

Every Roof-leak makes a Pocket-leak

Genasco Ready Roofing

stops both. It stays waterproof and does away with needless expense-bills.

It is made of Trinidad Lake Asphalt—Nature's one perfect waterproofer; made by The Barber Asphalt Paving Company—the largest producers of asphalt and largest manufacturers of ready roofing in the world.

Several weights; in mineral and smooth surface
ASK FOR SAMPLES AND PRINTED MATTER

LOCAL MENTION

Born—November 22, to the wife of P. B. Doak, a girl.

Miss Ada Morse is teaching school near Redmond.

The new organ for the Baptist church arrived this week.

Mr. Wurawiler has returned from a business trip to Portland.

John W. Brackett of Meadows, proved up on his homestead Monday.

W. H. Post and Joe Lister were county seat visitors the first of the week.

Dr. Cline and wife of Redmond are visiting at the home of R. L. Jordan.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Dec. 1st at the home of Mrs. D. L. Wyld.

John Schmeer of Held, the breeder of fine stock, is in town this week.

Alfred R. Foster and William F. Pillster proved up on their homesteads Tuesday.

Charles Huston and daughter, Miss Etta, of Bear creek, are in Prineville this week.

Herbert Rideout and family left last Sunday for Portland where they will spend the winter.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Alvey W. Honsler and Vara Sutton, both of Hillman.

Last Friday a license to wed was granted to Richard Bryant of Corvallis and Bessie Morris of Post.

Frank Brosius left this morning for The Dalles to get his daughter, who has been in the hospital there.

Mrs. Williams, wife of the pastor of the M. E. church, joined her husband in Prineville the last of the week.

Mrs. Summers, who accompanied Mrs. McCall of Portland on an Eastern trip, returned to Prineville Monday.

L. M. Bechtell and George Newell left for Portland last Friday to take in the Oregon-Washington football game.

Mrs. Robert Cram spent the past week in Prineville. Her husband came in the first of the week to accompany her home.

George Brewster left for the East Tuesday to see the Wisconsin-Chicago football game and also to attend the National Irrigation Congress.

T. E. J. Duffy returned from his Minneapolis trip the last of the week. He encountered some frigid weather in Montana. Thirty below zero was all.

Ralph R. Wheaton, the contractor, left for Seattle Monday. He completed the school building in a manner satisfactory to the trustees and Architect Burgraff.

The "500" party given last Friday evening by the ladies of the Annex was well attended. There were sixty-five present. A good social time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. A. H. Kennedy and infant daughter returned home yesterday evening from a three-month visit with relatives at Astoria and Portland.

H. J. O'Neill, the general traveling freight and passenger agent of the O. W. R. & N. Co., Portland, is looking after the interest of his company in Prineville this week.

Mrs. Claude Wright received Saturday $1000 death benefit from M. W. of A. The promptness with which these obligations are met by the Woodmen speak well for the society.

R. W. Whitis, son of George Whitis of the Cash Grocery, arrived the first of the week from The Dalles to help his father handle the increasing business of the store.

Mr. McPherson, a member of the firm of McPherson Bros., Portland, is in Prineville to readjust the engine at the school building. It was found to be too light for the work required.

It is reported that Perry Long was seriously injured by a street car in Portland Sunday evening. He was getting off one car and was struck by another. Details are not at hand.

Messrs. Schriver and Wheelock gave a stag party last Saturday evening. About 25 from Prineville attended and report a very enjoyable time. Babe Matthews contributed largely to the evening's fun.

The friends of Mrs. Ike Blevens will be pleased to know that the operation performed by Dr. Rosenberg last week at The Dalles was very successful and she is rapidly recovering her health. She will be home soon.

T. J. Elliott of Elliott Bros., Portland, merchandise brokers, has charge of the Foster & Hyde stock of merchandise that is being offered at sacrifice prices. See the big advertisement. It tells all about the sale.

A. H. Lippman & Co., has been awarded the contract for carpeting the new Baptist church. This firm not only undersold Portland in price but also in quality of goods. It will take 1200 pounds of Wilton velvet carpet to floor the church.

Richard Bryant of Corvallis and Miss Bessie Morris of Camp Creek, were married at the home of the bride, November 20, by Judge Myers. Only immediate relatives of the family were present. Walter Morris gave a big dance in honor of the event. People came for forty miles around.

The Lyric theater, in order to keep abreast of its increasing patronage, has instituted a three-reel show, arrangements to that end having been made by Manager Morgan while at Portland last week. Down there the motion pictures have caused a gradual decadence of the "legitimate" theater, being quicker to see and cheaper.

Fencing:

The hinged joint, tension curve and heavy material are what makes the AMERICAN fence stand, when other fences go down. A Rabbit proof, Cattle strong, Hog tight, Horse high fence will add many times the price of the fence to the value of a ranch.

GROCERIES: We carry a complete stock of high-grade groceries. Are you one of the satisfied buyers in this department?

HARDWARE

Is our specialty. If we do not have what you want, there is very little chance of finding it this side of Portland.

What we want to do, strive to do, and succeed in doing is to make SATISFIED CUSTOMERS.

The W. F. King Co.

LOCAL MENTION

Oswald Rambow of Held, came down for supplies this week.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Bailey December 1st.

Pleas Milljorn has sold out in Madras and will move to Canyon city.

J. W. Howard and G. W. Fuller first of the week from a visit to Lower Bridge were in town last Tuesday.

Granville Nye of Bear Creek made a brief visit to the county seat this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Long returned the first of the week from a visit to their son-in-law, Walter Morris, on Camp Creek.

The ladies aid the Christian church will give an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. Belknap Nov. 24. Everyone invited.

A metal purse containing a small sum of money and a key, was picked up on the street and left at this office. Owner can have same by describing property.

The state president of the Christian Endeavor will organize a Crook county convention at Redmond Nov. 26. An interesting program has been prepared.

Eld. Conradson is assisting in the revival services this week in the Union church and is giving considerable vim to the meetings. Gypsy Smith has nothing on him.

The services at the Union Church continue with increasing interest. Large congregations greet the speaker. Rev. Owen is a splendid speaker and a Christian gentleman. Those who miss the sermons miss a treat.

There will be no preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday, the pastor being called out of the city. It is hoped the Presbyterians will unite with the Baptists in all their evangelistic meetings now in progress. J. C. LININGER, pastor.

Dr. Charles MacFadden, osteopath, graduate of the Littlejohn College of Chicago, has located in Prineville, with his office at the Redby, temporarily. Dr. MacFadden is recently from Portland. As the only osteopath in Crook county the doctor will soon have a first-class practice.

The Oregon Trunk bridge over Crooked river has become one of the scenic wonders of the world. This is not so much because of its engineering difficulties as of its height. The bridge will be found pictured on post cards and front pages of magazines and other publications all over the United States and presumably other countries, and yet the only remarkable feature about it is the fact that the top of the rails is exactly 320 feet from the bottom of the canyon beneath.

Reuben Booten was in the city from Post the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Held of Bear Creek are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Hinton.

Mrs. E. E. Spaulding returned the first of the week from a six weeks' visit with relatives at Portland, The Dalles and Valley points.

Married—At the residence of W. F. King, this city, Nov. 20, 1911, Alvey W. Honsler and Vara Sutton were united in marriage. Rev. C. H. Bailey officiating.

William H. Lohuis and W. Denton Moffatt made final commutation proof on their homesteads Tuesday before United States Commissioner T. E. J. Duffy.

Walter O'Neil was up from Madras Monday to visit with his family and look after his chicken ranch near this city. He says the firm of O'Neil Bros. Company is preparing to go out of the wholesale liquor business at Madras, it having become unprofitable since railroad work is finished. Mr. O'Neil is getting ready to embark in the poultry business next year on a good big scale, and he can hardly fail to make good at it, as chickens and eggs are always salable.

For the daintiest of hand-made Christmas gifts, wait for the Bazaar December 8. 11-16

We rent houses; phone us a description. For rent—7-room, modern; 2-room with woodshed, pump and chicken yard. STORDAHL & CO. DARR.

The Home Bakery Bread

Is now on sale at A. G. Ellefson's, bot. white and Graham. 10-234f

We buy household goods for cash; best prices, also sell and exchange. STORDAHL & CO. DARR, Furniture. Masonic building. Pioneer phone. 11-16

RUBEROID ROOFING

Has None of the Defects Common to Other Roofing Materials

RUBEROID is not affected by changes of temperature. It is weather-proof, water-proof and so highly fire-resistant that sparks or burning brands will not ignite it.

The Only Permanent Roofing With Permanent Colors

RUBEROID is made in red, brown, green and slate color. These colors are not painted on the roofing—they are part of it. They do not wear off or fade.

SHIPP & PERRY
Prineville, Oregon

If

you have a natural foot, put it in a "Natural Shape" shoe. There's a Florsheim in our stock that will fit you fine—Step in and try it on any time. The sooner the better.

The Apex Button

A complete showing at $5. Some few styles $6.

The Florsheim SHOE

J. E. Stewart & Co.

How Many of These People DO YOU KNOW?

Lewis C. Morgan, Proprietor of the Lyric Theatre
Hugh R. Lakin, of the W. F. King Company;
J. W. Carlson, of the firm of Stewart & Carlson, millers.

J. E. Stewart, of the firm of J. W. Stewart & Co.
Wm. J. Pancake, contractor;
Oliver Adams, of R. L. Jordan & Co.
Randolph D. Ketchum, Doctor.
J. W. Crooks, of Clifton & Cornett.
Wm. J. Paine, sawmill operator.
Timothy E. J. Duffy, Attorney at Law.
Wm. H. Porter, lumberman.

Do you think their judgment is worth anything? Do you think that they are in a position to know and appreciate land values in the City of Prineville? These are a few of the people who have secured ideal home sites in the high class NOBLE ADDITION. They expect to build and make their home there where they will have the benefit of the graded streets, sidewalks and building restrictions. A place where their property will not depreciate and their homes will not be made unpleasant by the erection of shacks on the adjoining lots.

MR. HOMEBUILDER OR INVESTOR
Buy your lots where ideal conditions for home sites are guaranteed. Where street improvements and sidewalks are already in; where your property values are secure; where it would be a pleasure to go and live yourself; where you have the protection of building restrictions. Noble's Addition is the only subdivision now on sale that has these modern necessities for a high class residence section. It is the only restricted district in Prineville. Prices are low. Terms to suit the purchaser. We will help you build your home. For particulars call on

A. R. BOWMAN
For Particulars.

CROOK COUNTY JOURNAL
COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER FOR CROOK COUNTY