The picture story of a trip through Hades, an authentic interpretation of "Divina Commedia," better known to the American Public as "Dante's Inferno." The result of Two Years Great Labor and more than $100,000 expended, in five reels, taking nearly two hours to present. The Poet, Dante, under the guidance of the Shade of the Poet Virgil, is taken through the Infernal Region, where the souls of departed men, women and children languish amid the fire and brimstone, seared and suffering for sordid sins.

More than a hundred different wonderful scenes, showing "Cerberus," the three-headed monster; fierce "Pluto;" the giant, "Nimrod;" the "River Acheron;" the grim judge "Minos;" the boatman "Phlegyas;" the "City of Dis;" the monster "Geryon," "Lucifer," and many, many others.

A SUGGESTION: --There will be two shows each night, one at 7 p. m., one at 9 p. m. Those who can should come early and see the entire first show from beginning to end; those who cannot come early should come at 8:45 or 9 p. m. This will enable you to see the pictures in comfort and to the best advantage and will greatly assist the management.
