

Crook County Teachers Institute

The teachers' annual Institute opened Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock with an unusually large attendance. The large increase in population during the past ten years is shown by the growth and number of school districts in the county. In 1901 there were twenty-three teachers in attendance at the annual Institute and today's record shows 92 teachers and there are between 85 and 90 school districts in the county.

After greeting the teachers Supt. Ford introduced J. N. Williamson, who spoke on the workings of Congress. He explained how the organization was perfected and gave the necessary steps in putting a bill through the House. His talk was most interesting and instructive and helped the uninitiated to better understand and appreciate the work necessary to get a bill introduced and passed by this legislative body.

Miss Winnek favored the Institute with a vocal solo and responded to an appreciative encore.

Prof. J. Shouse of Bend gave an excellent talk on the psychology of reading. He explained how the present psychologists were trying to work out the different school subjects along psychological lines that would be both simple and practical.

In his talk he discussed and emphasized three main topics, viz: Mental development, practical efficiency and culture and told when each of these should receive the greatest attention.

The afternoon session opened with singing led by Prof. Coe.

Miss Probst favored the Institute with a vocal solo.

Mrs. Mabel Wood then read an able paper on the "Necessity of the Trained Teacher." An effort will be made to have Mrs. Wood's paper printed so that the teachers may have a copy.

Miss Sidner gave a paper on "Expression work for primary grades" and explained how the hand work, and dramatization were the means of stimulating a greater interest and better working out the thought of the lessons. Miss Sidner suggested suitable stories, books and materials to be used.

The general discussion was most helpful in suggesting ways and means for taking up this work in the country schools.

Prof. Coe's paper on the Importance of School Athletics was excellent and the general discussion that followed was helpful to all who were fortunate enough to bear it.

Teachers' Entertained by Ladies' Annex

The Ladies' Annex entertained the teachers of Crook county, the members of the Commercial Club and friends last evening at Odd Fellows Hall. The hall was tastefully decorated with vines and flowers. It was taxed to its capacity to accommodate the large gathering.

Mrs. H. P. Belknap presided and welcomed the teachers on behalf of the club. Responses by Mrs. McMickle, of Redmond, Prof. Shouse of Bend and Prof. Groves, Hillman, assured the club that the teachers appreciated this opportunity of becoming better acquainted with one another and of meeting the people of Prineville.

Solos were rendered by Prof. and Mrs. Coe, Miss Probst and Miss Conway. Miss Gitchell's reading of Kipling's "Ballad of East and West" was most interesting and the reader received a hearty encore.

The quartet by Mesdames C. W. Elkins and Rosenberg, Messrs. J. N. Williamson and Charles Elkins was one of the most enjoyable numbers of the program and were called back to repeat a part of their performance.

Miss Evelyn Millhorn played several selections on the piano and orchestra also added to the pleasure of the evening by rendering several pieces.

The personnel of the teachers of the county was commented upon and drew forth many expressions of praise from those in attendance.

Chicken Thief Caught in the Act

Leo LaFollette has been troubled for a long time with night prowlers who have been in the habit of visiting his chicken roosts and helping themselves to the best he had. Nor did they confine themselves solely to the chickens. They would go through the cellar and help themselves to canned goods, jellies and jams and other good things to go as a side dish with the broilers. The visits were usually made when the family came to town and plan as he would, the thieves would go Leo one better. Tuesday night Mr. LaFollette and family came in to go to the show but left the hired man in a tent. When it was good and dark in the fore part of the evening the hired man heard a rumpus among the chickens and he was not long in getting his 45-calibre pistol loaded with fine shot and started to investigate. The chicken thief was discovered in the act and immediately took to his heels but not before several well-placed shots were planted in the seat of his pants. As chilled shot was used it is thought it will take several days to pick them out. Heavier loads will be used next time and the chances are the thieves will not be able to run very fast.

Raised Good Crop of Corn

J. B. Brown and wife of Culver, came over for a visit to the county seat yesterday. Mr. Brown says that he agrees with Jim Hill when it comes to raising hogs and chickens. While he cannot raise alfalfa without water, he can produce corn that will go fifteen bushels to the acre. Some of his corn measured 78 inches in height and grew four good plump ears to the stock. It didn't have a drop of water outside of the natural rainfall. He plowed it once and harrowed it once to keep down the weeds. He is so well pleased with his success that hereafter he intends to plant from 25 to 50 acres every year. He used the Yellow Dent variety. Besides corn he raised the usual stuff grown on a ranch. He raised watermelons, squashes and other tender vegetables. We will give the result of his experiments in a later issue.

Prineville Rebekahs Go to Redmond

Redmond Rebekah Lodge No. 204 was instituted on Monday night by Mrs. Dora Templeton of Prineville, district deputy grand president, after which the degree staff of Lookout Rebekah Lodge took charge and initiated 22 members, with several more applications on the table. Redmond lodge starts out in a flourishing condition, and we predict for them great success.

After a demonstration of the floor work and the conclusion of the order of business all were seated to a sumptuous banquet, which consisted of all the dainties from deviled eggs to that most luscious fruit from the sunny vineyard. At 2:30 a. m., all departed declaring the good people of Redmond royal entertainers.

The following were in attendance from Prineville: Mesdames Dora Templeton, Amanda Chors, Ella Powell, Anna Glaze, Lena McNeely, Julia Young, Maggie LaFollette, Long, Julia McDaniel, Ethel Weams, E. Frue Shattuck, Anna Ireland, Valda Coon, Mary Vanderpool, Sarah Zell, May Mackey, Vira Cyrus, Sarah Wright, Miss Ada Morse, Messrs. C. L. Shattuck, A. S. Ireland and James Allen.

Shumias Entertain.

The Shumia Club met last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Clifton.

The following program was given: Roll call was responded to by quotations from Wordsworth. Current Events, Mrs. Edwards; "Life of Wordsworth," Mrs. Kayler; "Ode on Immortality," Mrs. Winnek; "Daffodils," and "She Was a Phantom of Delight," Mrs. Rosenberg; "We are Seven," Mrs. Clifton; "The Excursion," Mrs. Collins Elkins. After the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The club then adjourned to meet with Mrs. Rosenberg October 20.

Modern Clothes

"The Kind Gentlemen Wear."

WITH the opening of our Fall and Winter Season, we wish to express our heartiest thanks to our many customers and friends who have shown us their patronage during the past year. We hope that our methods of doing business have been satisfactory to one and all and once a customer always a customer. Our methods will be the same for this coming year: Everything Marked in Plain Figures and One Price to One and All. We don't sell you an $10.00 suit for $15.00; our $18.00 suits are marked $18.00, that's our price; no other. But we are not talking prices, Quality First and Last. We are today carrying the Best Clothes to be found in Prineville. Modern Clothes designed and laid out by

Brandege, Kincaid & Company, Utica, New York

Clothes well selected and worn cannot be overlooked by people of discrimination. Exclamations of great joy are certain to be called forth by our display of "College Chap" Clothes, because of their particularly brisk style, and because they fit so perfectly that they cannot but be well worn. The fabrics are totally different from those ordinarily seen. The many graceful and characteristic features which distinguish the well-dressed man from the multitude of careless dressers will be found in these splendid garments. Knowing how to design and how to develop has made "College Chap" Clothes what they are, "the clothes you want."
