

HEATING STOVES.

See us before buying a heating stove. We have thirty-six heaters on hand which will be sold at prices ranging from $2.75 up to $25.00.

Roofing:

Have you received a sample of the best roofing made—Genasco Smooth Surface. A slate-colored, tough, leather-like material made from a combination of wool felt and Trinidad Lake Asphalt—the best waterproofing known—not affected by water, acid, alkalis, gasses, or sudden changes in temperature; easy to lay, does not dry out, become brittle and crack.

The W. F. King Company.

The best drill on the market today, is what anyone who has ever used one of these drills will tell you.

LOCAL MENTION

Herbert Rideout has sold his ranch.

Mrs. Alice McKay left Monday for Lakeview to visit her brother.

Mrs. Baldwin spent the week end at the home of Thomas Sharp Jr.

Born—Monday, October 23, to the wife of Geo. Girardo, a girl.

Mrs. I. M. Mills and family of Paulina have moved to town for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Keely Messinger of Lamonta were visiting in Prineville this week.

Mrs. Springer, wife of G. Springer of Culver, was buried at Culver, last Friday.

James Fogle, brother of Mrs. Hugh Lister, came in from Idaho last night.

W. J. Pancake has commenced work on his new bungalow in Noble's addition.

J. B. Shipp has broken ground for his new bungalow east of the high school.

Big Halloween Dance October 30. The ladies of the Annex promise a good time to everybody.

Mrs. L. A. Booth returned the first of the week from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Robert Cram, on Willow creek.

Mrs. Wurzeiler was called to Portland on account of the sickness of her son Nate. He was operated on for appendicitis.

Mrs. Rings of Crescent, who has been visiting at the home of J. H. Haner, left for home Tuesday. Mr. Haner took over in his car.

A. S. Collins will leave for Bend today for a two month stay. He has some property in that neighborhood which he intends to improve.

Hobert and Essie Reams celebrated their joint birthdays Monday by inviting 25 of their little friends to spend the afternoon. It is somewhat unusual to have two children with the same birthday. Hobert is 11 years of age and Essie 7.

The Shumia Club met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rosenberg. The following program was given. Current Events, Mrs. Elliott; "Bridge of the Gods," Mrs. Clifton; Art, "Hera and Zeus," Mrs. Brink. After the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The Club then adjourned to meet with Mrs. Brink, October 28.

Married—At the office of Justice of the Peace A. H. Kennedy, in this city, Saturday evening, George J. Larson and Miss Hattie Quinn, the judge officiating. Both parties are from Oneil and both well known to the people of Crook county. They will make their home at Oneil, where the groom is a member of the firm of Oneil & Larson. Congratulations.

Word comes from Perry Long that he is now engaged in the chicken business near Portland, having turned his ten-acre farm into a poultry ranch. His specialty is White Wyandottes, and he is making good at it.

Mr. Carey and family left this week for Walla Walla.

The child of James McDaniels is sick with infantile paralysis.

Miss Dollie Hodges is visiting the Schultz family on Trout Creek.

Andrew Morrow, who has been very sick with typhoid fever, is reported as convalescing.

Mrs. Enoch and Mrs. Hattie Cyrus of Culver were visiting Mrs. Vira Cyrus the first of the week.

Mrs. Collins Elkins gave an afternoon luncheon Wednesday for the benefit of the ladies aid of the Methodist church.

Mrs. George Storkmann left Monday for Lakeview, the home of her parents, for a visit.

C. M. Redfield, chief engineer of the Central Oregon Irrigation Company, is in the city this week, a witness in a case before the circuit court.

Prof. John Smith, of the Crook County High School, has been elected superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School, by reason of the resignation of Mr. Carey, who moves to Walla Walla.

S. G. Douthit of Paulina, is in town today. He came down with a bunch of feeders that he sold to Dinwiddie & Lawson. He says that grass is good and will get better if warm weather continues. It has a fine start for next spring, Mr. Douthit says.

John Feight, who lives near Powell Butte, met with an accident Tuesday which resulted in a fracture of the bones in his left leg about half way between knee and ankle. His team ran away and threw him from the wagon. Dr. Belknap attended the injured man and left him in fine condition.

LOCAL MENTION

C. R. Henry and I. B. Meyers of Post, are in town on business.

Hugh Lister has sold 52 head of beef cattle to George Dixon, who is buying for Hunt & Lacey of Portland. Good prices are reported.

Rev. H. O. Perry, superintendent of the Dalles district of the Methodist church, will preach at the M. E. Church, morning and evening, next Sunday. Quarterly conference will be held at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Culver invites the people of Prineville and vicinity to that enterprising town on Farming Demonstration Day, November 3. Besides the O. W. R. & N. Demonstration train there will be a basket dinner, etc. T. M. Baldwin will deliver the principal address. Don't forget the date—Friday, November 3.

Walt Snoderly brought in from his dry ranch up McKay the first of the week two potatoes that weighed five pounds. They were of the pink variety and tasted even better than they looked. Walt says he can't see where any potato grower has anything on him if his ranch is dry.

Jess Harter was up at the cemetery Tuesday afternoon resting near the graves, when a stray spent bullet came along, catching him on the funny bone and plowed its way a few inches along his left arm. Harter did not know what to make of it for awhile, until investigation disclosed the fact that Tom Carney was hunting jackrabbits in the neighborhood and didn't know any one else was in the vicinity.

Song Recital

Methodist Church

Bernice Halley-Forest of Redmond, assisted by local talent, will give a song recital at the Methodist church Friday evening, November 3.

The Redmond Spokesman speaks of her in the following terms: The lady has a finely cultivated voice, with great range and flexibility, and the selections she rendered at the recital were of a nature to bring out the full compass of her voice. That her singing was appreciated was evidenced by the hearty and spontaneous encores she received during the recital.

Mrs. Halley-Forest appears in Prineville under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church. See program published elsewhere in this issue.

Rooms for Rent.

Furnished rooms, single or in suite, for rent. Apply at the Clark Hair Dressing Parlors, one block west of Commercial Club Hall. 10-26

For Sale.

Thoroughbred Buff Orpington, S. S. Hamburg, S. C. W. and S. C. Brown Leghorn chickens and White Holland turkeys. Bees, honey, hay and pasture. Pioneer phone. E. F. WILSON, Prineville, Or. 10-12

Daily Auto Service

From Prineville to Sisters by way of O'Neil, Redmond and Cline Falls. Leaves Prineville at 12 o'clock. Tickets on sale at stage office next door to post-office. J. E. CHRISTIAN, prop. 8-24-tf

Cash Grocery

Geo. Whitis, Proprietor

Fresh Fruits and Vegetables in Season. Fancy and Staple Groceries. Quality considered, prices cannot be beaten in Prineville.

Call and See What Cash Will Buy

Auction Sale

October 28; 1911.

Commencing at 9:00 o'clock, Saturday, October 28, 1911, I will sell the following property: Three span large work horses; one large brood mare aged 3 years weight 1400 lbs.; 2 set heavy team harness; 4 wagons; 1 McCormick Binder; 1 Oliver Chilled Gang Plow; about 60 tons bound Rye hay; 1 sagebrush rake; 1 1/2 miles 3 stran barbed wire fence; 1 logging outfit; one carpenters kit; one incubator; six Jersey milk cows; 2 Jersey heifers; 1 garden drill; 1 ton rye chop; 20 bushels seed rye; 1 grindstone; 8 cords 16 inch wood; all household goods, and other things too numerous to mention. All have to go.

TERM:—$20.00 or under, cash. Over $20, six months time.

Mrs. Claude E. Wright.

Nine miles from Prineville on Madras road.

How Many of These People DO YOU KNOW?

Lewis C. Morgan, Proprietor of the Lyric Theatre
Hugh R. Lakin, of the W. F. King Company;
J. W. Carlson, of the firm of Stewart & Carlson, millers.
J. E. Stewart of the firm of J. W. Stewart & Co.
Wm. J. Pancake, contractor.
Oliver Adams, of R. L. Jordan & Co.
Randolph D. Ketchum, Doctor.
J. W. Crooks, of Clifton & Cornett.
Wm. J. Paine, sawmill operator.
Timothy E. J. Duffy, Attorney at Law.
Wm. H. Porter, lumberman.

Do you think their judgment is worth anything? Do you think that they are in a position to know and appreciate land values in the City of Prineville? These are a few of the people who have secured ideal home sites in the high class NOBLE ADDITION. They expect to build and make their home there where they will have the benefit of the graded streets, sidewalks and building restrictions. A place where their property will not depreciate and their homes will not be made unpleasant by the erection of shacks on the adjoining lots.

MR. HOMEBUILDER OR INVESTOR

Buy your lots where ideal conditions for home sites are guaranteed. Where street improvements and sidewalks are already in; where your property values are secure; where it would be a pleasure to go and live yourself; where you have the protection of building restrictions. Noble's Addition is the only subdivision now on sale that has these modern necessities for a high class residence section. It is the only restricted district in Prineville. Prices are low. Terms to suit the purchaser. We will help you build your home. For particulars call on

A. R. BOWMAN
For Particulars.

Make Your Selection NOW.

We have a full and complete line of Heaters

Prices Ranging From $6 to $15.00 All Sizes.

We deliver and set them up in your home without extra charge.

J. E. Stewart & Co.