

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Events Occurring Throughout the State During the Past Week.

Contractors Sued For Death.
Albany.—J. C. Anderson, administrator of the estate of W. A. Anderson, deceased, has filed a complaint in the circuit court of Linn county, asking for $10,000 damages against H. M. Hyllesby & Co. and O'Neil Bros. and Calahan company. It is alleged that the defendants, while excavating on the North Santiam, set off a blast in close proximity to an old trail without giving any warning to passersby, and that the deceased was injured by the blast to such an extent that he died soon afterwards.

Let Contract for Irrigation Plant.
Deschutes.—The contract for the construction of a solid concrete dam across the Deschutes river and the first two miles of the north canal has been let by the Central Oregon Irrigation company to L. F. Gedertz, a prominent engineer of Portland. Mr. Gedertz will complete the work in record time, as he has bound himself to complete both within 120 days.

PETITIONS ARE IN

Completed List of Candidates Seen 174 in Race.

Salem.—With 174 completed petitions in, the clerical force in the office of the secretary of state has completed the task of checking up and arranging the list of candidates to be certified to the various clerks in the state. In all 124 republicans filed original petitions and five of the number failed to file completed petitions. Of the 58 democrats who filed original petitions all but two filed completed petitions.

The republicans who did not qualify by filing final petitions are Edward N. Camp of Douglas county, Thomas B. Hooker of Polk county, C. M. Hynerson of Multnomah county, all candidates for delegates to the national convention; Emmett Calahan of Baker county, candidate for judge of the circuit court for the eighth district and G. N. Davis of Multnomah county, candidate for district attorney.

The two democrats who failed to qualify are Alfred D. Cridge of Multnomah county and Emil T. Raddant of Lincoln county, both candidates for delegates to the national convention.

New Will is Filed.

Pendleton.—A seventh will was filed for probate here in the estate of James W. Young by Fred Young, a brother of Mrs. Mabel Young Warner, who has figured prominently in Umatilla county courts through her contests for possession of her uncle's estate. Fred Young is one of the beneficiaries named in the seventh will.

Project Work is Delayed.

Klamath Falls.—Work of constructing the second unit of the Klamath project, which when completed is to furnish water to Poe valley and a stretch of territory in the Klamath valley in the vicinity of Stake Mountain, will not be commenced immediately, as expected, according to the officials of the reclamation service here.

HOLD-UP SHOTS THREE

Lone Man Kills Two, Injures One, of Automobile Party.

Portland.—Shot by an unidentified man, who opened fire with a pump shotgun when an automobile carrying them was not stopped on his command, George Hastings, University of Oregon medical student, and Donald McCloud Stewart, son of Charles Stewart, a wealthy grain buyer, were killed and Irving Lupton, wounded in the right arm, on the White House road near the foot of the Elkrock hill grade between Oswego and Riverdale. Other members of the auto party, namely, Bruce Stewart, member of the Mann & Stewart Printing company, who owned the car and was driving, and H. L. Tabb, clerk in the freight department of the Northern Pacific, were uninjured.

The top of Hastings' head was blown off by the second charge of buckshot. He died four minutes later. Stewart, who was struck by the third charge, died at St. Vincent's hospital.

Two Events Combined.

Roseburg.—At a special meeting of the trustees of the Roseburg commercial club, it was decided to hold the fourth annual Strawberry and Rose Carnival in conjunction with its annual meeting of the State Grange, which convenes in Roseburg on May 16, 17 and 18.

Rats Damaging Timber.

Cottage Grove.—The theory that it is wood rats and not porcupines or squirrels that are damaging timber in this section of the county was advanced by W. C. Conner, who brought in a sample of the work of wood rats done on his place near here.

BRIEF NEWS OF OREGON

The farmers of Harney county have commenced sowing spring grain. A great run of smelt is now going up the Sandy river, the first big run for about eight years. The Pacific State bank has been incorporated at Astoria. It has a capital of $25,000 and will do business at Seaside.

The senate committee on commerce has decided to incorporate into the rivers and harbors bill an appropriation of $100,000 to begin the construction of the Nehalem bay jetties, a project to cost over $600,000, according to reports of army engineers.

Governor West has received a copy of a bill introduced in the United States senate by Senator Chamberlain, provisions of which will enable the state to create a state forest through the exchange of scattering school sections in federal forests for a compact body of forest reserve land.

Issuance of patents to Siletz homesteaders under the Hawley bill may be delayed indefinitely, the land office claiming to have evidence that options have been given on some Siletz lands and will start an investigation to ascertain if any of these options are on lands affected by the Hawley bill.

Advising State Treasurer Kay that the war department is now ready to purchase the locks and canal of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company at Oregon City, for $375,000, the assistant secretary has called upon the state to deposit $200,000 of the $300,000 appropriated to purchase them jointly.

Barley can be made to do for Oregon what corn has done for Iowa as a stock fattener is the belief of Harvey Lounsbury, general freight agent of the Southern Pacific, who has just completed the distribution of 150 acres of barley seed among farmers on the main and branch lines of the Southern Pacific between Portland and Albany.

Loggers from various districts of the Pacific Northwest, meeting informally at Portland, laid plans for a permanent organization to include the associations in the Columbia River district, the Puget Sound district and the Grays Harbor district. Uniform methods of scaling and grading logs, co-operation in various other phases of business activity, and closer social relations is the purpose of the organization.

Declaring that under present conditions it will be but a short time until the federal government will own all the land suitable for water power sites and the state will own the water, State Engineer John H. Lewis calls attention to the need for the people of the state to give serious thought to this matter, to the end that proper legislation may be enacted to enable the federal and state governments to co-operate in developing these great resources.
