Fox, City. 10-5-11

LOCAL MENTION

Circuit court convenes October 16.

Jack Harris was up from Madras the first of the week.

Friday, October 13, is school day at the fair. All children must be in line to get in free.

Teachers' Institute next week. It will be held October 11, 12 and 13. An attractive program has been arranged by the county superintendent. All persons interested in our public schools are invited to attend the sessions of the Institute.

A double wedding occurred in the parlor of Hotel Prineville yesterday afternoon, when Geo. H. Hutchins and Leona M. Kuhne and Alfred W. Howell and Ida Lindback were united in marriage by Judge Kennedy. All the parties were from Bend.

There was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the Ladies' Annex Tuesday. Many subjects engaged the attention of the ladies. They purchased a piano for their handsome club rooms. The matter of giving an "at home" at the Club once a month for the benefit of strangers was discussed. This was thought a good plan to bring out the strangers so they could get acquainted. The matter will be taken up later.

Covenant meeting at Union church Saturday 2:00 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

The main entrance to Hotel Prineville was handsomely decorated in honor of James J. Hill. The words, "Welcome to the Empire Builder," were neatly festooned with streamers and bunting. The design was neatly executed and was a credit to the hotel and the occasion.

The baseball games during the fair will be played on the Commercial Club grounds. Prineville will cross bats with the fast Weonas of Portland. The games will be pulled off in the forenoon so as not to interfere with visiting the fair in the afternoon. The games are given under the auspices of the fair management.

Mr. Shattuck and family returned last Thursday evening from an extended trip in his Ford car. They were away three weeks. The first day out from Prineville they made Foster over in the Willamette valley. They visited Sweethome, Albany, Independence, Toledo, Newport, Monmouth, Newberg and Portland. On their way home Mr. Shattuck shipped his car to The Dalles by boat. The little Ford made the trip without mishap. Mr. Shattuck saw no town that had anything on Prineville in a business way.

How Many of These People DO YOU KNOW?

Lewis C. Morgan, Proprietor of the Lyric Theatre
Hugh R. Lakin, of the W. F. King Company;
J. W. Carlson, of the firm of Stewart & Carlson, millers.
J. E. Stewart, of the firm of J. W. Stewart & Co.
Wm. J. Pancake, contractor.
Oliver Adams, of R. L. Jordan & Co.
Randolph D. Ketchum, Doctor.
J. W. Crooks, of Clifton & Cornett.
Wm. J. Paine, sawmill operator.
Timothy E. J. Duffy, Attorney at Law.
Wm. H. Porter, lumberman.

Do you think their judgment is worth anything? Do you think that they are in a position to know and appreciate land values in the City of Prineville? These are a few of the people who have secured ideal home sites in the high class NOBLE ADDITION. They expect to build and make their home there where they will have the benefit of the graded streets, sidewalks and building restrictions. A place where their property will not depreciate and their homes will not be made unpleasant by the erection of shacks on the adjoining lots.

MR. HOMEBUILDER OR INVESTOR

Buy your lots where ideal conditions for home sites are guaranteed. Where street improvements and sidewalks are already in; where your property values are secure; where it would be a pleasure to go and live yourself; where you have the protection of building restrictions. Noble's Addition is the only subdivision now on sale that has these modern necessities for a high class residence section. It is the only restricted district in Prineville. Prices are low. Terms to suit the purchaser. We will help you build your home. For particulars call on

A. R. BOWMAN
For Particulars.

THE "UNIVERSAL" BREAD MAKER

mixes and kneads Bread thoroughly in Three Minutes. Does away with Hand Kneading and makes Better Bread.

SOLD BY

J. E. Stewart & Co

