

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Ashland Waits for Buildings.
Ashland.—That Ashland will see the erection of two imposing buildings, one state and one federal, next year, is the belief of citizens here. The state has formally accepted the deed for the armory site and urges that work be started early in the year. The armory will be a $30,000 structure. The federal building is a $100,000 structure.

Dallas Probers Secret.
Dallas.—The Dallas Commercial Club has appointed a "secret committee" to investigate all soliciting schemes. Every solicitor for a charitable or boosting enterprise must explain his mission to the secretary of the commercial club. The "secret committee" will then investigate and if the cause is a worthy one the secretary will be instructed to give it written indorsement.

START S. P. ROAD SOON

Work is to Go On as Soon as More Holdings Are Secured.

Eugene.—Right of Way Agent Buell, of the Southern Pacific Company, said that construction work on the Eugene-Coos Bay railroad would begin immediately after a deal for the purchase of the Lane County Asset Company's holdings had been concluded. The asset company holds a short stretch of right of way needed by the Southern Pacific Company, and when this is acquired the Southern Pacific Company will have a continuous right of way for 20 miles.

Reports are current here that the company has let a contract for the first 20 miles of road out of Eugene, and the statement of Buell would seem to confirm them, although officials of the company in Portland decline to make a statement. It is known here that the company is making active preparations in regard to contracting for meat and other provisions for an early start on the work.

Exhibit Room is Plan.

Cottage Grove.—A glass exhibit building at the Southern Pacific station to display products of the Cottage Grove country for the education and edification of visitors and passengers that alight from trains while stopping at the depot, is being arranged by a committee appointed by the commercial club.

Depot Contracts Are Let.

Springfield.—Word has been received here that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company has let the contract to build depots at several stations along the new Natron extension.

BEEF FAMINE FEARED

Cattlemen Are in Market to Buy and Not to Sell.

Pendleton.—The Northwest is threatened with one of the most serious beef famines in the history of the country, in the opinion of Eastern Oregon stockgrowers and cattle-buyers. Instead of offering their cattle for sale hundreds of ranchers throughout the interior counties from which come the beef have gone into the market as buyers and are taking everything in sight at prices never before paid for feeders and range stuff.

The high prices which have prevailed during the past two years for both cattle and hay and the scarcity of the latter during the two feeding seasons, have caused every rancher throughout the interior to sell off lower than ever before and to raise as much hay as possible. They now find themselves with a large quantity of hay on hand and no way to get it to market, as the supply of feeders has been depleted to an abnormal condition.

Develop Cement Deposit.

Falls City.—Work on the railroad to the cement quarry, located two miles east of here, is advancing very rapidly under the supervision of A. E. Teal, the contracting engineer. Already one mile of track has been laid and the roadbed graded.

Aged Hen Still Busy.

Forest Grove.—Mrs. Ula Hanna of this city is the owner of a hen that probably holds the record among Oregon chickens for age and laying ability. The hen is 12 years of age, and still produces a number of eggs each month.

Commercial Club Starts Boosting.

Bay City.—The commercial club has laid plans for an extensive advertising campaign to follow the opening of the new line to Tillamook Bay. This city has much to offer home-seekers and intends to let them know it.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

George H. Bastley has been appointed postmaster at Bartlett.
Articles of incorporation for the Security State Bank of Woodburn have been filed.
Residents of Paisley have voted to incorporate, only three votes being cast against the proposal.
Two hundred people attended the dedication of the Mountain View grange hall at Lewisburg, five miles north of Corvallis.
Circulars containing information regarding the winter short courses are now being sent out from the Oregon Agricultural College.
A potato show will be held in Redmond on the same day the O-W. R. & N. Co.'s demonstration train arrives there, November 2.
The trial of James L. Riley for the killing of Louis Long, pugilist, on the road between Redmond and Opal City, last June, has begun before the circuit court of Crook County.
Suit was brought in the circuit court to enjoin John Mullen, city recorder of Springfield, from placing the liquor question before the voters at the election to be held November 7.
In the national forest reserve between Bachelor Butte and Spring River, 30 miles west of Bond, another natural wonder has been discovered by rangers. It is a cave filled with clean, pure ice.
Thirty-five indictments were returned by the grand jury of Lake County on evidence furnished through Assistant District Attorney Venator, among them being a large number of violators of the liquor laws.
Ex-Representative William R. Ellis, of Pendleton, and Robert A. Miller and Alexander M. Wright, of Portland, have been elected by the Supreme Council of Scottish Rite Masons to be knights commander of the court of honor.
H. L. Rees, of the plant pathology department of the Oregon Agricultural College, is in Hood River, where he will inspect the orchards of that section in a preliminary investigation of the mushroom root rot and diseases of the prune.
Judge John S. Coke of Marshfield has dismissed the suit of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company vs. the City of Eugene, in which the company sought to restrain the city from using the waters of the McKenzie River for its power plant at Watterville, alleging that to divert the water into the canal would lower the river and hinder the company's logging operations.
