M'NAWARAS TAKEN TO PEN

Journey of 501 Miles to San Quentin Made by Train.

Los Angeles.-James B. McNamara, confessed murderer, and John J. Mc-Namara, confessed dynamiter and secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural mits and those whose certificates ex-Ironworkers, have been taken to San pire in February should take the ex-Quentin penitentiary, 501 miles away. amination. James B. begins a sentence of life imprisonment, while his brother faces a term of 15 years.

"I'm a union man and I'm for union labor," was John J. McNamara's parting comment to the world, according to Clarence S. Darrow, his chief counsel, who was last with him. John J. also expressed the hope that the sentiment of union labor toward him would change, remarking that in time the case would be better understood
