Mr. Mackintosh has also started the erection of a three-story frame building on the corner of Peninsula avenue and Willis boulevard, near Lombard street. He has completed arrangements for the erection of a number of small cottages for the use of the operatives in the manufacturing plants near Kenton. At the start 16 of these cottages will be built.—Oregonian.

Fencing:

The hinged joint, tension curve and heavy material are what makes the AMERICAN fence stand, when other fences go down. A Rabbit proof, Cattle strong, Hog tight, Horse high fence will add many times the price of the fence to the value of a ranch.

GROCERIES:

We carry a complete stock of high-grade groceries. Are you one of the satisfied buyers in this department?

HARDWARE

Is our specialty. If we do not have what you want, there is very little chance of finding it this side of Portland.

What we want to do, strive to do, and succeed in doing is to make SATISFIED CUSTOMERS.

Foster of Powell Butte, and Mrs. Andrew Morrow of Haycreek, met Saturday and appointed Mr. Montgomery, a graduate of the Monmouth Normal, as supervisor of rural schools in Crook county. At the last session of the legislature a law was passed prescribing the supervisor's duties as follows: To work under the direction of the county superintendent; to devote his entire time to supervising the schools of his district; to enforce the course of study prescribed by the State Board of Education; to make a written report at the end of each school month to the county superintendent upon the general condition of each school in his district.

Shumias Have Unique Meeting

The regular meeting of the Shumia Club on November 25 was turned into a social afternoon. The Shumia members with their guests met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Gray at 2 o'clock. They were met at the door by little Miss Flora Edwards, who sang a quaint song of greeting. The introductions were sung to various tunes as they were passed from one to another of the reception committee, composed of Mrs. Gray, Miss Conway, Miss Gitchel and Mrs. Wood.

The first number on the program was the "Military March." Mrs. Gray then told the story of the "Swan Song" from Lohengrin, in a most graphic manner. This proved conducive to an appreciation of the rendition of it on the player-piano.

The Shumias then retired to another room. Each was assigned a bird to imitate. Rehearsals began at once, each one trying to make herself heard above the din of the rest. There was a time as well as a speed limit to this amateur vocal performance. They were then asked to stand where they would be out of sight but within hearing of the guests. At a signal the medley began. The guests were asked to call for the birds as they were recognized by their songs. The effort of imitating a bird and laughing between times furnished hilarious entertainment for all within earshot.

Miss Conway sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," with touching tenderness. The instrumental solo, "Old Black Joe," with variations followed. Mrs. Wood in her sweet and pleasing manner gave a "Character Sketch of a Slave Owner."

The unique game, "I Can Sing, Can You," devised by the hostess, created much amusement. Refreshments, carrying out the blue and gold colors of the club, were then served. While the guests lingered at the table Miss Gitchel gave the reading, "Gingsby's Station," in her usual artistic way. Flora Edwards then sang, "Sleep, Baby, Sleep," and "O, Tell Me Pretty Rosebud." The guests then departed declaring the hostess a clever entertainer. A SHUMIA.

Many a Man Owes His Success to an Investment

on the installment plan, because it has served as an anchor and kept him in a straight line and away from the many "Get Rich Quick" schemes which are so plentiful today and which so often mean riches only for the smooth tongued promoters thereof. By investing in YOUR HOME TOWN you are dealing with values and people with whom you are acquainted—people who are interested in your welfare because your success means the success of others about you, and the more successful citizens a town can boast of the better place it will be. Lots in NOBLES ADDITION can be had by making a very small payment down and the balance on terms to suit the purchaser, monthly, bi-monthly quarterly, half-yearly or annual payments. These lots are the best investment in city property, today. The only district with building restrictions and with street improvements and sidewalks already in. Make your selection now. A few dollars will hold the lots for you until you can make further payments. You are entitled to the best. Why not get it? Come in and let me show you NOBLES ADDITION, the center of building activity in Prineville.
