quarter section, and what he has done there, it is argued, can be done on any other similar piece of ground in that part of the state.

Reuter came to Oregon from Indiana about six years ago. He had been a farmer in Indiana, but had not had more than ordinary success.

L. W. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway, became interested in his methods and his success a few years ago, and when in Central Oregon last spring visited Reuter on his ranch.

Reuter declares his results can be duplicated by any farmer of ordinary efficiency and common sense.

On Execution in Foreclosure, In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Crook.

State Bank of Redmond, (a corporation), plaintiff, vs. Theodore R. Herker, C. F. Anderson, C. E. Nielsen, John Clark, Saddle Creek Company (a corporation) and Marshall Wells Hardware Company (a corporation), defendants.

By virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the above entitled court and cause on the 17th day of October, 1911, in favor of the above named plaintiff and against the above named defendants upon a judgment against the said defendants, Theodore R. Herker and C. E. Nielsen for the sum of eight hundred fifty ($850.00) dollars with interest thereon from the 15th day of October, 1911 at 10 per cent per annum, and seventy-five ($75.00) dollars attorney's fees and the further sum of fifteen and 1/2 ($15.50) dollars costs and disbursements which judgment was enrolled and docketed in the clerk's office of said court on the 25th day of October, 1911.

And whereas it was further ordered and decreed by the court that the following described premises, to-wit: The south half of lot number two, 2-in block 835-836, 53, of the original townsite of Redmond, Oregon, as shown by the recorded map and plat of said townsite in the office of the county clerk of Crook county, State of Oregon, including the frame building on the above described premises, together with all and singular the fixtures and hereditaments thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, situate and being within the County of Crook and State of Oregon, be sold by the sheriff of said county as under execution, and the proceeds of said sale after paying the costs and disbursements herein, the accruing costs and expenses of sale, be applied on the judgment herein and in obedience to said execution, order of sale and decree, notice is hereby given that I have levied upon the property above described, and I will on the 25th day of November, 1911

the same being Saturday of the week, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the front door of the courthouse in Prineville, Crook county, Oregon, sell to the highest bidder for cash, all of the right, title and interest of the said Theodore R. Herker, defendant herein, in and to said real property and premises to satisfy said judgment, costs and disbursements, accruing costs, expenses of sale and attorney's fees, and said sale will be made subject to redemption in the manner provided by law.

Dated this 17th day of October, 1911.

T. N. RAIFOR, Sheriff of Crook County.
