

The Crook County Journal's Piano Contest

FREE A Beautiful $400.00 Piano FREE

A chance to adorn your home with a first-class instrument without cost. Details on Page 1

LOCAL MENTION

Born—November 10, to the wife of Claude Smith, a boy.

Mrs. Shaffer of Kent, Oregon, a sister of Mrs. Boone, is here on a visit.

Dr. Rosenberg returned from his trip to The Dalles the first of the week.

Elmer Kayler is building a $2000 bungalow in the Davidson addition.

Mesdames Carl and Harry Windom were county seat shoppers the first of the week.

W. T. Fogle, a former editor of the Journal, is now publisher of the Lebanon Criterion.

Columbus Lee of Monmouth, a brother-in-law of M. D. Powell, is visiting in Prineville.

All B. Geyer, who bought the Eastwood place on the McKay, is building a $1500 home.

Miss Wanda Logan, who has been visiting relatives in Prineville, left for Portland Wednesday.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Hans Rederer and Jeanette Parrish, both of Redmond.

Mrs. Vesta Galloway of Metolius, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dale Jones, left for home Monday.

J. T. Hardy, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Oregon Trunk, was a Prineville visitor the last of the week.

Cecil Stearns, who has been riding on the Deschutes for the past month, returned the other day with 300 head of cattle.

Five hundred party at the club tomorrow (Friday) evening. The ladies are preparing for a large attendance. Be prompt at 7:30.

C. W. Spring, proprietor of the Prineville Green House, left some fine lettuce at the Journal office Monday. It was fresh and crisp.

A turkey shoot and dance is advertised for Lamonta November 29. George Earl promises the public good music and a good time.

Hugh Lakin and J. H. Haner went up to Gilchrist Bros. at Barnes Saturday on a duck hunt. They returned Monday with 25 ducks.

Fred Feuerbush, a pianist and music teacher, is in Prineville. He intends to open a music studio when a suitable location can be found. Prof. Feuerbush is a graduate of a German normal and music school.

Try the Journal piano at Adamson's drugstore, where it is on exhibition. Warren Glaze says it is one of the clearest toned instruments he ever played. Warren is a professional musician and ought to know.

The Dalles football team is expected in tonight. The boys will play the Crook County High School team tomorrow on the home grounds. Kick-off at 2:30. The Wasco team is very strong. The C. C. H. S. will give them the game of their life. Turn out and root. Your presence gives inspiration.

William Prine, who has been conducting a blacksmith business at Paulina for some time, is in the city this week visiting his children.

The fire department was called out Sunday evening for a blaze in the back yard of J. L. Luckey's place on Second street. The damage was slight.

Father Sheenan will be in Prineville Sunday, November 19, and will hold services in Belknap hall 9 a. m. The reverend gentleman is now with the chapel car at Redmond.

A. W. Battles, J. E. Roberts and John Edwards left Sunday for a hunting trip up Crooked river. They got as far as Post when an accident to their auto obliged them to turn back.

George Turner of Ashwood, was a business visitor today. He says that this has been the most favorable fall for the farmer that he has known in this county. Next year's crops should be bountiful.

Mrs. Amy Emerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brosius, who underwent an operation at The Dall hospital about a week ago, is reported as doing fine and recovering rapidly.

George Storkman, who proved up on his homestead last week, left Monday morning for Ontario, Oregon, where he is going to open up a cigar factory. He has leased his homestead to Jim Forrester.

Art Wurzweller came up from Portland the first of the week. While there he visited with his brother Nate, who is now recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Nate is out of all danger and getting along nicely. Mrs. Wurzweller is with him.

Crook county gets $1074.44 as its share of the proceeds from public land sales in Oregon. The total amount received by the state was $12,785.67. It was apportioned among the counties according to acreage. Crook has 5,122,560 acres.

Architect Burgraff of Albany, who drew up the plans and specifications for the new Prineville school building, accompanied the trustees on a tour of inspection Monday. He was well pleased with Contractor Wheaton's work and with the correction of a few minor details passed favorably upon the building.

A lively interest is being taken in Prineville in the big university game of football between Wisconsin and Minnesota next Saturday. There are quite a number of Badger and Gopher men here and the games are followed very closely. Messrs. Sanborn and Casey Brewster are backing Wisconsin. Ray Brewster and others are loyal to Minnesota.

The Squaw Creek Irrigation Co. held their annual meeting in Prineville last Saturday. Will Wurzweller, Howard Weise, E. T. Slayton and Mr. Slocum were elected directors. It was decided to make Prineville the regular meeting place and to keep the reconstruction work going until the ditch is in first-class shape.

LOCAL MENTION

Dr. Spaulding has returned from Portland.

Lewis Morgan and wife are Port-visitors this week.

School will open in the new building next Monday.

The stores will close during the football game tomorrow afternoon.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar December 8.

Richard K. Mantey of Roberts, has moved to Prineville for the winter.

J. W. Boone was in the city from Metolius the first of the week on business.

C. F. Heywood, route agent for the Northern Express Company, is in Prineville today.

Mrs. Gertrude Holden of Kansas City, is visiting Mrs. Millican, her cousin, for a few weeks.

Frank Foster is in Portland. He will attend the wedding of Miss Eva Allen who is to be married this week.

Mrs. Winnek and Miss Lorene returned Sunday evening from a trip to Spokane, Portland and other points.

J. Warren Crooks is having a 7-room bungalow constructed in Noble's addition. He will move in December 15.

C. C. Randolph, who came in Tuesday, reports a foot of snow at Crescent and two inches at Bend. Prineville got lots of rain instead.

John Reuter, father of Tillman Reuter, died Monday, at his home eight miles southeast of Madras. He was buried this morning at 10 o'clock.

Numerous hunters were out Sunday after ducks. The hunters were scattered all the way from Onell down Crooked river to five miles up Ochoco, and many were the feathers shed in consequence. The catches were mostly teal, though several big mallards were brought in.

Little Walter Girardo, while at play last week, broke his leg.

Seth Dixon of Barnes, passed through Prineville the other day on his way home from a trip to Roseburg.

Miss Evelyn Boone, stenographer at The W. F. King Co., who was summoned to Portland as a witness in a case against a former employer, will not return to Prineville. She got her old job back in the metropolis.

Football Team Given a Banquet

The girls of the senior and junior classes of Crook County High School, assisted by Mesdames Cleek, Myers, Brink and Lister, entertained the boys of the High School football team at a banquet Friday evening in the basement of the Presbyterian church. The tables were appropriately decorated with pennants and colors and the place cards were a football made in blue and gold.

Prof. E. L. Coe acted as toastmaster and in a few introductory remarks complemented the team on its work and prophesied that future laurels await the High School in the domain of football.

The following ably responded to toasts: Ray Brewster, "Football;" Captain Adolphus Myers, "Our Coach;" Mrs. A. O. Wood, "Our Boys;" Warren Yancy, "Our Girls." Besides the team and the girls of the senior and junior classes there were present: Prof. Mrs. E. L. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, R. L. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. Laninger, Mrs. Hugh Lister, Mrs. I. Cleek, Mrs. M. E. Brink, Mrs. A. O. Wood, Miss Alma Gitchel and Miss C. V. Conway.

Notice to My Friends.

I am out to win the Journal Piano. When you subscribe remember me with your votes. Mrs. VERA CYRUS, 11-16

For the daintiest of hand-made Christmas gifts, wait for the Bazaar December 8. 11-16

Alfalfa $15.00

TO $20 PER TON.

That's what a good cow will make it pay you, and the market is right here in Prineville. We will buy all the cream you can produce.

Pioneer Cream Co.

Agents DeLaval Separator.

Cash Grocery

Geo. Whitis, Proprietor
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables in Season. Fancy and Staple Groceries. Quality considered, prices cannot be beaten in Prineville. FRESH BREAD 5c. Buns, Snails, Doughnuts Etc.
Call and See What Cash Will Buy

How Many of These People DO YOU KNOW?

Lewis C. Morgan, Proprietor of the Lyric Theatre
Hugh R. Lakin, of the W. F. King Company.
J. W. Carlson, of the firm of Stewart & Carlson, millers.
J. E. Stewart, of the firm of J. W. Stewart & Co.
Wm. J. Pancake, contractor.
Oliver Adams, of R. L. Jordan & Co.
Randolph D. Ketchum, Doctor.
J. W. Crooks, of Clifton & Cornett.
Wm. J. Paine, sawmill operator.
Timothy E. J. Duffy, Attorney at Law.
Wm. H. Porter, lumberman.

Do you think their judgment is worth anything? Do you think that they are in a position to know and appreciate land values in the City of Prineville? These are a few of the people who have secured ideal home sites in the high class NOBLE ADDITION. They expect to build and make their home there where they will have the benefit of the graded streets, sidewalks and building restrictions. A place where their property will not depreciate and their homes will not be made unpleasant by the erection of shacks on the adjoining lots.

MR. HOMEBUILDER OR INVESTOR
Buy your lots where ideal conditions for home sites are guaranteed. Where street improvements and sidewalks are already in; where your property values are secure; where it would be a pleasure to go and live yourself; where you have the protection of building restrictions. Noble's Addition is the only subdivision now on sale that has these modern necessities for a high class residence section. It is the only restricted district in Prineville. Prices are low, Terms to suit the purchaser. We will help you build your home. For particulars call on

A. R. BOWMAN
For Particulars.

If

you have a natural foot, put it in a "Natural Shape" shoe. There's a Florsheim in our stock that will fit your foot—Step in and try it on any time. The sooner the better.

A complete showing at $5.
Some few styles $6.

The Florsheim SHOE

J. E. Stewart & Co.