Prineville Wins Baseball Series

By taking three out of four games at the fair series from the Weona baseball team, one of the fastest of the Portland teams, the Prineville boys demonstrated the fact that they have one of the fastest teams in the state, and have as good claim to the championship honors as any of the teams which are now claiming it. The sports writer in the Sunday's Oregonian, states the situation very fairly, as follows:

"Analyzing the state baseball championship, it is found that none have just right to annex it. In the first place, the whole of Oregon is included and not one of the claimants have battled against teams from either the Central, Eastern or Southern part of the state. Salem, Baker, Medford, Pendleton Prineville, and Woodburn all have good clubs. And as none of the claimants have played against these strong teams they have no right to it."

The local boys in spite of lack of practice played fast, aggressive ball in all four games.

McCall, a former Harvard star, who is now located on his ranch near Prineville, played in the left garden for the locals. His playing all through the series was of stellar order; he is a valuable acquisition to local athletics.

In the first game of the series Thursday forenoon, the locals got away bad in the first two innings, during which time the Weonas garnered three fat scores, but nothing daunted, Prineville came back strong and amassed eight tallies, while Tetherow's good pitching held the enemy unless the remainder of the game.

Friday's mornings game was probably the fastest exhibition of the series, Prineville winning three to one. Berger, the Washington state leaguer, was on the firing lines for Prineville, and Chevalier for the visitors, both pitching well and receiving almost perfect support.

The third game Saturday forenoon was similar to the first, the final score standing Prineville nine to Weona's four. Tetherow started in the box but retired on account of a sore arm, the burden falling on "Bill" Hamilton, our "tiny" first sacker, and he pitched acceptable ball. Parks, the Weona's southpaw twirler, did not fare well at the hands of the local swatters, and he retired early, Anderson taking his place, who was in turn touched up rather lively by our batsman.

The fourth and last game was a benefit game and was played Sunday afternoon. The weather was all that could be asked and a large crowd was entertained with good music by the Prineville band, and an exciting game, which the Weonas annexed, five to four. Berger pitched this game. He was a little wild the first few innings, which the visitors took advantage of by scoring four runs. However, the local's oldtime fighting spirit came to the front, but their four runs were not sufficient to win, as the Weona's added another score to their total. The feature of this game was the home run clout of Berger, the Prineville pitcher. It was the longest hit made on the new Davidson Field.

The Weona team and manager were well pleased with their treatment in Prineville, and expressed a desire to cross bats with the locals here again next spring. The lineup:

Prineville	Weona
Bechtell 3b	Smart ss
Langdell ss	Van Northw'k lf
Mills 2b	Eichenlaub 3b
Brewster c	Hayworth c
McCall lf	Anderson cf
Hamilton 1b	Chevalier p

Prineville-Redmond Road Needs Fixing

Kirk Whited of Redmond was a county seat visitor the first of the week. Mr. Whited was one of the chief promoters in pushing through the new Prineville-Redmond wagon road. His trip over Monday was the first time he had seen it since he helped view it out. He says the road is all right but needs fixing in places. The low wet ground at the Ferguson place should be attended to this fall, he says, before bad weather sets in. There are other places that could be greatly improved but this one spot should not be neglected if uninterrupted travel is to be maintained between Prineville and Redmond all winter. There is another road too, that Mr. Whited is interested in. He is a "crank" on roads. He wants to see the McKenzie road made a good highway across Crook county. He thinks a good wagon road would be second only to a railroad in opening up this country. The benefits from summer travel alone, he says, would soon pay for such improvements. The Redmond man, in talking up his scheme, found that the matter had been pretty well threshed out in Prineville. W. F. King and others have been doing missionary work in Eugene along the same line. Keep at it, gentlemen, until we have a good auto road across the mountains.

Demonstration Train In Central Oregon

Madras Nov. 4, Culver Nov. 3, Redmond-Bend Nov. 2.

On October 30 the demonstration train which will carry eight O. A. C. experts and exhibits to show methods of swine and poultry management and dry farming, will leave Portland for a ten day trip with an itinerary of fourteen stops.

The schedule includes four-hour stops at Heppner, Lexington, Ione, Arlington, Condon, Clem, Grass Valley, Moro, and Wasco, and afterward Central Oregon points beginning at Madras and going south to Culver, Redmond, Metolius and Bend, returning to Portland about November 1.

Dr. James Withycombe, experiment director, will be accompanied by Prof. E. L. Potter of the animal husbandry department; Prof. H. D. Scudder of the agronomy department; Prof. Jas. Dryden of the poultry department; C. E. Robinson, foreman of the college stock farm; Supt. H. J. Umberger of the Moro experiment station; Robert Withycombe, superintendent of the Union experiment station; and Orren Beatty, traveling agricultural adviser.

A number of breeds of hogs and some packers' models will be furnished from the college swine herds, and one car will show automatic watering devices, portable houses, feeding troughs and like material. Another will contain poultry and colony houses to show how hens should be raised. It is expected that thousands of farmers will be benefited by the demonstrations, since in 1909, with 42 two-hour stops, 40,730 people were reached.
